Barry Says Prestige Of U.S. Sinks

Claims Democrats Are Letting Free World Fall Apart

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, asserting that President Johnson is "trying to reduce American politics to a popularity poll," said today the Democrats are letting the Free World fall apart while U.S. prestige sinks.

The Republican presidential candidate charged that Johnson's foreign policy has lost Turkey as a U.S. ally. He said France is seeking new trade ties with the Soviet Union while Great Britain's new Labor government ponders U.S. nuclear deterrent policies.

And the Communist world, said Goldwater, is "regrouping under tough new leaders."

Turning his campaign westward, Goldwater said Johnson "has proven to be a President isolated from foreign policy behind a wall of political ambition and behind a wall of political henchmen who care for nothing in the world but their own gains and power."

Goldwater made his accusations at Cheyenne, Wyo., kicking off a campaign day that takes him to Tucson, Ariz., Las Vegas, Nev., and Los Angeles.

"In just the past few days," he said, "while Lyndon Johnson has been trying to reduce American politics to a popularity poll, the Free World has been coming apart at the seams and American prestige has been sinking slowly out of sight."

Goldwater headed west after a final bid for Pennsylvania's 29 electoral votes. With three campaign journeys, he has made that state his one major target in the Northeast.

The GOP contender rolled by train from Harrisburg to Pittsburgh, hammering away at Johnson before crowds that ranged from about 2,000 to 5,000.

He capped a day of rain-splattered whistlestop speeches at a roaring rally that packed Pittsburgh's civic arena with more than 13,000 Thursday night.

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, introducing the man he had challenged for the presidential nomination, said there were 25,000 people in the hall and standing outside. Police estimated 17,000.

Auto Plunge Cuts Homes' Wire Service

Several homes on Route 30 between Laughlins Corners and Hillendale remained without power or telephone service today following a spectacular one-car wreck late Thursday night in which a Pittsburgh motorist escaped serious injury.

Kenneth J. Tragesser, 43, was in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital with a laceration of the scalp and contusions of the back after his eastbound car struck a utility pole, knocked down several small trees and other shrubbery, and plunged some 200 yards into a field.

Pennsylvania State Police of the Carnegie Barracks investgated the mishap.

Unable to obtain help for lack of phone service, a resident drove to Hookstown to summon an ambulance from the Welch Funeral Home to bring the motorist to the hospital, where he was admitted at 12:30 a.m.

The mishap was timed at 11:20 p.m. near the homes of Mrs. Medgelana Krizan and William Cooper, about four miles east of Laughlins Corners.

Forty-one passengers from the East Liverpool area aboard a chartered bus returning from Sen. Barry Goldwater's address at Pittsburgh saw a bright blue flame pierce the night sky as the car hit the pole, ripping down service lines. Primary power lines were not broken.

An eastbound tractor - trailer rig, following the auto, struck the wires, dragging a burning segment several hundred feet.

Traffic was tied up for about 30 minutes until the wires could be shoved off the highway.

At the home of Mrs. Krizan, a blue spruce, willow, pine and appricot trees along with other shrubbery were damaged.

Top Courthouse Jobs At Stake In Hancock Voting

Hancock County voters will fill virtually every top Courthouse post in Tuesday's general election and also share in selecting a congressman and state senator.

Deadline Saturday For Absentee Ballots

The deadline for Hancock County residents to vote absentee ballots at the Circuit Court office in New Cumberland is Saturday noon, Dan Grossi, clerk, warned today.

However, the deadline to apply for ballots to be voted by mail is 4 p.m. today. Ballots returned by mail before Tuesday will be counted at the polls, he said.

A total of 372 ballots had been cast as of Wednesday afternoon, Grossi said, including 82 voted at his office in the Courthouse and 290 returned through the mails.

In addition, county voters will name justices of the peace and constables in each of the three magisterial districts of Grant, Clay and Butler.

COURTHOUSE posts to be filled include sheriff, prosecuting attorney, assessor, county clerk and county commissioner.

As is customary, attention is expected to focus on election of a man who will wear the badge of sheriff. Joseph H. Manypenny will yield the office Jan. 1, prevented from succeeding himself by state law.

Campaigns of the candidates have been lively, and a turnout of about 60 per cent of the county's 23,190 registered voters is predicted.

The nominees for county sheriff, a four-year term paying $4,800 in salary and $10,000 in tax fees, are Joe Rodak of Weirton, Democrat, and Ralph J. Patrick Jr. of New Cumberland, Republican.

PATRICK, 32, resides on Pearl St., New Cumberland, and is a mechanic in the construction department of Weirton Steel Co. He is a former Weirton athletic star.

The sheriff commands 13 deputies and four employes in his tax collection office. Manypenny is a Democrat and succeeded Clayton H. Hobbs, Republican, in the 1960 general election.

Nominees for prosecuting attorney are Atty. Floyd R. Tarr of Weirton, the incumbent Democrat, and Atty. Leonard Z. Alpert of Weirton, Republican.

Atty. Tarr was elected prosecutor in 1960, leading the Democratic ticket in the county in the number of votes received. He has practiced law in Hancock since 1952.

Only Majority Needed

3,200 Expected To Vote On Beaver Local's Levies

An estimated 3,200 Beaver Local School District residents are expected to vote on two levy proposals in Tuesday's general election.

Up for consideration are renewal of a 1.6-mill operating levy along with a proposed new 5.4-mill levy for school operations.

A simple majority is needed to approve the issues.

The Board of Education is seeking the levies to provide needed operating funds for the school district, which has had decreased state foundation aid along with increased expenses and a growing enrollment.

Support of the levies has been strongly urged by the Association for Advancement of Beaver Local Education, which emphasized the need for new textbooks, continuing improvement of the education program and the restoration of programs cut back because of insufficient funds.

Continuance of the present faculty salary schedule also is dependent upon the levies, and the need for a teacher pay scale competitive with other districts has been termed vital by ABLE and by school officials.

Roy Cashdollar, executive head, pointed out the district has the second lowest tax millage in the county.

A motorcade will travel throughout the school district Monday afternoon and evening to promote the levies.

New Phrase Unveiled By President

Says Your Vote, World You Save Will Be Your Own

DETROIT (AP) — President Johnson, making a final campaign tour of the Midwest, came up with a new slogan today: "The vote you cast will be your own and the world you save will be your own."

Johnson unveiled this phrase in a speech prepared for an airport rally in Detroit. It was his latest move in a week-long effort to picture himself as the candidate best equipped to preserve peace.

The President, even while emphasizing questions of peace and war in every speech, still seeks opportunities to contrast his views with those of Republican rival Barry Goldwater.

He did this anew Thursday night in Philadelphia, taking issue with Goldwater on the role of clergymen in public affairs.

Addressing a Democratic dinner, Johnson added to his text a challenge to a Goldwater statement questioning the propriety of political endorsements by members of the clergy.

The President said: "I hope the day will never come when any man, for any cause, will try to keep religion out of our national decisions on who shall lead us or the direction we shall go."

A day earlier, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Goldwater inserted into one of his campaign speeches a passage ni which he questioned whether clergymen could be giving proper attention to problems of morality and, at the same time, be providing Johnson with endorsements.

The President, who never mentioned Goldwater in his remarks, said: "I do not condemn our churches or our clergymen for being concerned that America meet her moral responsibilities for peace, for preserving human freedom and human life, and for doing what a rich nation can and should do to wipe poverty from our land. I not only don't condemn them, I thank God for their courage."

Johnson, in his Detroit text, hit his peace theme again saying: "We must be strong — but never reckless. We must be firm — but never foolish. One reckless impulsive move of a single finger could incinerate our civilization.

"That is what it means to be President of the United States today. That is what is at stake in this election."

Then, cribbing liberally from a familiar highway slogan, he concluded: "Go to the polls Tuesday and vote, alone with your conscience. The vote you cast will be your own and the world you save will be your own."

Official Report Sets Entry Loss At $4,200

The official police report completed Thursday placed loss at $4,200 in a burglary of two safes at the Moose Lodge early yesterday — an increase of $1,200 from the unofficial estimate made by lodge officials.

The report compiled by Capt. Robert Pyle and Patrolmen Jerry Adkins and Charles Winters showed $3,000 was taken from a large safe in the lodge office and another $1,200 was removed from a smaller strongbox built into the back bar. The loss included both cash and checks.

In addition, the intruders took four cases of beer and a box of cigars. The safes were battered open by intruders who forced entry between 1 and 8:15 a.m. yesterday.

19 To Face Charges Of Tax Law Violation

Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson filed affidavits Thursday afternoon in Municipal Court accusing 19 individuals of violating the city income tax law by failure to file returns.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff has set hearings Nov. 24 for 10 of the defendants and Nov. 25 for the other nine. Thirteen are accused of one violation — failure to file an estimate of 1964 income. Six are charged with failure to file 1964 estimates and failing to furnish a final return on 1963 earnings.

Following its custom, the court will release the names of the defendants after they have been served with summonses by Bailiff Wilbert P. Taylor.

Huge Turbo-Type Facility Scheduled For Use In 1967

The mushrooming electric power industry in the Ohio Valley took on added dimension Thursday with announcement by the Ohio Edison Co. of plans for a $40 million expansion at the W. H. Sammis power plant at Stratton below Wellsville.

Installation of a new turbo-generating unit at the Sammis plant will increase its kilowatt capacity to 1,021,000 second largest in the state and exceeded only by the huge $125 million Cardinal plant under construction near Brilliant along the Ohio River.

D. Bruce Mansfield, president of the utility, said the new unit at Sammis will be the largest generating machine in the Ohio Edison system and by itself would be capable of handling the electrical needs "of all the homes, stores and factories in a city greater in size than Akron."

Partially responsible for the proposed new addition, the president said, is the recent reduction in corporate federal income taxes brought about by the Revenue Act of 1964.

"It is expected that this reduction in taxes, together with funds on hand and otherwise to be derived from operations, will be sufficient to cover construction expenditures for 1965 without the need for additional financing."

The present capacity at the Sammis pant along Route 7 at Srtatton is 706,000 kilowatts. When the 315,000-kilowatt unit is added, the output will be 1,021,000 kilowatts — second largest in Ohio.

Newest and largest power plant in the Ohio Edison chain, the Sammis plant has at present four turbo-generating units with a total capacity of 706,000 kilowatts. The last of these units went into operation in 1962.

The present plant will be ex-

TV Cable's Veto Overridden 6-0

An ordinance granting a community television cable franchise to a New Jersey firm became law again Thursday night at 8:58 after Council voted, 6-0, to override Mayor Merrill D. Hall's veto of Oct. 16.

In a meeting that was brief but charged with partisan feeling, Councilman Donald Hancock read a statement answering the questions posed by the mayor when he rejected the legislation granting the 15-year franchise to Rego Industries, Inc.

Hancock said the two-page statement reflected the feelings of the six Democrats who voted to override the Republican mayor's veto. He said Council's reply represented "conclusions reached in a 10-day study" after the veto message was presented Oct. 19.

ROBERT W. Sample, the lone Republican member, was excused. President George E. Willshaw, also a Republican, touched off an exchange with the councilmen at the outset of the session when he urged them to "work for the best interests of the citizens in general" and raised the question of "personal commitments" of the members or "differences with the mayor."

The meeting required only 16 minutes, although all six members spoke in defense of the Rego franchise. Seven persons were in the audience.

Hancock read a statement that he said answered the four points raised by the mayor's veto message.

First, he said, the mayor said the franchise should contain a clause requiring the company to dismantle its lines and other equipment if it quits business.

He said the TV cable company's contracts with utility companies require it to post cash or surety bonds against the possibility the firm will go out of business without removing its lines and equipment from poles.

LATER, HE added the Federal Communications Commission has approved a rule that requires TV cable companies to dismantle their antenna towers if they quit business and the towers are ruled a "hazard."

Next, he cited the mayor's charge that Rego originally proposed a subscribers rate of $4.50 to $4.95 a month, but the ordinance provided for a rate from $4.95 to $5.50 monthly, with a 10 per cent discount for prompt payment.

Replying to that charge,

Talk Of Steel Price Boost 'Dies Down'

Apparently Spiked By Disapproving Word Of President

But the question remained: Was it a pre-election lull on the part of steel leaders who have warmly argued for a boost recently, or has the President—plus glowing profit reports—given them enduring pause?

The Johnson point that steel profits, anemic two years ago, now are swelling rapidly was underscored Thursday when Bethlehem Steel Corp., the No. 2 producer, reported that July-September earnings had jumped 105 per cent from a year earlier, rising to $36.3 million or 76 cents a common share.

For the first nine months of this year profits climbed 58 per cent to $104,928,160, a seven-year high for such a period and more than the company earned in all of 1963.

Even so, Edmund F. Martin, Bethlehem chairman, said the nine-month margin—a 6.3 per cent return on sales and 7.8 per cent on invested capital—wasn't good enough.

"If we were satisfied, I would hope somebody would fire me," Martin told newsmen.

This was roughly what several other steel company executives have been saying.

Martin refused to say anything about prices, even why he

Trash Levy's For Half Mill

Funds To Continue Garbage Collection

City voters will be asked Tuesday to renew a half - mill levy for five years that provides part of the funds for garbage and trash collections.

The levy, which has been in effect for many years, produces approximately $20,000 yearly to help finance the incinerator department operation.

In seeking renewal of the levy, City Council has emphasized that it will not increase real estate taxes. It amounts to 50 cents per $1,000 valuation.

The department's revenue is based entirely on 2½ mills in voted levies. However, only the half-mill levy, which was approved separately, is due to expire at the end of this year.

Various garbage levies have been in effect for over two decades. City employes formerly collected payment in cash when picking up refuse.

The original voted levy was used only to finance garbage collections. The millage was increased after the city also undertook the trash collection.

If approved, the levy will be in effect for the tax years of 1964, 1965, 1966, 1967 and 1968.

No Tax Increase

Hospital Levy Continues Current Source Of Funds

East Liverpool voters will be asked to renew for five years a seven - tenths of a mill levy for City Hospital when they go to the polls Tuesday.

Renewal of the levy, which will provide about $30,000 annually, will not increase taxes, J. D. Thompson, chairman of the hospital publicity committee, said.

The levy amounts to 70 cents for each $1,000 valuation on the tax duplicate, he pointed out. The indirect tax for those who are not property owners is so slight that it virtually amounts to nothing, he said.

The income from the levy is entirely absorbed by the cost of charity cases and provides nothing for maintenance of property.

The cost of charity cases in 1963 was $49,637. In the five years prior to 1964, the cost of charity cases admitted to the hospital was $164,920, and the total since 1905, when the hospital was opened to the public, is $937,023.

Patients in the wards are provided service at less than cost, the difference between the rate charged and the actual cost also representing charity, although it is not included in the figures, Thompson said.

Last year 6,880 cases were rushed to the hospital as accident or emergency cases requiring immediate hospital service. In such cases, no one ever has been turned away, he emphasized.

However, no charity cases

Chief Warns Against Halloween Vandalism

Police Chief A. J. Radeschi today issued a warning against vandalism in the annual "trick-or-treat" rounds Saturday night.

"We're in favor of youngsters having fun, but we will not tolerate property damage," the chief said. Parents will be held responsible for losses, he said.

The chief requested a warning to both motorists and children to guard against traffic mishaps. He pointed out youngsters, excited by Halloween rounds, may dash into the street without thinking—directly into the path of an auto. Children should wear at least one article of white apparel as an aid to visibility in headlights, he said.

The mushrooming electric power industry in the Ohio Valley took on added dimension Thursday with announcement by the Ohio Edison Co. of plans for a $40 million expansion at the W. H. Sammis power plant at Stratton below Wellsville.

At Special Meeting

TV Cable's Veto Overridden 6-0

An ordinance granting a community television cable franchise to a New Jersey firm became law again Thursday night at 8:58 after Council voted, 6-0, to override Mayor Merrill D. Hall's veto of Oct. 16.

In a meeting that was brief but charged with partisan feeling, Councilman Donald Hancock read a statement answering the questions posed by the mayor when he rejected the legislation granting the 15-year franchise to Rego Industries, Inc.

Hancock said the two-page statement reflected the feelings of the six Democrats who voted to override the Republican mayor's veto. He said Council's reply represented "conclusions reached in a 10-day study" after the veto message was presented Oct. 19.

ROBERT W. Sample, the lone Republican member, was excused. President George E. Willshaw, also a Republican, touched off an exchange with the councilmen at the outset of the session when he urged them to "work for the best interests of the citizens in general" and raised the question of "personal commitments" of the members or "differences with the mayor."

The meeting required only 16 minutes, although all six members spoke in defense of the Rego franchise. Seven persons were in the audience.

Hancock read a statement that he said answered the four points raised by the mayor's veto message.

First, he said, the mayor said the franchise should contain a clause requiring the company to dismantle its lines and other equipment if it quits business.

He said the TV cable company's contracts with utility companies require it to post cash or surety bonds against the possibility the firm will go out of business without removing its lines and equipment from poles.

LATER, HE added the Federal Communications Commission has approved a rule that requires TV cable companies to dismantle their antenna towers if they quit business and the towers are ruled a "hazard."

Next, he cited the mayor's charge that Rego originally proposed a subscribers rate of $4.50 to $4.95 a month, but the ordinance provided for a rate from $4.95 to $5.50 monthly, with a 10 per cent discount for prompt payment.

Replying to that charge,

No Tax Increase

Hospital Levy Continues Current Source Of Funds

East Liverpool voters will be asked to renew for five years a seven - tenths of a mill levy for City Hospital when they go to the polls Tuesday.

Renewal of the levy, which will provide about $30,000 annually, will not increase taxes, J. D. Thompson, chairman of the hospital publicity committee, said.

The levy amounts to 70 cents for each $1,000 valuation on the tax duplicate, he pointed out. The indirect tax for those who are not property owners is so slight that it virtually amounts to nothing, he said.

The income from the levy is entirely absorbed by the cost of charity cases and provides nothing for maintenance of property.

The cost of charity cases in 1963 was $49,637. In the five years prior to 1964, the cost of charity cases admitted to the hospital was $164,920, and the total since 1905, when the hospital was opened to the public, is $937,023.

Patients in the wards are provided service at less than cost, the difference between the rate charged and the actual cost also representing charity, although it is not included in the figures, Thompson said.

Last year 6,880 cases were rushed to the hospital as accident or emergency cases requiring immediate hospital service. In such cases, no one ever has been turned away, he emphasized.

However, no charity cases

Talk Of Steel Price Boost 'Dies Down'

Apparently Spiked By Disapproving Word Of President

But the question remained: Was it a pre-election lull on the part of steel leaders who have warmly argued for a boost recently, or has the President—plus glowing profit reports—given them enduring pause?

The Johnson point that steel profits, anemic two years ago, now are swelling rapidly was underscored Thursday when Bethlehem Steel Corp., the No. 2 producer, reported that July-September earnings had jumped 105 per cent from a year earlier, rising to $36.3 million or 76 cents a common share.

For the first nine months of this year profits climbed 58 per cent to $104,928,160, a seven-year high for such a period and more than the company earned in all of 1963.

Even so, Edmund F. Martin, Bethlehem chairman, said the nine-month margin—a 6.3 per cent return on sales and 7.8 per cent on invested capital—wasn't good enough.

"If we were satisfied, I would hope somebody would fire me," Martin told newsmen.

This was roughly what several other steel company executives have been saying.

Chief Warns Against Halloween Vandalism

"We're in favor of youngsters having fun, but we will not tolerate property damage," the chief said. Parents will be held responsible for losses, he said.

The chief requested a warning to both motorists and children to guard against traffic mishaps. He pointed out youngsters, excited by Halloween rounds, may dash into the street without thinking—directly into the path of an auto. Children should wear at least one article of white apparel as an aid to visibility in headlights, he said.

Trash Levy's For Half Mill

Funds To Continue Garbage Collection

City voters will be asked Tuesday to renew a half - mill levy for five years that provides part of the funds for garbage and trash collections.

The levy, which has been in effect for many years, produces approximately $20,000 yearly to help finance the incinerator department operation.

In seeking renewal of the levy, City Council has emphasized that it will not increase real estate taxes. It amounts to 50 cents per $1,000 valuation.

The department's revenue is based entirely on 2½ mills in voted levies. However, only the half-mill levy, which was approved separately, is due to expire at the end of this year.

Various garbage levies have been in effect for over two decades. City employes formerly collected payment in cash when picking up refuse.

The original voted levy was used only to finance garbage collections. The millage was increased after the city also undertook the trash collection.

If approved, the levy will be in effect for the tax years of 1964, 1965, 1966, 1967 and 1968.

STATEMENT BY

JOEL H. SHARP

A LAST MINUTE POLITICAL ATTACK BY INFERENCE BY MY OPPONENT REQUIRES THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT FROM ME:

1. Neither I nor any of my campaign committees have, or will solicit or accept any campaign contribution of money or funds from any lawyer or litigant. If my opponent had wished to be fair, he could have learned this by examining the returns filed with the Board of Elections after each of my previous campaigns.

2. I am proud to have the support of many lawyers of Columbiana County, including those who are on my committee.

3. The members of the Columbiana County Bar Association are honorable men who would not think of asking, expecting or accepting a favor because of supporting or endorsing a judicial candidate.

4. The endorsement of the Columbiana County Bar Association was not solicited nor asked for. It was given as a result of a secret ballot conducted by the officers of the Association on all the judicial candidates, state, district and county.

5. The official reports of the Clerk of Courts of Columbiana County show that Judges Joel H. Sharp and Raymond S. Buzzard have tried, settled or dismissed 5247 cases in the last five years and nine months, which has not only kept the docket current, but has reduced the number of pending cases by 112.

6. I submit the record of my years of service as your Common Pleas Judge on the question of whether justice has been fairly and impartially administered without regard to the identity of the lawyers and litigants before me.

The attorneys, who know me and my opponent best, have made their recommendation.

Some of you have been jurors in my Court and can judge my qualifications by personal experience. The great majority of you must judge me by my record, and I am satisfied to have you do so.

I regret that the publication deadline has prevented my answering in the Wellsville Press where my opponent's attack wastimed so that no answer could be made.

Sincerely,

STATEMENT BY

JOEL H. SHARP

A LAST MINUTE POLITICAL ATTACK BY INFERENCE BY MY OPPONENT REQUIRES THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT FROM ME:

1. Neither I nor any of my campaign committees have, or will solicit or accept any campaign contribution of money or funds from any lawyer or litigant. If my opponent had wished to be fair, he could have learned this by examining the returns filed with the Board of Elections after each of my previous campaigns.

2. I am proud to have the support of many lawyers of Columbiana County, including those who are on my committee.

3. The members of the Columbiana County Bar Association are honorable men who would not think of asking, expecting or accepting a favor because of supporting or endorsing a judicial candidate.

4. The endorsement of the Columbiana County Bar Association was not solicited nor asked for. It was given as a result of a secret ballot conducted by the officers of the Association on all the judicial candidates, state, district and county.

5. The official reports of the Clerk of Courts of Columbiana County show that Judges Joel H. Sharp and Raymond S. Buzzard have tried, settled or dismissed 5247 cases in the last five years and nine months, which has not only kept the docket current, but has reduced the number of pending cases by 112.

6. I submit the record of my years of service as your Common Pleas Judge on the question of whether justice has been fairly and impartially administered without regard to the identity of the lawyers and litigants before me.

The attorneys, who know me and my opponent best, have made their recommendation.

Some of you have been jurors in my Court and can judge my qualifications by personal experience. The great majority of you must judge me by my record, and I am satisfied to have you do so.

I regret that the publication deadline has prevented my answering in the Wellsville Press where my opponent's attack wastimed so that no answer could be made.

Sincerely,

Everybody Going For Broke

When the final bills come in and the national officers of the political parties start scratching the bottom of the money barrel, there is always a period of remorse.

When the remorse set in after the votes were cast in 1960, John F. Kennedy created the President's Commission on Campaign Costs to see what could be done about profligate spending.

This is the year of years, he believes — a minimum of $200 million. This does not include any value on the time of public officials who have spent most of the year campaigning instead to the jobs they are paid to perform.

It sets no value on the time put in by volunteers, who help the professionals with no hope of immediate monetary reward. It included only cash outlay for the high cost of television, airplanes, trains, advertising in publications and the other trappings of the national campaign. It does not include any estimates of the cost of local campaigns.

It does include some $10 million spent by Republican hopefuls in the primaries and the San Francisco convention. More money was spent in that final critical contest in California, for example, than once would have been spent in a national campaign.

What was President Kennedy worried about when he learned that the 1960 national campaign cost at least $175 million, which was some $35 million more than the 1956 campaign cost? He wondered when and where it would end running each other into bankruptcy every four years.

The question has been raised, not answered. At this rate, a half-billion-dollar campaign can be expected by the year 2000, perhaps sooner.

'Yes' For Wall Levy

With 100 per cent collection, it would provide approximately $4,500 a year for the next five years.

Most of this money would be used for the proper upkeep of the electrical system and pumps so essential to the operation of the wall. The present half-mill levy has not been enough to assure an adequate job.

The flood wall has proved its worth time and again when the mighty Ohio and streams flowing into it have gone on a rampage. An additional half-mill is a small price to pay for the protection it furnishes to residents of the city of Wellsville.

The decision should not be a difficult one for wise-thinking voters. The levy deserves a "yes" on Tuesday.

Safe Nuclear Competition

It is not surprising, only outlandish, that political voices in India are clamoring for an atomic explosion to keep up with the Chinese People's Republic.

It is outlandish because India cannot afford the nuclear race. But neither can China, for that matter. Or Israel, the United Arab Republic, France, or Britain.

But they and all the other nations that intend to join the United States and the Soviet Union in the "Nuclear Club" are under pressure to keep up with the Joneses. That was how the nuclear race began.

The United States was trying to beat Germany. Then the Soviet Union was trying to catch up to the United States. Great Britain did not want to be left out, but when it was admitted to the race that meant France had to catch up.

And if the United Arab Republic intended to obliterate Israel with something fiendish put together by German physicists, that meant Israel had to be given assurance, and so on and so on.

If Indian goes nuclear, Pakistan will have to go nuclear to keep up with India. And thus it will go, unless someone finds a way to turn all this human and atomic energy to competitive uses that will not be warlike.

Only one possibility comes to mind—earth-moving. There isn't a nation on earth that doesn't need to move a few million tons of dirt and rock for a lake, a canal, a port, or perhaps just a hole in the ground.

How about a contest to see who can dig the best hole under strict international regulations? It might steer nuclear competition into safe channels.

One Of The Best

Harold H. Burton's name will remain recorded among those of Ohio's best public officials.

The intelligent, dignified, personable lawyer held the record of never having been defeated in an election during nearly 30 years of public service.

He left his native New England to establish a law practice in Cleveland and began his public career in 1929 after his election to the Ohio House. Soon he was recalled to Cleveland to serve as law director, subsequently was elected mayor in a critical period of Cleveland politics and after three terms was elected on his first bid for the U.S. Senate.

Then he served as a member of the famous Truman war investigating committee during World War II and his stature was such that when Harry Truman, a Democrat, became president he appointed the Republican Sen. Burton to the U.S. Supreme Court.

When his health failed, Mr. Justice Burton retired in 1958 after 13 years on the Supreme Court.

Death has claimed him at 76 but he will continue to live in the hearts of Ohioans who appreciate his long, distinguished public service.

Cotton Corners

Dear Nephew: It's back to work we go next Wednesday morning.

We will have had our quadrennial binge.

All the rancor will have been flushed out of our systems.

We will have relieved ourselves of pent-up pressures.

Our adrenolin glands will have been squeezed dry.

We will be able to grin at each other and say, "Uncle."

We'll have had it.

We will break political training with pleasure and return to more normal routines.

CHIEFLY, what we will do is go back to all the important chores we have been neglecting—the chores whose faithful performance keeps bread and meat on the table and tax revenue in the coffers for our great good government.

Having watched for many years this amazing transformation from political storm to peace that passeth all understanding the day after the election we can predict it with certainty.

Everybody will stay up late election night to see how things turned out. If the experts know their business, this one won't be a cliff-hanger like the last one. But there will be enough suspense to go around; there always is.

But gradually it will cross the minds of everybody concerned that the storm is over and the world is intact. Dogs still will wag their tails. Water will come out of faucets. Rain will fall from the clouds, an babies will still make chubby fists and grab at anything they can reach.

A great sigh of relief will rise from millions of hearts.

THE REPUBLIC will have been saved again, as the victors will see it. And as the losers will think of it when they have quit sobbing, they will have lived to fight another day.

They will not have to go into hiding. No one will excoriate them for being on the losing side. Their credit will still be good.

Their friends will still speak to them. In time, winners and losers even will be able to share little jokes about the election of 1964.

Believe me, nephew, this is the way it will be, because this is the way it has been. Everybody will feel peachy-dandy when the agony is over.

The flurries of paper propaganda will subside. Our favorite programs will no longer be interrupted by paid political announcements.

We can erase the impression that all our public servants are part-time soundrels who are thinking up plots to betray public confidence.

WE THE VOTERS can do what they the candidates will do; namely, shake hands and congratulate one another on having survived another performance of the greatest political show on earth.

So pack your old bait box full of goodies because this is the week we all go back to work and forget partisan politics, glory be.

Revenue Boys Keep After Hoffa

By Victor Riesel

Jimmy Hoffa's grand illusion that there is a chasmal difference between himself and mortal man is being pricked by the Internal Revenue Service. A search of its dockets discloses that it is now seeking some $100,000 from him in back taxes—back to 1952, that is.

Victor Riesel

Federal tax investigators have been going over Hoffa's income, dollar by dollar for the years 1952 and 1956 to 1960 at the least.

This is a civil not criminal action but it may prove costly to the embattled Teamsters chief. The IRS has been disallowing such items as claims for automobile expenses, union payment of endowment policy premiums, hotel bills, transportation and even challenging Hoffa's report of gambling winnings.

FOR THE YEAR 1957, the Treasury Department has charged that Mr. Hoffa underestimated his race track winnings. In that year he reported his earnings from a joint betting venture with his late friend Owen Bert Brennan, who was a great horse fancier and racetrack habitue despite his leadership of Detroit Teamsters local 337.

Most of the income involved in the many dockets is from Local 299, which, with its 13,000 members, is one of the largest in the Teamsters Brotherhood. Hoffa was, and still is, president of this Detroit local which paid most of the expenses now being questioned by the government.

THE IRS tax trial was scheduled for mid-October, but the Treasury people agreed to a postponement requested by Hoffa. He argued that he has been in the criminal courts for so long now that he has fallen behind in his national office activities and needs more time.

If the IRS succeeds in disallowing part of Hoffa's expense accounts and succeeds in forcing him to include in his taxable income such items as legal fees paid by the local, the financial burden on the truculent Teamster's president will be enormous.

None of this involves the money paid out by the Teamsters' national office for legal fees in the cases which drew such notoriety.

There is no specific amount officially available but authoritative estimates have it that the total came to some $850,000 before the Teamsters' vice presidents voted to clamp down on the payments to the big legal staff defending Hoffa.

THUS, IF the IRS sets a precedent in the local Detroit case, Hoffa would have to pay over $600,000 in personal taxes since the entire sum would be judged personal income.

Still, such payments would be only part of the money he may have to dredge up.

When he was convicted in Chattanooga on March 12, and sentenced to an eight-year term for jury tampering, he was also fined $10,000. Add to this the cost of most of this trial defense and that of the Chicago trial after which he was sentenced to four five-year terms for mail fraud. Each term is to run concurrently, after the eight-year term.

THE JURY tampering sentence is being appealed in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati, while the mail fraud penalties will be put before the Seventh Circuit in Chicago. Eminent members of the Bar Association queried by this reporter estimate that the trial and appeals costs could run to over $200,000.

Thus it is possible that Hoffa may yet have to raise some $900,000 before he is through with his current conflict with the U.S. government.

Just how costly this battle could prove in terms more precious than money, Hoffa will know shortly. The Sixth Circuit has this appeal down for its December calendar.

Sic transit gloria . . . it may not have been worth it at all.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I have been a taxpayer for 50 years. I have been a taxpayer in Beaver Local for 30 years and schooled five children in Beaver Local through the eighth grade and graduated them at Lisbon.

Our first child entered school in 1938 and our last ones (twins) graduated from David Anderson High School in 1957. During this period I participated in all school activities, was president of the PTA and supported all levies for our new grade schools as well as the new high school. I met many wonderful teachers, friendly and dedicated. I personally met many a school board member and my judgment is that for the most part they were what I would call political hacks. I saw a period of one - man rule.

Teachers were fired for participating in PTA programs; school property was openly removed and no record left; board members abdicated their authority. When the levy for the four new grade schools was passed, the board, in my opinion, doublecrossed West Point, Elkton and Oak Grove in favor of Calcutta.

I feel that for some time we have been suffering from one-man rule and a rubber-stamp board — a board that did not extend the courtesy of an interview to the applicants for the post of executive secretary.

Who knows, we might have saved some money had their public trust been executed. The submission of this levy after two defeats is an open abuse of the democratic process. It is also a snide reflection on the electorate whose last judgment did not meet with the judgment of the tax spenders. Judging from the letter of Miss Norman (Review Oct. 26), the propagandists have been very active. I wonder how many more students have had the same treatment. How snide can a public servant be?

Now I am 100 per cent for schools, but let me emphasize I mean more efficient schools.

ABLE would have the electorate believe that with enough money available teachers can be hired with an uncanny skill that can instill knowledge in our students even though they are unmotivated. Teachers and books are but helps. The student will advance according to his efforts.

Let's hear the minutes read and ascertain who is paid and how much. I attended a board meeting and during the reading of the bills one was mentioned for $700 for gas at a certain station. The president of the board interjected, "How come this bill when we have our pumps at the schools?" The answer was that the drivers sometimes forget to fill up at the school pumps. These school buses should be parked at all times on the school yard and one pump installed there. If this move is taken there will be money to transport all children.

Let us get our schools back to institutions of learning instead of entertainment. Eliminate the frills and give the electorate credit for sound judgment when they make a judgment.

The school board is not held responsible for any actions or expenditures due to bad judgment.

Eighty cents of every tax dollar go for school purposes. Since 1947 federal, state and local taxes have increased 176 per cent. The school system by all means is in need of drastic reforms. The tax burden for people on fixed income is now at a level where it really hurts. We must vote "no" on this issue for our own survival.

Vote Phenomena

By David Lawrence

Rival Views Fail To Impress Supporters

Seldom has there been a presidential contest in which so many persons on each side who intend to vote for their chosen candidate don't really subscribe to his views as expressed in the campaign. This phenomenon could have far-reaching consequences in the development of domestic and foreign policies during the next administration no matter who wins.

David Lawrence

Many of the supporters of President Johnson who are themselves conservative are inclined to believe that, when the chips are down, he will be found on that side of the argument. Many of these same people also don't believe he will pursue a policy on civil rights that would lead to enforced integration. They are convinced that anyone who voted on some of these issues as Mr. Johnson did when he was a senator is bound to find some reason to revert to earlier concepts on certain questions.

IN A NUTSHELL, a vast number of those citizens as well as many of those organizations or publications which have come out for Mr. Johnson are wishfully hoping that, if he is inaugurated president in January, he will be different from the man who presented himself to the voters during the campaign. Mr. Johnson has used so many generalities in expressing his views that he has left himself considerable flexibility to move either way on several controversial questions.

On ideological positions, Mr. Johnson isn't regarded with enthusiasm by most of the so-called liberals or the moderates who have jumped on the Democratic bandwagon this time. They are supporting Lyndon Johnson to a large extent because they don't favor Barry Goldwater.

This, of course, portends considerable controversy once the shaping of policy confronts Mr. Johnson if he should be elected for the next four years. Actually, many of these same people would have preferred Hubert Humphrey for the top spot, since he speaks their language and is at heart in sympathy with their beliefs, whether these be called liberal or radical or socialistic.

The Arizona senator is in much the same position as Mr. Johnson with respect to the nature of some of the support behind him. The Republican nominee has, of course, many ardent followers who really look upon him as a dedicated leader. Not all of them have been Republicans in the past, as may be noted, for example, in the South.

PERHAPS the biggest handicap faced by Sen. Goldwater is the hostility of moderates or liberals in his own party who dealt what may prove a fatal blow to his election chances in their behavior during and after the Republican national convention at San Francisco.

These disappointed Republicans not only have held themselves aloof — as many of them in Congress and in state offices haven't even endorsed their national ticket — but have continued their sullenness throughout the campaign.

The resentments over their course are deep and will be manifest at the party convention and at the polls in 1968. If Mr. Goldwater is defeated next week, it will be hard to convince many Republicans that desertion of their party by fellow Republicans of the liberal bloc was not to a large extent responsible.

It was from this faction of the Republican party that the talk of recklessness and irresponsibility was first heard. The Democrats picked up the epithets and have persuaded many voters that Barry Goldwater would be trigger-happy.

The truth is that, if elected, he would unquestionably be a Cabinet - type president and not likely to conduct a one - man operation, as some presidents in recent years have done in taking certain steps that have proved mistaken.

THE WORD extremism has been widely used in the campaign, but never has there been such an example of extreme tactics as the way the nation has been told repeatedly about the allegedly dangerous man on the Republican ticket. This untruth has been given such widespread publicity that many voters sincerely believe it.

The puzzle is how anyone can be happy to win a contest, whether it be the presidency or a race in sports, if unfairness has been indulged in or sanctioned.

Surely there was ample opportunity to debate on its merits every issue of major importance but the tendency on both sides has been to resort largely to personalities. One candidate makes a speech that provokes the other, and there is a rebuttal in similar vein, though two wrongs certainly do not make a right.

Small wonder that many citizens are not happy about the current campaign and are glad it is coming to an end. They look forward to a real debate on governmental policies in the months ahead, which they hope to see carried on in a dignified way so that the elected chief executive may be guided by an informed public opinion.

With 100 per cent collection, it would provide approximately $4,500 a year for the next five years.

Most of this money would be used for the proper upkeep of the electrical system and pumps so essential to the operation of the wall. The present half-mill levy has not been enough to assure an adequate job.

The flood wall has proved its worth time and again when the mighty Ohio and streams flowing into it have gone on a rampage. An additional half-mill is a small price to pay for the protection it furnishes to residents of the city of Wellsville.

The decision should not be a difficult one for wise-thinking voters. The levy deserves a "yes" on Tuesday.

Safe Nuclear Competition

It is not surprising, only outlandish, that political voices in India are clamoring for an atomic explosion to keep up with the Chinese People's Republic.

It is outlandish because India cannot afford the nuclear race. But neither can China, for that matter. Or Israel, the United Arab Republic, France, or Britain.

But they and all the other nations that intend to join the United States and the Soviet Union in the "Nuclear Club" are under pressure to keep up with the Joneses. That was how the nuclear race began.

The United States was trying to beat Germany. Then the Soviet Union was trying to catch up to the United States. Great Britain did not want to be left out, but when it was admitted to the race that meant France had to catch up.

And if the United Arab Republic intended to obliterate Israel with something fiendish put together by German physicists, that meant Israel had to be given assurance, and so on and so on.

If Indian goes nuclear, Pakistan will have to go nuclear to keep up with India. And thus it will go, unless someone finds a way to turn all this human and atomic energy to competitive uses that will not be warlike.

Only one possibility comes to mind—earth-moving. There isn't a nation on earth that doesn't need to move a few million tons of dirt and rock for a lake, a canal, a port, or perhaps just a hole in the ground.

How about a contest to see who can dig the best hole under strict international regulations? It might steer nuclear competition into safe channels.

One Of The Best

Harold H. Burton's name will remain recorded among those of Ohio's best public officials.

The intelligent, dignified, personable lawyer held the record of never having been defeated in an election during nearly 30 years of public service.

He left his native New England to establish a law practice in Cleveland and began his public career in 1929 after his election to the Ohio House. Soon he was recalled to Cleveland to serve as law director, subsequently was elected mayor in a critical period of Cleveland politics and after three terms was elected on his first bid for the U.S. Senate.

Then he served as a member of the famous Truman war investigating committee during World War II and his stature was such that when Harry Truman, a Democrat, became president he appointed the Republican Sen. Burton to the U.S. Supreme Court.

When his health failed, Mr. Justice Burton retired in 1958 after 13 years on the Supreme Court.

Death has claimed him at 76 but he will continue to live in the hearts of Ohioans who appreciate his long, distinguished public service.

Dear Nephew: It's back to work we go next Wednesday morning.

We will have had our quadrennial binge.

All the rancor will have been flushed out of our systems.

We will have relieved ourselves of pent-up pressures.

Our adrenolin glands will have been squeezed dry.

We will be able to grin at each other and say, "Uncle."

We'll have had it.

We will break political training with pleasure and return to more normal routines.

CHIEFLY, what we will do is go back to all the important chores we have been neglecting—the chores whose faithful performance keeps bread and meat on the table and tax revenue in the coffers for our great good government.

Having watched for many years this amazing transformation from political storm to peace that passeth all understanding the day after the election we can predict it with certainty.

Everybody will stay up late election night to see how things turned out. If the experts know their business, this one won't be a cliff-hanger like the last one. But there will be enough suspense to go around; there always is.

But gradually it will cross the minds of everybody concerned that the storm is over and the world is intact. Dogs still will wag their tails. Water will come out of faucets. Rain will fall from the clouds, an babies will still make chubby fists and grab at anything they can reach.

A great sigh of relief will rise from millions of hearts.

THE REPUBLIC will have been saved again, as the victors will see it. And as the losers will think of it when they have quit sobbing, they will have lived to fight another day.

They will not have to go into hiding. No one will excoriate them for being on the losing side. Their credit will still be good.

Their friends will still speak to them. In time, winners and losers even will be able to share little jokes about the election of 1964.

Believe me, nephew, this is the way it will be, because this is the way it has been. Everybody will feel peachy-dandy when the agony is over.

The flurries of paper propaganda will subside. Our favorite programs will no longer be interrupted by paid political announcements.

We can erase the impression that all our public servants are part-time soundrels who are thinking up plots to betray public confidence.

WE THE VOTERS can do what they the candidates will do; namely, shake hands and congratulate one another on having survived another performance of the greatest political show on earth.

So pack your old bait box full of goodies because this is the week we all go back to work and forget partisan politics, glory be.

Revenue Boys Keep After Hoffa

By Victor Riesel

Jimmy Hoffa's grand illusion that there is a chasmal difference between himself and mortal man is being pricked by the Internal Revenue Service. A search of its dockets discloses that it is now seeking some $100,000 from him in back taxes —back to 1952, that is.

Victor Riesel

Federal tax investigators have been going over Hoffa's income, dollar by dollar for the years 1952 and 1956 to 1960 at the least.

This is a civil not criminal action but it may prove costly to the embattled Teamsters chief. The IRS has been disallowing such items as claims for automobile expenses, union payment of endowment policy premiums, hotel bills, transportation and even challenging Hoffa's report of gambling winnings.

FOR THE YEAR 1957, the Treasury Department has charged that Mr. Hoffa underestimated his race track winnings. In that year he reported his earnings from a joint betting venture with his late friend Owen Bert Brennan, who was a great horse fancier and race-track habitue despite his leadership of Detroit Teamsters local 337.

Most of the income involved in the many dockets is from Local 299, which, with its 13,000 members, is one of the largest in the Teamsters Brotherhood. Hoffa was, and still is, president of this Detroit local which paid most of the expenses now being questioned by the government.

THE IRS tax trial was scheduled for mid-October, but the Treasury people agreed to a postponement requested by Hoffa. He argued that he has been in the criminal courts for so long now that he has fallen behind in his national office activities and needs more time.

If the IRS succeeds in disallowing part of Hoffa's expense accounts and succeeds in forcing him to include in his taxable income such items as legal fees paid by the local, the financial burden on the truculent Teamster's president will be enormous.

None of this involves the money paid out by the Teamsters' national office for legal fees in the cases which drew such notoriety.

There is no specific amount officially available but authoritative estimates have it that the total came to some $850,000 before the Teamsters' vice presidents voted to clamp down on the payments to the big legal staff defending Hoffa.

THUS, IF the IRS sets a precedent in the local Detroit case, Hoffa would have to pay over $600,000 in personal taxes since the entire sum would be judged personal income.

Still, such payments would be only part of the money he may have to dredge up.

When he was convicted in Chattanooga on March 12, and sentenced to an eight-year term for jury tampering, he was also fined $10,000. Add to this the cost of most of this trial defense and that of the Chicago trial after which he was sentenced to four five-year terms for mail fraud. Each term is to run concurrently, after the eight-year term.

THE JURY tampering sentence is being appealed in the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati, while the mail fraud penalties will be put before the Seventh Circuit in Chicago. Eminent members of the Bar Association queried by this reporter estimate that the trial and appeals costs could run to over $200,000.

Thus it is possible that Hoffa may yet have to raise some $900,000 before he is through with his current conflict with the U.S. government.

Just how costly this battle could prove in terms more precious than money, Hoffa will know shortly. The Sixth Circuit has this appeal down for its December calendar.

Sic transit gloria . . . it may not have been worth it at all.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I have been a taxpayer for 50 years. I have been a taxpayer in Beaver Local for 30 years and schooled five children in Beaver Local through the eighth grade and graduated them at Lisbon.

Our first child entered school in 1938 and our last ones (twins) graduated from David Anderson High School in 1957. During this period I participated in all school activities, was president of the PTA and supported all levies for our new grade schools as well as the new high school. I met many wonderful teachers, friendly and dedicated. I personally met many a school board member and my judgment is that for the most part they were what I would call political hacks. I saw a period of one - man rule.

Teachers were fired for participating in PTA programs; school property was openly removed and no record left; board members abdicated their authority. When the levy for the four new grade schools was passed, the board, in my opinion, doublecrossed West Point, Elkton and Oak Grove in favor of Calcutta.

I feel that for some time we have been suffering from one-man rule and a rubber-stamp board — a board that did not extend the courtesy of an interview to the applicants for the post of executive secretary.

Who knows, we might have saved some money had their public trust been executed. The submission of this levy after two defeats is an open abuse of the democratic process. It is also a snide reflection on the electorate whose last judgment did not meet with the judgment of the tax spenders. Judging from the letter of Miss Norman (Review Oct. 26), the propagandists have been very active. I wonder how many more students have had the same treatment. How snide can a public servant be?

Now I am 100 per cent for schools, but let me emphasize I mean more efficient schools.

ABLE would have the electorate believe that with enough money available teachers can be hired with an uncanny skill that can instill knowledge in our students even though they are unmotivated. Teachers and books are but helps. The student will advance according to his efforts.

Let's hear the minutes read and ascertain who is paid and how much. I attended a board meeting and during the reading of the bills one was mentioned for $700 for gas at a certain station. The president of the board interjected, "How come this bill when we have our pumps at the schools?" The answer was that the drivers sometimes forget to fill up at the school pumps. These school buses should be parked at all times on the school yard and one pump installed there. If this move is taken there will be money to transport all children.

Let us get our schools back to institutions of learning instead of entertainment. Eliminate the frills and give the electorate credit for sound judgment when they make a judgment.

The school board is not held responsible for any actions or expenditures due to bad judgment.

Eighty cents of every tax dollar go for school purposes. Since 1947 federal, state and local taxes have increased 176 per cent. The school system by all means is in need of drastic reforms. The tax burden for people on fixed income is now at a level where it really hurts. We must vote "no" on this issue for our own survival.

Vote Phenomena

By David Lawrence

Rival Views Fail To Impress Supporters

Seldom has there been a presidential contest in which so many persons on each side who intend to vote for their chosen candidate don't really subscribe to his views as expressed in the campaign. This phenomenon could have far-reaching consequences in the development of domestic and foreign policies during the next administration no matter who wins.

David Lawrence

Many of the supporters of President Johnson who are themselves conservative are inclined to believe that, when the chips are down, he will be found on that side of the argument. Many of these same people also don't believe he will pursue a policy on civil rights that would lead to enforced integration. They are convinced that anyone who voted on some of these issues as Mr. Johnson did when he was a senator is bound to find some reason to revert to earlier concepts on certain questions.

IN A NUTSHELL, a vast number of those citizens as well as many of those organizations or publications which have come out for Mr. Johnson are wishfully hoping that, if he is inaugurated president in January, he will be different from the man who presented himself to the voters during the campaign. Mr. Johnson has used so many generalities in expressing his views that he has left himself considerable flexibility to move either way on several controversial questions.

On ideological positions, Mr. Johnson isn't regarded with enthusiasm by most of the so-called liberals or the moderates who have jumped on the Democratic bandwagon this time. They are supporting Lyndon Johnson to a large extent because they don't favor Barry Goldwater.

This, of course, portends considerable controversy once the shaping of policy confronts Mr. Johnson if he should be elected for the next four years. Actually, many of these same people would have preferred Hubert Humphrey for the top spot, since he speaks their language and is at heart in sympathy with their beliefs, whether these be called liberal or radical or socialistic.

The Arizona senator is in much the same position as Mr. Johnson with respect to the nature of some of the support behind him. The Republican nominee has, of course, many ardent followers who really look upon him as a dedicated leader. Not all of them have been Republicans in the past, as may be noted, for example, in the South.

PERHAPS the biggest handicap faced by Sen. Goldwater is the hostility of moderates or liberals in his own party who dealt what may prove a fatal blow to his election chances in their behavior during and after the Republican national convention at San Francisco.

These disappointed Republicans not only have held themselves aloof — as many of them in Congress and in state offices haven't even endorsed their national ticket — but have continued their sullenness throughout the campaign.

The resentments over their course are deep and will be manifest at the party convention and at the polls in 1968. If Mr. Goldwater is defeated next week, it will be hard to convince many Republicans that desertion of their party by fellow Republicans of the liberal bloc was not to a large extent responsible.

It was from this faction of the Republican party that the talk of recklessness and irresponsibility was first heard. The Democrats picked up the epithets and have persuaded many voters that Barry Goldwater would be trigger-happy.

The truth is that, if elected, he would unquestionably be a Cabinet - type president and not likely to conduct a one - man operation, as some presidents in recent years have done in taking certain steps that have proved mistaken.

THE WORD extremism has been widely used in the campaign, but never has there been such an example of extreme tactics as the way the nation has been told repeatedly about the allegedly dangerous man on the Republican ticket. This untruth has been given such widespread publicity that many voters sincerely believe it.

The puzzle is how anyone can be happy to win a contest, whether it be the presidency or a race in sports, if unfairness has been indulged in or sanctioned.

Surely there was ample opportunity to debate on its merits every issue of major importance but the tendency on both sides has been to resort largely to personalities. One candidate makes a speech that provokes the other, and there is a rebuttal in similar vein, though two wrongs certainly do not make a right.

Small wonder that many citizens are not happy about the current campaign and are glad it is coming to an end. They look forward to a real debate on governmental policies in the months ahead, which they hope to see carried on in a dignified way so that the elected chief executive may be guided by an informed public opinion.

Charge Doesn't Fit Law

Court Absolves Motorist Of Leaving Crash Scene

If a man's auto plunges over an embankment without causing injury or property damage to others, he is not guilty under the section of the City Code that covers leaving the scene of an accident, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff ruled today in absolving a motorist.

John C. Warrick of LaCroft was found not guilty of the hit-skip charge filed by police who found him in a tavern after his car went over an embankment on Peake St. at 1:30 this morning.

Warrick, pleading guilty to an intoxication charge, was fined $15 and costs. He was cited by Patrolmen J. A. Walsh and K. J. Montgomery.

Queried by the court, Officer Walsh testified there was no discernible damage to the property of others and no one was injured. The court pointed out that the law compels a motorist involved in a crash to halt when there has been damage or injury as a result of a traffic crash.

"This is not my idea of why the statute was written," the judge commented.

"I just ran over the hill; if that's an accident," Warrick told the judge when the charge was read. The court then entered a not guilty plea for the defendant and heard the evidence.

Officer Walsh said he and Patrolman Montgomery were dispatched at 1:30 on a report an auto had gone over a hillside. He said a witness identified Warrick as the driver. Later, he said, the officers found Warrick in a tavern.

Warrick told the court he "went to get a beer and then I was going to try to get somebody to help me get the car out of there."

Meanwhile, Donald L. Wooley, 1033 Huston Ave., was fined $25 and costs on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited after his auto hit another from the rear Wednesday night on Smith St.

Due for a hearing Thursday, Wooley did not appear and the court ordered a bench warrant for his arrest.

Questioned by the judge today, Wooley said he posted a $32.50 bond and was told at police headquarters he would not be required to appear. The judge pointed out the bond was for his appearance only "and forfeiture does not dispose of the charge."

The judge remarked that Wooley's record shows a prior charge of driving while intoxicated and another of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Wooley blamed the Wednesday night crash on faulty brakes.

James A. Burgess of R.D. 2 was fined $10 and costs today, with the fine suspended on payment of costs, on a charge of improper auto registration. He had pleaded guilty Oct. 22 and his case had been continued to permit him to transfer the registration from one car to another.

Elmer J. Merchant Jr. of Glenmoor posted a $32.50 bond for a hearing Thursday on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Freeway. Cited Wednesday by the State Highway Patrol, his case originally had been set for today.

Hearings also are set Thursday for two drivers cited by the patrol Wednesday night on charges of speeding 65 in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super - road." They are Charles E. McCabe of Niles and James Larrey of Elm St., Salineville.

There are more than 8,000 automobile wrecking companies in the United States. During 1962, nearly 4,700,000 vehicles were scrapped in this country.

ferences of opinion with the nominee," Scranton said. "In some respects I still have." That drew a chorus of boos.

Scranton, who has campaigned nationally for Goldwater, turned the boos to cheers when he added: "I do not believe in walking out on a party. I do not believe in walking out on our nominee."

He also charged that administration security is lax in the State Department and the White House.

The senator said Johnson's "casual reaction" to the disclosure that White House aide Walter W. Jenkins had twice been arrested on morals charges was part of "a sordid picture."

Jenkins resigned at Johnson's request after his arrest record was disclosed.

In the Cheyenne speech, Goldwater offered this account of foreign affairs: Turkey, he said, has sent a high level trade and cultural exchange mission to Moscow. "I charge that Lyndon Johnson's unsteady hand at the helm of the ship of state has lost us another ally and has lost us another major skirmish in the cold war."

"Even our oldest, dearest friends — the British — have asked for more time in which to re-think the relationship of their new government to the harum-scarum nuclear deterrent policies of this administration."

France is seeking new trade ties with the Soviet Union, he said. "After this administration has treated France shabbily — while treating the Soviet Union royally — after insult and indifference, why should France trust or follow Lyndon B. Johnson?"

Pakistan is seeking a $60 million loan from Red China, he said, declaring that Communist giant looms over Asia "without any effective opposition from this failing administration."

Cambodia, Goldwater added, has reached the "inevitable conclusion" of neutralism with overtures to Peking and Moscow. "And what do we do?" he asked. "We apologize for our planes trespassing on Cambodian air space during prosecution of the war in Viet Nam. Apologize, retreat and fail."

"This is not my idea of why the statute was written," the judge commented.

"I just ran over the hill; if that's an accident, I had an accident," Warrick told the judge when the charge was read. The court then entered a not guilty plea for the defendant and heard the evidence.

Officer Walsh said he and Patrolman Montgomery were dispatched at 1:30 on a report an auto had gone over a hillside. He said a witness identified Warrick as the driver. Later, he said, the officers found Warrick in a tavern.

Warrick told the court he "went to get a beer and then I was going to try to get somebody to help me get the car out of there."

Meanwhile, Donald L. Wooley, 1033 Huston Ave., was fined $25 and costs on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited after his auto hit another from the rear Wednesday night on Smith St.

Due for a hearing Thursday, Wooley did not appear and the court ordered a bench warrant for his arrest.

Questioned by the judge today, Wooley said he posted a $32.50 bond and was told at police headquarters he would not be required to appear. The judge pointed out the bond was for his appearance only "and forfeiture does not dispose of the charge."

The judge remarked that Wooley's record shows a prior charge of driving while intoxicated and another of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Wooley blamed the Wednesday night crash on faulty brakes.

James A. Burgess of R.D. 2 was fined $10 and costs today, with the fine suspended on payment of costs, on a charge of improper auto registration. He had pleaded guilty Oct. 22 and his case had been continued to permit him to transfer the registration from one car to another.

Elmer J. Merchant Jr. of Glenmoor posted a $32.50 bond for a hearing Thursday on a charge of speeding 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the Freeway. Cited Wednesday by the State Highway Patrol, his case originally had been set for today.

Hearings also are set Thursday for two drivers cited by the patrol Wednesday night on charges of speeding 65 in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville "super - road." They are Charles E. McCabe of Niles and James Larrey of Elm St., Salineville.

There are more than 8,000 automobile wrecking companies in the United States. During 1962, nearly 4,700,000 vehicles were scrapped in this country.

ferences of opinion with the nominee," Scranton said. "In some respects I still have." That drew a chorus of boos.

Scranton, who has campaigned nationally for Goldwater, turned the boos to cheers when he added: "I do not believe in walking out on a party. I do not believe in walking out on our nominee."

He also charged that administration security is lax in the State Department and the White House.

The senator said Johnson's "casual reaction" to the disclosure that White House aide Walter W. Jenkins had twice been arrested on morals charges was part of "a sordid picture."

Jenkins resigned at Johnson's request after his arrest record was disclosed.

In the Cheyenne speech, Goldwater offered this account of foreign affairs: Turkey, he said, has sent a high level trade and cultural exchange mission to Moscow. "I charge that Lyndon Johnson's unsteady hand at the helm of the ship of state has lost us another ally and has lost us another major skirmish in the cold war."

"Even our oldest, dearest friends — the British — have asked for more time in which to re-think the relationship of their new government to the harum-scarum nuclear deterrent policies of this administration."

France is seeking new trade ties with the Soviet Union, he said. "After this administration has treated France shabbily — while treating the Soviet Union royally — after insult and indifference, why should France trust or follow Lyndon B. Johnson?"

Pakistan is seeking a $60 million loan from Red China, he said, declaring that Communist giant looms over Asia "without any effective opposition from this failing administration."

Cambodia, Goldwater added, has reached the "inevitable conclusion" of neutralism with overtures to Peking and Moscow. "And what do we do?" he asked. "We apologize for our planes trespassing on Cambodian air space during prosecution of the war in Viet Nam. Apologize, retreat and fail."

Hints from Heloise

Dear Heloise: I have discovered a way of freezing liquids, such as sauces and gravies, that saves space in my freezer.

I line the inside of a milk carton or a can (whichever shape I want) with a plastic bag, fill it with the liquid and then put it in the freezer.

After it is frozen, I take the plastic bag out of the milk carton (or the can) and have a nice uniform package. Also I can see what it contains.

Before pouring in or freezing hot liquids or sauces, I let them cool.

Vegetables and other foods can be frozen by this method. The square packages save more space in a freezer than the round ones. They can be stacked neatly into a freezer or freezer compartment.

Quite sanitary, too. Saves scalding containers, etc.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: This is for women who give themselves home permanents:

Instead of using the waving lotion when rolling the hair (as they directions call for), which tends to make my hands slippery and my hair hard to manage, I roll the hair up while it is still damp from being washed.

Then, I put on the waving solution, really saturating each curl, and using the whole bottle of solution at once. Hence, a more even curl because all the waving solution goes on at one time.

I then proceed according to directions.

Try it, Heloise.

DEAR DONNA: Guess you wonder why your letter didn't appear before now.

I didn't need a perm when you wrote it. I recently tried your method and find it great. It didn't make my hair the least bit kinky.

I only did one thing differently: I dampened the neck curls with the solution as I was rolling them because my hair usually has a tendency to straggle in that area.

Also, I found your method easier because I could start rolling from the top of the head instead of parting it off and starting at the neckline.

Thanks for this wonderful hint. It's great.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I happened to have an ice cream bag in my hand when I was putting my groceries away. I had some bananas in front of me so I popped them in the empty ice cream bag and put them in the refrigerator.

You know what? They kept beautifully and ripened slowly. No dark bananas, and they were nice and cold.

Try it some time. I know you'll like it.

MARGARETHA SOULE.

This gal is exactly right. When visiting banana farms in Hawaii, I learned that the bananas are always covered with newspapers or put into paper bags so that they will ripen slowly.

Margaretha's idea of the ice cream bag is wonderful because the end can be closed, allowing no odors to escape.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I've discovered a solution to the messy job of emptying garbage! When it is time to take the garbage out, I slip my plastic dust pan under the garbage sack. The sack then has a sturdy support, the bottom of the sack won't fall out . . . and I have a handle to hang onto.

District Boys Lose Permits In Auto Cases

Six youthful drivers, including four from the East Liverpool area, were given suspensions of their operator's permits for alleged traffic offenses in hearings this week at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

Joseph A. Cochran, 17, of R. D. 3 was given a 90-day suspension on a charge of driving left of center. A 15-day suspension was decreed for Ralph Benny Smith, 17, of Glenmoor, accused of speeding.

Kendall Gilkinson of MC 22 received a 10-day suspension on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way.

Ralph Lloyd Carr, 17, of 324 E. 9th St. and Gary McClish, 17, of Lisbon R.D. 1 each received a suspension that will remain in effect until the mufflers of their autos are repaired or replaced.

The court also ordered a 15-day suspension for Gary Hogue, 17, of Beaver Falls, cited on a speeding charge.

All were cited by the State Highway Patrol except Gilkinson, who was charged by East Liverpool police.

Meanwhile, three Lisbon bicyclists were "grounded" in the same series of traffic hearings after they were cited by the patrol on charges of obstructing traffic.

The penalty was given to Roger James Gerwig and Thomas F. McGraw, both 15, and Donald I. McGraw, 13. The patrol alleged they blocked traffic on the Elkton Rd. by riding three abreast—one on either side of the highway and one in the center of the pavement. The court grounded the three until June.

A motorist complained to the patrol that he was unable to pass the three boys because they refused to yield sufficient room on the pavement. He drove to the patrol barracks and filed a complaint.

When the patrol arrived, one of the boy's bicycles was broken and he was attempting to fix it in the middle of the highway, according to court officials.

Amateur radio operators are said to be called hams because London Cockneys pronounced them "hamateurs."

Cab Driver Charged In Columbus Slaying

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 38-year-old cab driver has been charged with first-degree manslaughter in the fatal stabbing of 45-year-old Mary Workman, according to police.

Police identified him as Donald T. Tice and said he has admitted the slaying.

The woman was found stabbed in the heart with a butcher knife in a north side apartment Thursday. The coroner said she had been dead 30 hours.

Police quoted Tice, who turned himself in after hearing over the radio that he was sought, as saying he threw the knife at the woman in self-defense during an argument.

A hearing was set for Tice for 9 a.m. today, police said.

Cites Chance Of Errors

Write Queries On Sewer. Cooper Requests Council

Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper told Council Thursday night that legal questions over a controversial Maplewood storm sewer problem should be sent to him in writing and answered the same way "to avoid errors in interpretation and the danger of faulty memories."

The solicitor, in effect, declined an invitation issued by Council Oct. 19 to attend its next meeting Monday to answer questions from the members and affected property-owners.

The councilmen also invited Engineer George S. Bloomgren to its next meeting, but Cooper advised Council he feels questions to the engineer also should be placed in writing.

Council has had a long series of discussions with property-owners on Cook St. and Burrows Ave. The property-owners contend that a 42-inch storm sewer built in connection with the St. Clair Ave. project is being allowed to empty onto a vacant lot, flow across several properties in an open ditch and then enter another sewer. They contend the sewer should be extended, involving an additional $5,600.

Various legal and engineering questions were raised at Council's meeting Oct. 19. It was then the councilmen invited the solicitor and the engineer to attend the next session to answer questions.

Cooper's written reply to the request, turned over to Council personally last night, said in part:

"It is part of the duties of this office to answer questions involving legal matters of the city for Council, city officials and boards when such questions are written and presented to the solicitor for answer (which answer may be oral or written).

"The reason for such a law is to avoid errors in interpretation of the question when giving answers thereto and also to avoid the danger of faulty memories upon the part of the interrogator and the answering party.

"For these reasons I do not feel that any purpose will be served by attending a meeting such as that you suggested.

"I would suggest that if there are questions concerning the St. Clair Ave. project which Council wishes answered, that Council reduce the questions to writing and that those which involve construction or engineering be submitted to Mr. Bloomgren and I will be glad to answer those submitted to me which involve a legal question."

Smith Carries Governor Bid To Wyoming County

MULLENS, W. Va. (AP) — Democrat Hulett Smith nears the end of an eight-day campaign for governor in the southern coal fields today with a swing through Wyoming County.

Smith is attempting to hold on to the area's heavy Democratic vote which has been instrumental in the Democrats' string of West Virginia election victories —broken once by Republican ex-Gov. Cecil Underwood in 1956.

The reception for Smith in a number of Mercer County appearances Thursday ranged from enthusiastic to merely polite, but he capped the day with a speech to an overflow crowd at the Mercer County Courthouse.

Today's scheduled called for morning appearances in Pineville and Poca, a "major speech" at noon in Mullens, and afternoon juants to Oceana and Baileysville. Smith ends the day with a speech at the courthouse in Pineville.

Humphrey Says Barry Unfit To Represent GOP

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey stumps the Northwest today, drumming away at a theme that depicts Sen. Barry Goldwater as unfit to carry the Republican party banner.

"Senator Goldwater advocates reactionary ideas wholly outside of the best traditions of the Republican party," the Democratic vice presidential candidate said at a rally in this southeastern Idaho rail center.

He put it another way Thursday night in Topeka, Kan., where he launched a final western campaign swing through eight states that gave the GOP their 81 electoral votes four years ago.

Humphrey said: "Senator Goldwater is neither Republican nor conservative. He is a radical and a Goldwaterite. And radical Goldwaterism simply does not equate with conservative Republicanism."

Pursuing that tack through Republican territory, he said here that "unfortunately, the responsible Republicans sat on their hands too long. The Republican party, once the noble party of Lincoln, has been taken over by radicals."

Lunch was served nine by Mrs. Barbara Bussard and Mrs. Donna McCandless. Mrs. Berdina Dydek won a prize. Mrs. Amy Coombs, president, presided.

The WSCS will meet at the Green Valley Methodist Church Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. Raymond Green, president, in charge.

Area Chairmen Meet

Drive Plans Discussed For Muscular Dystrophy

Ten area chairmen of the Columbiana County Muscular Dystrophy drive mapped final plans for the campaign slated in November at a meeting Thursday night at the VFW home at Lisbon.

The goal is $9,000, and the kickoff will be held Nov. 8, William Lowe of East Liverpool R. D. 3, county chairman, said.

Lowe is employed by the Ohio Valley Gas Co.

H. D. Hoffman will serve as East Liverpool chairman, with a goal of $2,500 set.

A goal of $500 is set for Lisbon where Mrs. Rudy Novak is chairman, and Miss Catherlin McKee is assistant.

A chairman still is needed for the Wellsville area, and anyone interested in serving may notify Lowe.

In the past year, the national organization gave district research grants to Shadyside Hospital at Pittsburgh and Western Reserve Hospital at Cleveland.

Mrs. Ruth Jenkins, patient service co-ordinator, reported on services provided during the year and the needs for the coming year.

The chapter will meet Nov. 23.

In his Detroit speech, Johnson bore down on still another of the issues he has stressed for months — prosperity.

Scooping the Labor Department's monthly announcement by a few hours, he revealed that consumer prices increased by one-fifth of one per cent in September.

"This puts them only 1.2 per cent above September a year ago," he said. "We wish they weren't up at all. But what this record says is that we have the most stable price level in any industrial nation in the world."

Johnson also announced that weekly wages of factory workers averaged $103.94 last month — an increase of $14.86 over January, 1961 when President John F. Kennedy was inaugurated.

"The prosperity of the past 44 months did 't just happen," said Johnson. "It is the result of the responsible management and responsible labor leadership. It is the result of responsible restraint about wages and prices. It is also the result of responsible government policy."

In talking about political activities by clergymen, Johnson said: "Religion must always play a part in all that we do or all that we hope to do. The men of the pulpit have a place in our public affairs. We should be grateful for their concern over the well being of this land, for that is what America is all about."

Shoplifter Fined

LISBON — Opal Schultaein of Hanoverton R.D. 1 was fined $25 and costs Thursday by Mayor Dean Stockman for petty larceny. She was cited after she allegedly took $1.01 worth of lunch meat from the Hillyer IGA Plaza. Charges were filed by Willard L. Hillyer, owner.

Degrees To Be Given In Masonic Program

East Liverpool Chapter 100, Royal Arch Masons, will confer the Mark Past and Most Excellent Master Degrees Saturday at 1:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple beginning the fall York Rite reunion which will close Nov. 7.

Dinner will be served at 6, followed with the Royal Arch Degree exercise at 7:30.

Following the chapter meeting Monday night, the Keramos Council 95 will confer the Royal and Select Degrees.

Pilgrim Commandery 55, of Knights Templar will confer its degrees on Nov. 7.

Hancock said the ordinance provides a maximum fee of $5.50 with a 10 per cent prompt payment discount, but he said Rego actually will charge only $5 a month with a 5 per cent discount. That means an actual monthly charge of $4.75, he said.

"This maximum rate of $5.50 was set only for protection against late bidders who might want to cut rates by a matter of pennies and confuse the public in respect to technical responsibilities and background in CATV," Hancock's statement said.

THE MAYOR'S reason for the veto was that "more investigation should have been made into local or Ohio concerns as to services and rates," Hancock said.

In addition to Rego, he said, Council investigated a firm from East Liverpool and Chester, another in Weirton, a third in State College, Pa., and a fourth from Lewistown, Pa.

He said all the firms were "thoroughly investigated" over a period of four to 14 months.

"Rego was selected and approved after financial and technical investigations and its proposal to East Liverpool was studied," he said.

Referring to Neptune Broadcasting Co. of Steubenville, which filed a proposal after the franchise was granted, he said it is "a newly - formed Ohio corporation that also has ties and business in Tennessee, Georgia, West Virginia and New York. These ties are in television and radio stations with no background in CATV."

CONTINUING, he said: "We feel that, if only for competitive reasons, it would be better to have a group whose main interest lies in the promotion of CATV. Rego has been in the business of supplying cables and accessories to the CATV industry for over 10 years. Rego has made public that although the ordinance reads that it may charge $9.90 for an installation, the intended charge would be $8."

Then he turned to the question of franchise payments. Neptune offered the city a voluntary yearly franchise fee that would total $37,500 over a 20-year contract.

He said: "Although the latest bidder offered payment on a voluntary yearly basis to the city, it is pointed out that under the terms of their proposed ordinance they request a 20-year franchise. This firm then requested an 18-month building clause with payments to start at the end of a 12-month period after that time.

"WE NOW HAVE 30 additional months not covered by the contract but involving the later and highest voluntary payments to the city. In our minds, this could conceivably cut the payments to the city by $6,000 or one sixth of the total offered."

Concluding, Hancock said: "Our intentions are to try to provide for the city of East Liverpool a TV cable system that would rank among the best in the country at the fairest rates possible and to be built and ready for use at the earliest possible time. We feel that after having made a complete and thorough investigation of all companies that Rego industries is the best qualified."

Councilman William Davis, whose planning committee investigated the firms and recommended the award to Rego, made the motion to override the mayor's veto. He was seconded by Hancock.

In a roll call on the motion, all six members present voted to override—Davis, Hancock, Floyd Murray, James Cunningham, Donald Smith and Norman Bucher. At least five votes were required to override.

AS THE SESSION opened, Willshaw departed from custom to make a brief statement:

"I want you all to bear in mind the responsibility this Council has to work for the best interests of the citizens in general," he said. "In any situation where it is possible to provide a service at lower cost and help the financial situation of the city, it should be done.

"I don't know if any personal commitments have been made or if some of the members have differences with the mayor that made this special meeting necessary." Willshaw continued. "If the best interests of all the people are not respected, you haven't done the job for which you were elected."

Obviously rankled, Hancock replied:

"I don't know what brought that on! I took an oath to do my job honestly and to my best ability and I have done it. I take offense at that remark."

"No offense was intended," Willshaw replied.

Davis asked Willshaw: "Is the lecture over?"

THEN HE made the motion to override the vote, seconded by Hancock. At this point, Hancock read his statement replying to the mayor's veto message. He said the monthly charge offered by Rego is 20 cents less than the rate stipulated by Neptune.

Bucher said the lower monthly rate was a strong argument in favor of giving the franchise to Rego.

"All along, I maintained we should choose the company with the best service at the lowest cost," he said. "When this company offers this fabulous figure of $36,000 to the city, you have to remember that the money would come out of the customers' pockets and then would go into the general fund for the benefit of all the people, whether they're customers or not.

"I think they thought everyone has a little larceny in his heart and we would jump at their offer." Bucher said. "Remember, that money would have come from the people of East Liverpool. I think we have a good system at the least cost."

REGO'S RATE of 20 cents less per month than Neptune's will mean a saving of $800 monthly if the firm has 4,000 customers, Davis said. That figures out to $9,600 a year or $192,000 in 20 years, he added.

"So in comparison that $36,000 doesn't look so big after all," he concluded.

"The mayor got all his information from the Neptune company, which has been in business only three or four weeks," Murray said. "Neptune's parent firm, as recently as a month or six weeks ago, opposed installation of a community antenna in Steubenville. A company that has been in business only a few weeks couldn't possibly compete with Rego, which has been in business for years."

Murray also alleged that the mayor originally signed the ordinance under a clause that reads "Approved by the mayor" and lists the date the signature was affixed.

Later, he said, the mayor wrote the word "not" in front of the word "approved."

"I think the mayor should explain that," he added.

CUNNINGHAM said Rego's franchise provides it will start construction of the cable system in 15 months and start "basic service" to the community in an additional nine months.

Neptune's proposal said construction and operation would begin in 18 months and service should be available during that period, he added, emphasizing the "should." But there was no date stipulated for actual completion of the system, which meant the company might never pay a franchise fee to the city, he said.

"Neptune had plenty of opportunity to file a proposal with Council, but it didn't act until the rates had been made public and it could underbid the other firms," Smith charged.

"There's a lot more stuff if you want to hear it all," Smith said to Willshaw. "We studied these questions for months."

Then the roll call vote was taken, overriding the veto, and Council adjourned.

Youth Held In Failure To Pay For Gasoline

Fleeing from a service station after failing to pay for gasoline an attendant was putting into his auto, Edward John Clutter, 19, of Fisher Ave., was arrested Thursday night at 8:14 by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol in Jefferson County.

Patrolman D. J. Pearce said Clutter had ordered $3 worth of gasoline at Minor's Service Station at the west junction of Route 152 and State Route 213 about a mile west of Knoxville, but drove away without paying after the attendant had put $2 worth in the car.

The officer said Clutter pulled from the service station at 7:50, and was arrested at 8:14 at the intersection of Route 213 and Hollow Rock Rd., near Yellow Creek.

There were two juveniles in his car, but they were released. Clutter was being held in Jefferson County Jail in Steubenville today in lieu of $100 bond pending a hearing Nov. 14 at 6 p. m. in Toronto District Court.

Greenisen has been a board member for 11 years and was crusade chairman in 1960 and area chairman for Granges and farm organizations many years.

Accepting the appointment to head the annual educational and fund-raising drive, he called cancer "Public Enemy Disease No. 2," and urged a full-scale offensive on the part of public-spirited citizens. He succeeds James L. McBride, who was campaign chairman this year.

stops during the day at Milwaukee, Rockford, Ill., and Chicago — the latter for torchlight parade to a speaking date in Chicago Stadium.

In his Detroit speech, Johnson bore down on still another of the issues he has stressed for months — prosperity.

Scooping the Labor Department's monthly announcement by a few hours, he revealed that consumer prices increased by one-fifth of one per cent in September.

"This puts them only 1.2 per cent above September a year ago," he said. "We wish they weren't up at all. But what this record says is that we have the most stable price level in any industrial nation in the world."

Johnson also announced that weekly wages of factory workers averaged $103.94 last month — an increase of $14.86 over January, 1961 when President John F. Kennedy was inaugurated.

"The prosperity of the past 44 months did 't just happen," said Johnson. "It is the result of the responsible management and responsible labor leadership. It is the result of responsible restraint about wages and prices. It is also the result of responsible government policy."

In talking about political activities by clergymen, Johnson said: "Religion must always play a part in all that we do or all that we hope to do. The men of the pulpit have a place in our public affairs. We should be grateful for their concern over the well being of this land, for that is what America is all about."

Shoplifter Fined

LISBON — Opal Schultaein of Hanoverton R.D. 1 was fined $25 and costs Thursday by Mayor Dean Stockman for petty larceny. She was cited after she allegedly took $1.01 worth of lunch meat from the Hillyer IGA Plaza. Charges were filed by Willard L. Hillyer, owner.

Hancock said the ordinance provides a maximum fee of $5.50 with a 10 per cent prompt payment discount, but he said Rego actually will charge only $5 a month with a 5 per cent discount. That means an actual monthly charge of $4.75, he said.

"This maximum rate of $5.50 was set only for protection against late bidders who might want to cut rates by a matter of pennies and confuse the public in respect to technical responsibilities and background in CATV," Hancock's statement said.

THE MAYOR'S next reason for the veto was that "more investigation should have been made into local or Ohio concerns as to services and rates," Hancock said.

In addition to Rego, he said, Council investigated a firm from East Liverpool and Chester, another in Weirton, a third in State College, Pa., and a fourth from Lewistown, Pa.

He said all the firms were "thoroughly investigated" over a period of four to 14 months.

"Rego was selected and approved after financial and technical investigations and its proposal to East Liverpool was studied," he said.

Referring to Neptune Broadcasting Co. of Steubenville, which filed a proposal after the franchise was granted, he said it is "a newly - formed Ohio corporation that also has ties and business in Tennessee, Georgia, West Virginia and New York. These ties are in television and radio stations with no background in CATV."

CONTINUING, he said: "We feel that, if only for competitive reasons, it would be better to have a group whose main interest lies in the promotion of CATV. Rego has been in the business of supplying cables and accessories to the CATV industry for over 10 years. Rego has made public that although the ordinance reads that it may charge $9.90 for an installation, the intended charge would be $8."

Then he turned to the question of franchise payments. Neptune offered the city a voluntary yearly franchise fee that would total $37,500 over a 20-year contract.

He said: "Although the latest bidder offered payment on a voluntary yearly basis to the city, it is pointed out that under the terms of their proposed ordinance they request a 20-year franchise. This firm then requested an 18-month building clause with payments to start at the end of a 12-month period after that time.

"WE NOW HAVE 30 additional months not covered by the contract but involving the later and highest voluntary payments to the city. In our minds, this could conceivably cut the payments to the city by $6,000 or one sixth of the total offered."

Concluding, Hancock said: "Our intentions are to try to provide for the city of East Liverpool a TV cable system that would rank among the best in the country at the fairest rates possible and to be built and ready for use at the earliest possible time. We feel that after having made a complete and thorough investigation of all companies that Rego industries is the best qualified."

Councilman William Davis, whose planning committee investigated the firms and recommended the award to Rego, made the motion to override the mayor's veto. He was seconded by Hancock.

In a roll call on the motion, all six members present voted to override—Davis, Hancock, Floyd Murray, James Cunningham, Donald Smith and Norman Bucher. At least five votes were required to override.

AS THE SESSION opened, Willshaw departed from custom to make a brief statement:

"I want you all to bear in mind the responsibility this Council has to work for the best interests of the citizens in general," he said. "In any situation where it is possible to provide a service at lower cost and help the financial situation of the city, it should be done.

"I don't know if any personal commitments have been made or if some of the members have differences with the mayor that made this special meeting necessary," Willshaw continued. "If the best interests of all the people are not respected, you haven't done the job for which you were elected."

Obviously rankled, Hancock replied:

"I don't know what brought that on! I took an oath to do my job honestly and to my best ability and I have done it. I take offense at that remark."

"No offense was intended," Willshaw replied.

THEN HE made the motion to override the vote, seconded by Hancock. At this point, Hancock read his statement replying to the mayor's veto message. He said the monthly charge offered by Rego is 20 cents less than the rate stipulated by Neptune.

Bucher said the lower monthly rate was a strong argument in favor of giving the franchise to Rego.

"All along, I maintained we should choose the company with the best service at the lowest cost," he said. "When this company offers this fabulous figure of $36,000 to the city, you have to remember that the money would come out of the customers' pockets and then would go into the general fund for the benefit of all the people, whether they're customers or not.

"I think they thought everyone has a little larceny in his heart and we would jump at their offer," Bucher said. "Remember, that money would have come from the people of East Liverpool. I think we have a good system at the least cost."

REGO'S RATE of 20 cents less per month than Neptune's will mean a saving of $800 monthly if the firm has 4,000 customers, Davis said. That figures out to $9,600 a year or $192,000 in 20 years, he added.

"So in comparison that $36,000 doesn't look so big after all," he concluded.

"The mayor got all his information from the Neptune company, which has been in business only three or four weeks," Murray said. "Neptune's parent firm, as recently as a month or six weeks ago, opposed installation of a community antenna in Steubenville. A company that has been in business only a few weeks couldn't possibly compete with Rego, which has been in business for years."

Murray also alleged that the mayor originally signed the ordinance under a clause that reads "Approved by the mayor" and lists the date the signature was affixed.

Later, he said, the mayor wrote the word "not" in front of the word "approved."

"I think the mayor should explain that," he added.

CUNNINGHAM said Rego's franchise provides it will start construction of the cable system in 15 months and start "basic service" to the community in an additional nine months.

Neptune's proposal said construction and operation would begin in 18 months and service should be available during that period, he added, emphasizing the "should." But there was no date stipulated for actual completion of the system, which meant the company might never pay a franchise fee to the city, he said.

"Neptune had plenty of opportunity to file a proposal with Council, but it didn't act until the rates had been made public and it could underbid the other firms," Smith charged.

"There's a lot more stuff if you want to hear it all," Smith said to Willshaw. "We studied these questions for months."

Then the roll call vote was taken, overriding the veto, and Council adjourned.

Youth Held In Failure To Pay For Gasoline

Fleeing from a service station after failing to pay for gasoline an attendant was putting into his auto, Edward John Clutter, 19, of Fisher Ave., was arrested Thursday night at 8:14 by the Wintersville State Highway Patrol in Jefferson County.

Patrolman D. J. Pearce said Clutter had ordered $3 worth of gasoline at Minor's Service Station at the west junction of Route 152 and State Route 213 about a mile west of Knoxville, but drove away without paying after the attendant had put $2 worth in the car.

The officer said Clutter pulled from the service station at 7:50, and was arrested at 8:14 at the intersection of Route 213 and Hollow Rock Rd., near Yellow Creek.

There were two juveniles in his car, but they were released. Clutter was being held in Jefferson County Jail in Steubenville today in lieu of $100 bond pending a hearing Nov. 14 at 6 p. m. in Toronto District Court.

Bomb Threat Hoax; Jackie Stays Home

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal and city officers Thursday night made a roof-to-cellar search of the apartment and the building where Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two chilren live, after an anonymous telephone caller said a bomb had been planted in the Kennedy apartment.

Nothing suspicious was found by the FBI and Secret Service agents and city police and firemen.

Mrs. Kennedy and the children, Caroline, 6, and John F. Jr., 3, did not leave during the search, a Secret Service agent said.

At 5:12 p.m., a male caller told a telephone operator that a bomb would go off in the Kennedy apartment. He erroneously listed the address as 1050 Park Ave. — the Kennedy apartment is at 1040 Fifth Ave.

Police also checked the Park Avenue address and found nothing suspicious there either.

At 5:20 p.m., the same man dialed again and — by coincidence — got the same telephone operator.

He set the time as 6:50 p.m. and said: "The reason I'm calling is I want the children out of the house."

The search of the Fifth Avenue building was still under way when this deadline passed.

Indonesia's Invasion Crushed By Malaysia

SUNGEI RAMBAI, Malaysia (AP) — Indonesia's latest invasion of the Malaysian mainland collapsed today when 25 guerrillas meekly surrendered less than 36 hours after they landed.

A strong Commonwealth task force hunted for a half dozen other guerrillas still believed at large from a force of 56 men who landed by boat Thursday near this village on Malaysia's southwest shore.

The guerrillas emerged from the swampy jungles with no resistance after being pinned down by British, Australian and New Zealand troops.

Malaysian police rounded up 25 other invaders Thursday.

'Down Through The Years'

Federation Antique Show Includes 1840 'Sitzbath'

Everything from a zinc sitzbath to a bed bug exterminator were shown in the antique display at the fall meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs Wednesday night at the Mary Patterson Memorial.

The bath tub, which was presented by the Monday Literary Club, was used in the Beaver area around 1840, and had to be filled with a pitcher or bucket.

Manufactured by the Harker Pottery Co. in substantial quantities about 1850, the bed bug exterminator was filled with a liquid so the insect could not scale the bed post. It was the display of the Chester Arts Club.

Mrs. Barbara Jones, commentator, related the story of the black lace stole and mantilla shown by the Quota Club. It was originally given by Queen Victoria to one of her ladies-in-waiting.

Other items following the program theme, "Down Through the Years," were statuettes given as gifts by Capt. Sam Clemens (Mark Twain) when he was a riverboat captain, shown by the Colloquium Study Club.

The Colonial Club displayed a chest belonging to Gen. John Hunt Morgan in which he kept his important papers. He had it with him when he was captured near West Point in 1863.

Several items, including the ancestor of the modern vaporizer, were shown by the Child Study Club. The copper container was filled with hot onions for steam to cure colds.

The entry of the Travelers Club were bellows used to fan flames and start fires in fireplaces in Scotland about 100 years ago. The Helen Gould Literary Club showed a buggy lamp used by the country doctor on his rounds at the turn of the century.

A couple of the displays were modeled when Mrs. Anna Patterson, representing the East Liverpool Garden Club, appeared in a frock - tailed wedding suit, and Mrs. Nancy McCoy, a Jaycee-ette, in a purple and black lace wedding gown. The Monday Literary Club brought an old top silk hat, a brown derby and a large plumed affair.

Shown in the glass line was Fry Glass, the entry of the Newell Women's Club; patterned glass, the Chester Arts Club; an embossed white pitcher, the Sorosis Club, and a white urn vase, the Catholic Women's Study Club.

Three fans over 100 years old were shown by the East Liverpool Women's Club; an Indian blanket woven in Canada, by the Bible Literary Club; a view of East Liverpool in 1878, and a cuspidor by the Business and Professional Women's Club, and a replica of a Turkish tray, by the Hillel Study Club.

A representative of each of the affiliated club carried their club's entry down the aisle enabling close views for the audience. The program was arranged by Mrs. John Keller and Mrs. Frank Miller. Miss Barbara Hall provided piano background music.

Selections presented by The China Belles were "All Alone," 'Toot, Toot Tootsie Goodbye" and "Just Awearing for You." Members of the local Sweet Adelines Chapter, they are Mrs. Juanita Garver, Mrs. Jan Dietz, Mrs. Nancy Beaver and Mrs. Loretta Willoughby.

921 Get Applications To Vote Early Ballots

Applications had been issued to 921 at the deadline Thursday at 4 p. m. for civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the general election Tuesday, the County Election Board said today.

To be counted at the polls, the ballots were required to be back in the board's hands at noon today.

Twenty others have voted under a new Ohio law that permits new residents to vote for president and vice president only, provided they have lived in the state 40 days and would have been qualified electors in their former state or residence. Another 841 so-called "soldier" ballots have been issued to personnel of the armed forces and their spouses.

Do you keep seasoned flour on hand for coating chicken that is to be fried? The usual proportions for the mixture are ½ cup flour, ½ teaspoon salt, and ⅛ teaspoon pepper; but many cooks like to add, also, ⅛ teaspoon paprika. The paprika helps give the chicken ruddy color.

Freeze Due Tonight; Warmup On Saturday

Having enjoyed a few days of pleasant autumn weather — before Thursday's rainstorm, the Tri - State District is due for more seasonable temperatures tonight — subfreezing with a low of 25 to 32 forecast. But Saturday will be sunny and warmer.

The rains yesterday that began with a series of thunderstorms about 1 a. m. totaled 0.88 inch of precipitation at the Montgomery Dam at Ohio View, the first "drencher" of October, which is abnormally deficient in precipitation.

A 0.32-inch rain Oct. 2 was the only substantial precipitation previously. The showers yesterday ended the threat of brush and grass fires for the present and heartened farmers who had watched pastures turning dry.

'Live At Peace,' Judge Tells 2 In Neighbors' Feud

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today urged a policy of "peaceful co-existence" for two LaCroft men who confronted him after a neighborhood dispute over traffic and parking that apparently arose in part because of a vague understanding of property lines.

Ralph Persing of LaCroft Ave. filed an affidavit alleging that Edward Rayle, also of LaCroft Ave., broke into his home Wednesday night and "committed personal violence" on Persing.

In a lengthy hearing, it developed the incident was an outgrowth of a dispute over motorists turning their cars around or parking in a section of public roadway that ties directly into Persing's driveway.

"This could go on for the next 10 years," the judge commented. Citing the Biblical injunction to "love thy neighbor," he said the parties concerned should have their properties surveyed to clear up questions over property lines and then consult attorneys "to get straightened out on your rights." He cautioned Rayle against "taking the law into your own hands."

After an admonition to the principals and several others of the same neighborhood, the court dismissed the charge against Rayle.

But President's Ahead In Texas

Goldwater Going All-Out To Win Johnson's State

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater is making an all-out effort to capture the 25 electoral votes of President Johnson's home state of Texas. But Johnson appears to hold the lead.

Goldwater's scheduled visit Saturday to San Antonio will be his sixth to Texas since the presidential campaign started. Johnson canceled a campaign trip to Texas earlier this month because of world events, but sent Mrs. Johnson on a flying visit here.

Although the Republicans hold a big lead in campaign mileage, the Democrats are ahead in pre-election polls.

A "semifinal" survey taken by a national pollster among 7,007 Texans in early October brought forth the prediction the Johnson-Humphrey ticket would get 64 per cent of the Texas vote, Goldwater-Miller 29 per cent, 7 per cent undecided. A Houston Chronicle survey taken within the last two weeks favored the Democrats with a 57-43 per cent prediction.

Until 1952, Texas was considered traditionally Democratic and a part of the Solid South. Ticket switching and splitting swung the state to the Republicans in 1952 and 1956. In 1960, John F. Kennedy switched it back to the Democrats by a meager 46,000 votes out of 2.3 million cast.

"The year 1964 is the year of golden opportunity for Texas Republicans," said State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell.

An Associated Press survey of precinct level campaigning in some of Texas largest cities last week showed that Republican grassroots workers started first, with the most zeal. Democrats are working hard to catch up.

Ticket splitting — voting for some candidates in the Democratic column and others in the Republican column of the ballot — is an old Texas custom.

Party strategists point to the gap between the one - half per cent victory margin for Democrats in 1960 and the 1.4 million that voted in this year's Democratic primary compared to only 143,000 in the Republican primary.

"Ticket splitting may well be the main issue of this campaign," said George Bush, Houston millionaire oil man and GOP senatorial nominee against Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough. He accused Yarborough of telling voters that a split vote could jam voting machines in the 17 large city counties that do not use the paper ballot.

Bush and other statewide GOP candidates strongly support Goldwater.

Yarborough has appeared with President Johnson on every opportunity in Texas and brags about the President's support.

Texas Gov. John B. Connally feuded with Yarborough over state party control earlier this year and has done no active campaigning for the senator. Connally has made no formal campaign against his Republican opponent Jack Crichton of Dallas, and in recent weeks has campaigned for the national ticket with the President and Mrs. Johnson.

Since Texas is one of the few states still requiring payment of a poll tax — $1.75 — the entire ballot of national, state and local candidates, plus three proposed state constitution changes, will be open only to the 2.4 million with poll tax receipts and those with exemptions for over and under age. Another 84,300 get a free vote for the federal candidates only because of the federal antipoll tax ban.

Want to vary that tossed green salad? One good way is to add strips of Swiss or cheddar cheese or to toss with grated Parmesan cheese along with the usual oil and vinegar dressing.

In a fall at the Metsch Refractories, William Bowen, 22, of 932 Florence St., suffered an ankle injury.

Keith Matheny, 14, step-son of Charles Trowbridge, 1004 St. Clair Ave., received a forehead injury in a school gym class.

Kiwanis Hears Candidate

Dalrymple Cites Citizen Role To Uphold Freedom

The responsibility of every citizen to maintain the "house of freedom" created by the Constitution was emphasized by Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

In a talk at the Travelers Hotel, Dalrymple, an attorney, operator of an auto agency and Republican candidate for 18th District congressman, described the writing of the Constitution and the objectives of the early leaders of the nation.

The 13 Colonies declared their independence from Great Britain in 1776 in a desire to acquire freedom, based on faith in God and faith in the integrity of fellowman, Dalrymple stated.

In the period of 1781-1787, when the Articles of Confederation provided a loose governmental form, the independent states realized the need for closer unity and co-operation, and moved to enact a better structure of government.

A constitutional convention was called, and efforts made to patch up the confederation, the speaker said.

It was decided, however, to undertake a completely new system and, after much study and work, the Constitution was approved and sent to the states for ratification.

Dalrymple commented that the 39 men who signed the document were all of the same British origins and with many limitations, yet were able to produce a Constitution so workable and so durable that it has been amended only 22 times in the past 177 years, despite extensive growth and changes of the country and its place in the world.

He said the success of the document showed the hand of destiny.

"These leaders had definite goals for the nation," Dalrymple commented, "which are shown in the preamble."

"We, the people" he said indicated the belief of power of government with the people of the country. "To form a more perfect union" shows the dissatisfaction with the Articles of Confederation and the hope for a better governmental system, he went on.

The objectives of equal justice, domestic tranquility, providing for a defense and guaranteeing liberty are listed, he pointed out.

As the document went to the states for ratification, there were objections to the lack of specific gurantees of individual rights, and an agreement was reached that once the Constitution was ratified, these guarantees would be attached by amendment.

And these were added in the form of the "Bill of Rights," the first 10 Amendments assuring the rights of speech, religion, press and others.

"The people wanted these gurantees despite the Constitution's orderly system of checks and balances between the legislative, judicial and executive," he said.

Dalrymple pointed out the United States is a republic, not a democracy, for in a republic the people delegate their power to representatives where in a democracy the people vote directly on governmental decisions.

"But despite the longevity of the Constitution and the permanent nature of the government, there are every-day changes, constant flow of new and different ideas and needs which must be met and utilized.

"The power to change lies with the people, if not by amendment, then by public opinion," he pointed out.

"Each citizen has to bear the responsibility of engaging in governmental change, as even today we are in the midst of change — it is a responsibility you cannot avoid," Dalrymple declared.

"Out of the blueprint of the Constitution has evolved a 'House of Freedom,' an it is up to all of us to insure the continuation of this house for the future," he concluded.

Dalrymple was introduced by Mayor Merrill Hall.

Norman Nicely, president, was in charge.

Glenn Hall reported $225 has been netted in a rummage sale being held this week by the club for various projects.

The club voted to endorse the proposed one-tenth of a mill mental health levy for Columbiana County in the election Tuesday. A description of the mental health program and fund need was given by the Rev. Ross Salisbury of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Bomb Threat Hoax; Jackie Stays Home

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal and city officers Thursday night made a roof-to-cellar search of the apartment and the building where Mrs. John F. Kennedy and her two chilren live, after an anonymous telephone caller said a bomb had been planted in the Kennedy apartment.

Nothing suspicious was found by the FBI and Secret Service agents and city police and firemen.

Mrs. Kennedy and the children, Caroline, 6, and John F. Jr., 3, did not leave during the search, a Secret Service agent said.

At 5:12 p.m., a male caller told a telephone operator that a bomb would go off in the Kennedy apartment. He erroneously listed the address as 1050 Park Ave. — the Kennedy apartment is at 1040 Fifth Ave.

Police also checked the Park Avenue address and found nothing suspicious there either.

At 5:20 p.m., the same man dialed again and — by coincidence — got the same telephone operator.

He set the time as 6:50 p.m. and said: "The reason I'm calling is I want the children out of the house."

The search of the Fifth Avenue building was still under way when this deadline passed.

Indonesia's Invasion Crushed By Malaysia

SUNGEI RAMBAI, Malaysia (AP) — Indonesia's latest invasion of the Malaysian mainland collapsed today when 25 guerrillas meekly surrendered less than 36 hours after they landed.

A strong Commonwealth task force hunted for a half dozen other guerrillas still believed at large from a force of 56 men who landed by boat Thursday near this village on Malaysia's southwest shore.

The guerrillas emerged from the swampy jungles with no resistance after being pinned down by British, Australian and New Zealand troops.

Malaysian police rounded up 25 other invaders Thursday.

'Down Through The Years'

Federation Antique Show Includes 1840 'Sitzbath'

Everything from a zinc sitzbath to a bed bug exterminator were shown in the antique display at the fall meeting of the City Federation of Women's Clubs Wednesday night at the Mary Patterson Memorial.

The bath tub, which was presented by the Monday Literary Club, was used in the Beaver area around 1840, and had to be filled with a pitcher or bucket.

Manufactured by the Harker Pottery Co. in substantial quantities about 1850, the bed bug exterminator was filled with a liquid so the insect could not scale the bed post. It was the display of the Chester Arts Club.

Mrs. Barbara Jones, commentator, related the story of the black lace stole and mantilla shown by the Quota Club. It was originally given by Queen Victoria to one of her ladies-in-waiting.

Other items following the program theme, "Down Through the Years," were statuettes given as gifts by Capt. Sam Clemens (Mark Twain) when he was a riverboat captain, shown by the Colloquium Study Club.

The Colonial Club displayed a chest belonging to Gen. John Hunt Morgan in which he kept his important papers. He had it with him when he was captured near West Point in 1863.

Several items, including the ancestor of the modern vaporizer, were shown by the Child Study Club. The copper container was filled with hot onions for steam to cure colds.

The entry of the Travelers Club were bellows used to fan flames and start fires in fireplaces in Scotland about 100 years ago. The Helen Gould Literary Club showed a buggy lamp used by the country doctor on his rounds at the turn of the century.

A couple of the displays were modeled when Mrs. Anna Patterson, representing the East Liverpool Garden Club, appeared in a frock - tailed wedding suit, and Mrs. Nancy McCoy, a Jaycee-ette, in a purple and black lace wedding gown. The Monday Literary Club brought an old top silk hat, a brown derby and a large plumed affair.

Shown in the glass line was Fry Glass, the entry of the Newell Women's Club; patterned glass, the Chester Arts Club; an embossed white pitcher, the Sorosis Club, and a white urn vase, the Catholic Women's Study Club.

Three fans over 100 years old were shown by the East Liverpool Women's Club; an Indian blanket woven in Canada, by the Bible Literary Club; a view of East Liverpool in 1878, and a cuspidor by the Business and Professional Women's Club, and a replica of a Turkish tray, by the Hillel Study Club.

A representative of each of the affiliated club carried their club's entry down the aisle enabling close views for the audience. The program was arranged by Mrs. John Keller and Mrs. Frank Miller. Miss Barbara Hall provided piano background music.

Selections presented by The China Belles were "All Alone," "Toot, Toot Tootsie Goodbye" and "Just Awearing for You." Members of the local Sweet Adelines Chapter, they are Mrs. Juanita Garver, Mrs. Jan Dietz, Mrs. Nancy Beaver and Mrs. Loretta Willoughby.

Mrs. Donald E. Wolfe, president, conducted business and named Miss Gladys DeBolt, Mrs. Robert Hays and Mrs. William Brokaw to the nominating committee.

The Rev. D. Ross Salisbury Jr., rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, discussed and distributed fact sheets about the mental health levy.

Miss Betty Buben, secretary, read the minutes and announced registration showed the BPW Club, the Garden Club and the Colloquium Study Club had the largest representation.

The hand-painted covers on the program booklets were made by students of Chester Junior High School under the supervision of Mrs. Charles French and Mrs. George Cawthon.

Mrs. Robert Burch was in charge of decorations, which were highlighted by fall arrangements on the stage and throughout the room.

Refreshments were served at a buffet table covered with a tangerine color cloth of hopsacking. The center arrangement of gourds and fall flowers and fruits was flanked by black wroughtiron candelabra. Mrs. Sidney C. Porter Jr. and Mrs. Wolfe poured at the silver service.

Mrs. Myer Alpern, social chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Betty Reed, Mrs. J. A. Bower, Mrs. Virgil Grimm, Mrs. Marie Hays, Mrs. T. J. Shust, Mrs. Ralph Turner, Mrs. Hart Larkins, Mrs. Henry Williams, Miss Eleanor Wilson and Mrs. John Pinney.

'Live At Peace,' Judge Tells 2 In Neighbors' Feud

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today urged a policy of "peaceful co-existence" for two LaCroft men who confronted him after a neighborhood dispute over traffic and parking that apparently arose in part because of a vague understanding of property lines.

Ralph Persing of LaCroft Ave. filed an affidavit alleging that Edward Rayle, also of LaCroft Ave., broke into his home Wednesday night and "committed personal violence" on Persing.

In a lengthy hearing, it developed the incident was an outgrowth of a dispute over motorists turning their cars around or parking in a section of public roadway that ties directly into Persing's driveway.

"This could go on for the next 10 years," the judge commented. Citing the Biblical injunction to "love thy neighbor," he said the parties concerned should have their properties surveyed to clear up questions over property lines and then consult attorneys "to get straightened out on your rights." He cautioned Rayle against "taking the law into your own hands."

After an admonition to the principals and several others of the same neighborhood, the court dismissed the charge against Rayle.

Wheeling Hears Underwood In Governor Bid

WHEELING (AP) — Cecil Underwood brought the Republican gubernatorial campaign to Wheeling this morning for appearances at a news conference —and a rally at which former Vice President Richard Nixon also appeared.

Underwood and the GOP candidates for the State Board of Public Works were to fly to Huntington later this afternoon.

Underwood, claiming he has the 150,000 Democratic votes which he says are necessary for him to win, nevertheless beat the bushes in five counties on northern West Virginia Thursday.

He finished off a long day with a speech at Philippi. He told an audience of about 150 in the old courtroom of the Barbour County Courthouse, "in 1956, I told you I thought you could get more roads for your tax money. This year I say I know you can get more roads."

He also said that if West Virginia is to break what he termed the welfare cycle, "we must break it through education."

MORALITY IN GOVERNMENT
by
BARRY GOLDWATER

"Americans are scandalized by Billie Sol Estes, Bobby Baker, Matt McCloskey, and by that shadow of scandal falling across the White House itself."

"They are scandalized that the interim President uses every power of his great office to cover up the sorriest array of unanswered questions we have ever had in our Nation's Capital."

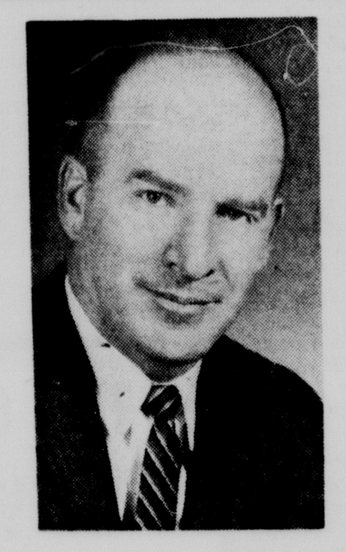

"There is no place for the dealership of a clever compromiser, a scheming wire-puller, a master politician."

"An administration is sick when it is riddled with abuse and when those abuses are concealed, swept under the rug because they reach too high or touch too many."

"There is much more to high standards than merely staying within the law. We know it is up to public officials to prove innocence of moral stain, not up to the public to prove their guilt."

"Americans everywhere are indignant about the moral decay in Washington and nobody should accept corruption in positions of public trust as a way of life. All it takes to clean it up is an administration that really wants it cleaned up — an administration with the moral courage to fire the influence peddlers and graft takers no matter whose friends they may be."

But President's Ahead In Texas

Goldwater Going All-Out To Win Johnson's State

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater is making an all-out effort to capture the 25 electoral votes of President Johnson's home state of Texas. But Johnson appears to hold the lead.

Goldwater's scheduled visit Saturday to San Antonio will be his sixth to Texas since the presidential campaign started. Johnson canceled a campaign trip to Texas earlier this month because of world events, but sent Mrs. Johnson on a flying visit here.

Although the Republicans hold a big lead in campaign mileage, the Democrats are ahead in pre-election polls.

A "semifinal" survey taken by a national pollster among 7,007 Texans in early October brought forth the prediction the Johnson-Humphrey ticket would get 64 per cent of the Texas vote, Goldwater-Miller 29 per cent, 7 per cent undecided. A Houston Chronicle survey taken within the last two weeks favored the Democrats with a 57-43 per cent prediction.

Until 1952, Texas was considered traditionally Democratic and a part of the Solid South. Ticket switching and splitting swung the state to the Republicans in 1952 and 1956. In 1960, John F. Kennedy switched it back to the Democrats by a meager 46,000 votes out of 2.3 million cast.

"The year 1964 is the year of golden opportunity for Texas Republicans," said State GOP Chairman Peter O'Donnell.

An Associated Press survey of precinct level campaigning in some of Texas largest cities last week showed that Republican grassroots workers started first, with the most zeal. Democrats are working hard to catch up.

Ticket splitting — voting for some candidates in the Democratic column and others in the Republican column of the ballot — is an old Texas custom.

Party strategists point to the gap between the one - half per cent victory margin for Democrats in 1960 and the 1.4 million that voted in this year's Democratic primary compared to only 143,000 in the Republican primary.

"Ticket splitting may well be the main issue of this campaign," said George Bush, Houston millionaire oil man and GOP senatorial nominee against Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough. He accused Yarborough of telling voters that a split vote could jam voting machines in the 17 large city counties that do not use the paper ballot.

Bush and other statewide GOP candidates strongly support Goldwater.

Yarborough has appeared with President Johnson on every opportunity in Texas and brags about the President's support.

Texas Gov. John B. Connally feuded with Yarborough over state party control earlier this year and has done no active campaigning for the senator. Connally has made no formal campaign against his Republican opponent Jack Crichton of Dallas, and in recent weeks has campaigned for the national ticket with the President and Mrs. Johnson.

Since Texas is one of the few states still requiring payment of a poll tax — $1.75 — the entire ballot of national, state and local candidates, plus three proposed state constitution changes, will be open only to the 2.4 million with poll tax receipts and those with exemptions for over and under age. Another 84,300 get a free vote for the federal candidates only because of the federal antipoll tax ban.

Want to vary that tossed green salad? One good way is to add strips of Swiss or cheddar cheese or to toss with grated Parmesan cheese along with the usual oil and vinegar dressing.

Kiwanis Hears Candidate

Dalrymple Cites Citizen Role To Uphold Freedom

The responsibility of every citizen to maintain the "house of freedom" created by the Constitution was emphasized by Allen Dalrymple of Wellsville at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday.

In a talk at the Travelers Hotel, Dalrymple, an attorney, operator of an auto agency and Republican candidate for 18th District congressman, described the writing of the Constitution and the objectives of the early leaders of the nation.

The 13 Colonies declared their independence from Great Britain in 1776 in a desire to acquire freedom, based on faith in God and faith in the integrity of fellowman, Dalrymple stated.

In the period of 1781-1787, when the Articles of Confederation provided a loose governmental form, the independent states realized the need for closer unity and co-operation, and moved to enact a better structure of government.

A constitutional convention was called, and efforts made to patch up the confederation, the speaker said.

It was decided, however, to undertake a completely new system and, after much study and work, the Constitution was approved and sent to the states for ratification.

Dalrymple commented that the 39 men who signed the document were all of the same British origins and with many limitations, yet were able to produce a Constitution so workable and so durable that it has been amended only 22 times in the past 177 years, despite extensive growth and changes of the country and its place in the world.

He said the success of the document showed the hand of destiny.

"These leaders had definite goals for the nation," Dalrymple commented, "which are shown in the preamble."

"We, the people" he said indicated the belief of power of government with the people of the country. "To form a more perfect union" shows the dissatisfaction with the Articles of Confederation and the hope for a better governmental system, he went on.

The objectives of equal justice, domestic tranquility, providing for a defense and guaranteeing liberty are listed, he pointed out.

As the document went to the states for ratification, there were objections to the lack of specific gurantees of individual rights, and an agreement was reached that once the Constitution was ratified, these guarantees would be attached by amendment.

And these were added in the form of the "Bill of Rights," the first 10 Amendments assuring the rights of speech, religion, press and others.

"The people wanted these gurantees despite the Constitution's orderly system of checks and balances between the legislative, judicial and executive," he said.

Dalrymple pointed out the United States is a republic, not a democracy, for in a republic the people delegate their power to representatives where in a democracy the people vote directly on governmental decisions.

"But despite the longevity of the Constitution and the permanent nature of the government, there are every-day changes, constant flow of new and different ideas and needs which must be met and utilized.

"The power to change lies with the people, if not by amendment, then by public opinion," he pointed out.

"Each citizen has to bear the responsibility of engaging in governmental change, as even today we are in the midst of change — it is a responsibility you cannot avoid," Dalrymple declared.

"Out of the blueprint of the Constitution has evolved a 'House of Freedom,' an it is up to all of us to insure the continuation of this house for the future," he concluded.

Dalrymple was introduced by Mayor Merrill Hall.

Norman Nicely, president, was in charge.

Glenn Hall reported $225 has been netted in a rummage sale being held this week by the club for various projects.

The club voted to endorse the proposed one-tenth of a mill mental health levy for Columbiana County in the election Tuesday. A description of the mental health program and fund need was given by the Rev. Ross Salisbury of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Wheeling Hears Underwood In Governor Bid

WHEELING (AP) — Cecil Underwood brought the Republican gubernatorial campaign to Wheeling this morning for appearances at a news conference —and a rally at which former Vice President Richard Nixon also appeared.

Underwood and the GOP candidates for the State Board of Public Works were to fly to Huntington later this afternoon.

Underwood, claiming he has the 150,000 Democratic votes which he says are necessary for him to win, nevertheless beat the bushes in five counties on northern West Virginia Thursday.

He finished off a long day with a speech at Philippi. He told an audience of about 150 in the old courtroom of the Barbour County Courthouse, "in 1956, I told you I thought you could get more roads for your tax money. This year I say I know you can get more roads."

He also said that if West Virginia is to break what he termed the welfare cycle, "we must break it through education."

MORALITY IN GOVERNMENT
BARRY GOLDWATER

"Americans are scandalized by Billie Sol Estes, Bobby Baker, Matt McCloskey, and by that shadow of scandal falling across the White House itself."

"They are scandalized that the interim President uses every power of his great office to cover up the sorriest array of unanswered questions we have ever had in our Nation's Capital."

"There is no place for the dealership of a clever compromiser, a scheming wire-puller, a master politician."

"An administration is sick when it is riddled with abuse and when those abuses are concealed, swept under the rug because they reach too high or touch too many."

"There is much more to high standards than merely staying within the law. We know it is up to public officials to prove innocence of moral stain, not up to the public to prove their guilt."

"Americans everywhere are indignant about the moral decay in Washington and nobody should accept corruption in positions of public trust as a way of life. All it takes to clean it up is an administration that really wants it cleaned up — an administration with the moral courage to fire the influence peddlers and graft takers no matter whose friends they may be."

wouldn't discuss them. Three months ago he indicated support for higher prices.

A tally of 1964 earnings of the 10 largest steel companies at the three-quarter mark showed profit of $576.5 million, up from $457.1 million in the like period of 1963 for a gain of 26 per cent.

Johnson again defended the administration's price-wage guideposts, invoked in steel price-wage maneuvering 2½ years ago, as "increasingly important" in the economy's advanced stage of expansion.

He said that the guideposts, geared to a productivity concept, provide a useful criterion for responsible business and labor leaders and are not intended to straitjacket prices or wages.

Guilford Rejects Plan For Bigger Outboard Motors

LISBON — The Guilford Lake Civic Association Thursday night voted down a proposal to request state permission for larger outboard motors.

State regulations now ban motors of over 3.5 horsepower on Guilford. The proposal defeated 18-11 was to ask the state to permit outboards of 3.9 horsepower. Proponents said the larger motor has a reverse which can be operated from the steering wheel while the 3.5 motor does not.

Approximately 50 attended the annual meeting at the Guilford Lake fire station. Ramon Whinnery of Guilford presided in the absence of Charles Gause, president, and William Schuler of Youngstown, vice president.

Floyd Lower of Lisbon, chairman of the Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission, and Ed Callahan of Columbus, manager of area industrial development for Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., discussed planning and zoning.

C. B. Johnston, William M. Dixon, Myron Flannery, A. B. Hepler and John Hindman were re-elected for two-year terms as trustees of the association.

The next meeting will be Jan. 28.

tended to accommodate the new units, which will include a turbine generator, boiler, coal-handling equipment and other auxiliary equipment.

Construction on the huge project is expected to start in the spring of 1965 and the new unit is slated to be in operation by the fall of 1967.

Power generated by the new unit will pass into the Ohio Edison intra-connected transmission system which serves a large area of Ohio, including Akron, Alliance, Elyria, Lorain, Mansfield, Marion, Massillon, Sandusky, Springfield, Warren and Youngstown.

Steam to drive the turbo-generating unit will be derived from a huge boiler capable of producing about 2,225,000 pounds of steam per hour, at a pressure of 2,400 pounds per square inch at a temperature of 1,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Ohio Edison and the Buckeye Power Co. are constructing the big Cardinal plant at Brilliant, and it will be the largest in the state when completed about 1966.

Only one other plant in the Ohio Valley tops the million-mark in kilowatts, the Sporn plant at Ravenswood, with 1,075,000. The capacity of the Toronto plant is 303,500 kilowatts.

1.3 Million Servicemen Due To Vote By Absentee Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — As many as 1.3 million U.S. servicemen may vote by absentee ballot in next Tuesday's presidential election — about 550,000 more than in 1960, defense officials said today.

Many ballots already are on their way to polling officials by mail from American military men and their families in the United States and overseas.

Officials assigned by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to get out the military vote said 60 to 65 per cent of the estimated 2 million eligible servicemen may cast absentee ballots.

Four years ago, a total of 735,019 service men voted in this manner — a bit below 40 per cent of the 1,888,597 then eligible.

The Marines have the best record with a 68 per cent voting rate. The Navy came next with 44.2 per cent, the Air Force followed with 38.9 per cent and the Army trailed with 32.4 per cent.

Pentagon officials said hopes for a huge increase in servicemen voting this year stem from actions designed to assure that every man received a federal postcard application for an absentee ballot.

McNamara ordered that commanders make certain an application card was placed in every man's hand. This "in hand" distribution was due to be completed Sept. 25.

Applications for absentee ballots also were available to dependents of servicemen. About 750,000 wives and adult sons and daughters of servicemen are eligible to vote absentee this year, official tabulations show.

All the 50 states and the District of Columbia permit absentee voting by servicemen.

Businessmen Will Get Report From Planner

A report on data gathered to date on the central business area as part of a "master plan" study will be presented to the East Liverpool Merchants Association at its meeting Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The data will be furnished by Daniel Ziegler II, a representative of Carroll V. Hill & Associates, the concern preparing the "master plan."

The businessmen also will hear final plans for the annual community Christmas program. Dayton Allen is ELMA chairman.

Ban Of Pennsylvania Milk Group Proposed

PITTSBURGH — Outright abolition of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission has been unanimously recommended by the Allegheny County commissioners, who also have recommended repeal of the law passed during the depression of the 1930's that created the Milk Commission.

The recommendations have been sent to the governor's advisory committee on milk, together with alternate proposals for amending the present law to protect consumers, County Commission chairman William D. McClelland said Thursday.

2 Women Uninjured As Bomb Explodes

CLEVELAND (AP)—A bomb under a car's hood exploded early today, but two women occupants were uninjured and the driver suffered only a nicked leg.

Raleigh Samuels said he and the women, who were unidentified, got into his car and the front end blew up when he stepped on the starter. The front bumper and hood were blown off and parts of the car were scattered 40 feet away.

Detective Sgt. Norman Ferris said the three would have been killed if the force of the blast had been toward them instead of upward.

wouldn't discuss them. Three months ago he indicated support for higher prices.

A tally of 1964 earnings of the 10 largest steel companies at the three-quarter mark showed profit of $576.5 million, up from $457.1 million in the like period of 1963 for a gain of 26 per cent.

Johnson again defended the administration's price-wage guideposts, invoked in steel price-wage maneuvering 2½ years ago, as "increasingly important" in the economy's advanced stage of expansion.

He said that the guideposts, geared to a productivity concept, provide a useful criterion for responsible business and labor leaders and are not intended to straitjacket prices or wages.

Although the levy provides no funds for operating costs, Thompson pointed out the costs amounted to almost $7.5 million in the last five years with about 66 per cent going for payrolls. With 336 employes, the hospital is the city's second largest employer.

During the last five years, 291,109 patient days of hospital care was provided 45,043 patients. The actual cost of one day's care in 1963 was $28.76.

An average of 1,241 babies have been born at the hospital annually in the last five years.

Guilford Rejects Plan For Bigger Outboard Motors

LISBON — The Guilford Lake Civic Association Thursday night voted down a proposal to request state permission for larger outboard motors.

State regulations now ban motors of over 3.5 horsepower on Guilford. The proposal defeated 18-11 was to ask the state to permit outboards of 3.9 horsepower. Proponents said the larger motor has a reverse which can be operated from the steering wheel while the 3.5 motor does not.

Approximately 50 attended the annual meeting at the Guilford Lake fire station. Ramon Whinnery of Guilford presided in the absence of Charles Gause, president, and William Schuler of Youngstown, vice president.

Floyd Lower of Lisbon, chairman of the Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission, and Ed Callahan of Columbus, manager of area industrial development for Columbia Gas of Ohio, Inc., discussed planning and zoning.

C. B. Johnston, William M. Dixon, Myron Flannery, A. B. Hepler and John Hindman were re-elected for two-year terms as trustees of the association.

Construction on the huge project is expected to start in the spring of 1965 and the new unit is slated to be in operation by the fall of 1967.

Power generated by the new unit will pass into the Ohio Edison intra-connected transmission system which serves a large area of Ohio, including Akron, Alliance, Elyria, Lorain, Mansfield, Marion, Massillon, Sandusky, Springfield, Warren and Youngstown.

Steam to drive the turbo-generating unit will be derived from a huge boiler capable of producing about 2,225,000 pounds of steam per hour, at a pressure of 2,400 pounds per square inch at a temperature of 1,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Ohio Edison and the Buckeye Power Co. are constructing the big Cardinal plant at Brilliant, and it will be the largest in the state when completed about 1966.

Only one other plant in the Ohio Valley tops the million-mark in kilowatts, the Sporn plant at Ravenswood, with 1,075,000. The capacity of the Toronto plant is 303,500 kilowatts.

There are 150 employes at the Sammis plant at Stratton.

He's Pro Gridder On Weekends...

If you would walk into an eighth-grade geography class at East Junior High School and see Don Donatelli teaching, you might mistake him for a professional football player.

You wouldn't be wrong if you did. Donatelli, a husky 250-pounder, is a junior high teacher and eighth-grade football coach during the week, but turns his attentions to professional football on the weekends.

The Ironmen (not be confused with the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League) like other teams in the Atlantic Conference are loaded with some outstanding talent from the college ranks.

Donatelli Instructs 8th Grader John Johnson.

Wade On 'Taxi Squad'...

DONATELLI explained that the three members of the Ironmen are on the Pittsburgh Steeler "taxi squad." This means, he explains, that these players are actually owned by the Steelers and are on their roster, but not on the active player list.

In case of injury the "taxi squad" members could be called up to the parent club.

Don points out one member of the Ironmen that Steeler followers might keep their eye on in the future.

Tommy Wade, who plays an outstanding quarterback for the Ironmen, could very well be a successor to Ed Brown, the present Steeler quarterback who has been taking his share of jeers from Pittsburgh fans for his sub-par performances of late.

Don, who snaps the ball to Wade, says "Tommy is a fine quarterback and I believe he will make it with the Steelers next year. He is getting smarter and learning to check off plays on the line of scrimmage and he can throw that long pass."

Wade saw quite a bit of action with Texas, the nation's No. 1 team, last year. He was an understudy to Duke Carlisle, but was considered the passing quarterback when the Longhorns needed to go to the air.

ANOTHER gridder attached to the Steelers is Mel Profit, an All-American end from UCLA. The Pittsburgh NFL entry also has its eye on Dave Fleming, a 20-year-old halfback, who didn't have college experience but nearly made the Steelers this year.

Donatelli says he plays football because "I enjoy the game and the money helps out. Also, there is no great amount of pressure as that which comes when you play in the NFL or AFL. I feel the Atlantic Conference presents a good brand of football, with the league made up of some of the top college players."

PITTSBURGH is currently second in the Southern Division standing with an 8-2 record. Jersey City leads the way with an 8-1 mark, while Newark is 8-1-1. Other teams in Pittsburgh's division include Richmond, Harrisburg, Atlanta and Hazelton.

Seven other teams form the Northern Division.

Don said the range pay is from $50 to $120 per game. The Ironmen have had an increase at the gate this season, drawing between 8,000 to 10,000 for their home contests.

Donatelli is originally from Pittsburgh, but played college football as a tackle at Florida State, where he made the all-state college team.

IN 1962, he was drafted by the Houston Oilers of the AFL and sent to Indianapolis of the United Football League, where he was an all-league center.

Later recalled, he played seven games at Houston in 1962. The following season he was with the Oilers until the final cut, then returned to teaching.

Late this summer he was signed by the Edmonton team of the Canadian League, but was later released. In Canadian football, teams are allowed only 15 American players and only 13 can dress for each game.

Thornton's 4 TD's Pace 34-16 Victory

Tiger Star Ejected; Miller Runs 74

Before being ejected from the game with 11 minutes remaining, thundering Chris Thornton piled up four touchdowns while pint-size halfback Tommy Miller scored another on a 74-yard dash in pacing Wellsville to a 34-16 victory over winless Jefferson Union.

A crowd of some 1,500 gathered at the JU field Thursday night as Coach Ken Woods' Tigers brought home their third victory in eight games while the Yellowjackets drooped their eighth in a row.

THE VICTORY also moves Wellsville into second place in the Buckeye Border Conference with a 2-1 record. Toronto shows a 3-0 record to lead the pack and needs only a victory over Beaver Local to cop the title.

Thornton put on another touchdown show and for the second time this season scored four TD's in one game. He had scored four times against Southern Local earlier in the season.

LAST NIGHT'S total gives Thornton 72 points for eight games and places him in a tie for first place in district scoring honors with United's Gene Metzgar. However, Metzgar won't play until Saturday when United meets West Branch.

Thornton was around long enough to cross the goal four times and gain a net of 143 yards in 16 carries. He and Jefferson's Earl Westfall, a tackle, were banished from the game by the officials with 11 minutes left to play after a few blows were exchanged.

WELLSVILLE also lost tackle Milt Wolfe who was ejected two minutes later when he complained to one of the officials.

Thornton scooted 58 yards for his longest scoring jaunt of the night and added other TD's on runs of 12, 7 and 2.

The Wellsville star will have to share honors with Miller, the spunky halfback who turned in his finest hour on the gridiron for the Tigers.

Miller won't forget his touchdown. Not only was it the longest of the night—74 yards—but it marked the first the senior back had ever scored in his high school career. Miller's TD came with 6:55 remaining in the game and pushed Wellsville into a 34-8 lead at the time.

Wellsville dominated the first half while Coach Norm Allison's JU eleven got rolling in the third and fourth periods.

THORNTON'S first TD came with 7:12 left in the first quarter and he crossed the goal again with 1:30 to go in the opening period.

The 58-yard burst came with 8:15 to go in the half and proved the most exciting run of the game as Thornton, apparently trapped, reversed his field twice and with the help of some key blocks outran the JU defenders.

The Tigers struck again in the third quarter with an intercepted pass leading to the touchdown. Quarterback Rich Hall snagged the aerial thrown by JU's Larry Kelly and returned it to the JU 47.

MILLER streaked over the right side for 38 yards to the nine and in two carries Thornton took it in.

JU scored early in the fourth period after Kelly had intercepted a pass thrown by Chris Thornton and brought it to the Wellsville 23.

The second touchdown came against Wellsville's second unit when Coach Ken Woods substituted freely in the last seven minutes.

Wellsville played without the services of regular quarterback Harry Thornton who did not dress for the game due to a disciplinary action by Coach Woods.

WELLSVILLE crushed JU in the first half, holding the Jackets to a net of eight yards rushing but the JU attack got rolling in the second half.

The Tigers turned in one of their top offensive shows with 16 first downs and 360 yards rushing plus another 68 yards in the air for a total of 428 yards gained.

JU wound up with a net of 63 yards on the ground but was hitting its passes in the second half and showed 131 yards in the air on nine out of 17 completions.

A combination of Robinson to George Claytor, a glue-fingered freshman end, featured the Jackets' aerial game in the fourth quarter when they connected for five straight pitches.

Riders Will Have Revenge On Mind

Potters Rate Edge To Post 6th Victory

The East Liverpool Potters enter their eighth game of the season as a heavy favorite but one thing Weirton will be seeking tonight is revenge. Kickoff at Weir High Stadium is set for 8 p. m.

The Riders came to East Liverpool last season sporting a 7-0 record only to travel home with their first loss of the campaign when the Potters pulled what was considered an upset coming home with a 20-18 victory.

WEIRTON, at that time also was ranked No. 1 in West Virginia until running into the Potters.

Coach Bob McNea sends his alert club after victory No. 6 tonight while Weirton has been struggling this season winning two while losing five matches.

The Potters will be depending on the passing of quarterback Bob Maltarich along with the running prowess of backs Denny Burke, Mike Goodballet and Pat Chema.

MALTARICH had one of his better passing nights last week in the victory over Martins Ferry while Burke continued to roll up the touchdowns scoring three more to give him 54 points for the season, tops among the Potters.

Maltarich used as his targets last week, Chema, Goodballet and end Bob Burkhart. Chema, who has learned his assignments well as a replacement for the injured Nick Marchbanks has been the Potters regular halfback in the past three contests.

ON PAPER the Potters rate a three-touchdown advantage tonight since comparing common opposition. Steubenville Big Red defeated Weirton, 7-0 while East Liverpool handed Big Red a 24-12 setback.

Big threat for Weirton is John Bryant, a 145-pound speedster, who plays left halfback. Bryant was in Coach Carl Foder's doghouse last week and was benched in a 20-0 loss to Wheeling.

Foder had benched Bryant for disciplinary reasons following his conduct in the Triadelphia game.

After tonight the Potters travel to Salem next week then close the season at home with Alliance on Nov. 13.

Berra To Think About Met Offer

By LEW HEAD

MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Golfer Yogi Berra will likely have something to say after a vacation about the latest development in his baseball career.

The ex-manager of the New York Yankees was reached at his home by telephone Thursday night on the eve of his departure for a 10-day golfing holiday at Pinehurst, N.C.

"What about this New York Mets business, Yogi?" he was asked.

A brief pause followed, punctuated by what sounded like the rattle of golf clubs from the Berra end of the line.

"We understand," the questioner continued, "that Mets President George Weiss wants you in his organization, that he considers you 'A man with a great deal of baseball knowledge and popularity.'"

"Yeah, we talked," said Berra. He referred to a meeting Wednesday with Weiss in New York City.

"And what did you say?".

"I said I'm going to think about it."

"Think about what? What did he offer you?"

"Well, I don't have anything to say now."

Berry was equally uncommunicative after he was fired as manager of the Yanks on Oct. 16. The Yanks had won the American League pennant, then lost the World Series to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games. Berra was offered a two-year contract as a special field consultant to General Manager Ralph Houk, but no contract was signed.

In New York Thursday, Weiss said there has been "no concrete discussion of any type of job he might be interested in." But Weiss said he wanted Berra and understood that he was a free agent.

Ex-Cardinal Larry Jackson led the major leagues in victories this year, winning 25 games for the Chicago Cubs.

Potter Band Will Not Go To Weirton

East Liverpool High School's snappy marching band will not travel to Weirton tonight for the Potter-Weir High game.

Vincent Maola, Potter band director, said in a letter received from Weirton school officials that all visiting bands could not participate at halftime.

The halftime is reserved for the Weir High band and visiting bands who wish to perform must do so 20 minutes before game time.

This brought the decision from Maola not to take the ELHS band to Weirton tonight.

The Weirton band usually stages a lengthy halftime show and the appearance of a visiting band would draw out the halftime far past the allotted time.

1.3 Million Servicemen Due To Vote By Absentee Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP) — As many as 1.3 million U.S. servicemen may vote by absentee ballot in next Tuesday's presidential election — about 550,000 more than in 1960, defense officials said today.

Many ballots already are on their way to polling officials by mail from American military men and their families in the United States and overseas.

Officials assigned by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to get out the military vote said 60 to 65 per cent of the estimated 2 million eligible servicemen may cast absentee ballots.

Four years ago, a total of 735,019 service men voted in this manner — a bit below 40 per cent of the 1,888,597 then eligible.

The Marines have the best record with a 68 per cent voting rate. The Navy came next with 44.2 per cent, the Air Force followed with 38.9 per cent and the Army trailed with 32.4 per cent.

Pentagon officials said hopes for a huge increase in servicemen voting this year stem from actions designed to assure that every man received a federal postcard application for an absentee ballot.

McNamara ordered that commanders make certain an application card was placed in every man's hand. This "in hand" distribution was due to be completed Sept. 25.

Applications for absentee ballots also were available to dependents of servicemen. About 750,000 wives and adult sons and daughters of servicemen are eligible to vote absentee this year, official tabulations show.

All the 50 states and the District of Columbia permit absentee voting by servicemen.

Businessmen Will Get Report From Planner

A report on data gathered to date on the central business area as part of a "master plan" study will be presented to the East Liverpool Merchants Association at its meeting Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The data will be furnished by Daniel Ziegler II, a representative of Carroll V. Hill & Associates, the concern preparing the "master plan."

The businessmen also will hear final plans for the annual community Christmas program. Dayton Allen is ELMA chairman.

Ban Of Pennsylvania Milk Group Proposed

PITTSBURGH — Outright abolition of the Pennsylvania Milk Control Commission has been unanimously recommended by the Allegheny County commissioners, who also have recommended repeal of the law passed during the depression of the 1930's that created the Milk Commission.

The recommendations have been sent to the governor's advisory committee on milk, together with alternate proposals for amending the present law to protect consumers, County Commission chairman William D. McClelland said Thursday.

2 Women Uninjured As Bomb Explodes

CLEVELAND (AP)—A bomb under a car's hood exploded early today, but two women occupants were uninjured and the driver suffered only a nicked leg.

Raleigh Samuels said he and the women, who were unidentified, got into his car and the front end blew up when he stepped on the starter. The front bumper and hood were blown off and parts of the car were scattered 40 feet away.

Detective Sgt. Norman Ferris said the three would have been killed if the force of the blast had been toward them instead of upward.

Browns Picked To Avenge Earlier Loss To Steelers

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland seeks revenge for an earlier loss to Pittsburgh, Baltimore goes after its seventh straight victory and Detroit and Los Angeles battle for the runner-up role in the West in key National Football League games Sunday.

Buffalo, only unbeaten team in the majors, shoots for its eighth straight against Houston and Boston duels New York for runner-up honors in the East in top American Football League games.

A 9-2 record last week gives us courage to go for a few upsets this time. The season score is 47-24-5 — 28-18-3 in the NFL and 19-6-2 in the AFL.

NFL

Los Angeles 21, Detroit 17 — An upset right off the bat. The Rams and Lions play "get the passer" with their tough defensive lines. They fought to 17-17 tie Sept. 19 but Los Angeles outgained Detroit. Ram rookies pack more scoring punch, with Milt Plum handicapped by injured elbow.

Dallas 17, Chicago 14 — Cowboy defense to handle Bill Wade's passes in another surprise. Dallas coming strong in last two weeks with Don Meredith healthy. Bears battered physically but still playing.

St. Louis 24, New York 17 — Despite loss of Sonny Randle, Cards have mixture of running and passing to top Giants and blitzing defense to harass Y. A. Tittle. Both quarterbacks have interception trouble. Cards will give Giant rookie Ernie Wheelwright prime test. Running of Joe Childress, Willie Crenshaw and John David Crow make Cards tough.

Baltimore 28, San Francisco 10 — One of these days Colts are going to have a letdown. Could be this one but 49ers don't have rush line to hurry Johnny Unitas and John Brodie will get a rough reception. Colts' well-balanced offense too much.

Green Bay 24, Minnesota 21 — Vikings won their first meeting 24-23 on a missed extra point by Paul Hornung. Loss of Paul Flatley hurts Minnesota's air arm. Vikings can be had with passes. Both clubs can move the ball on the ground. A real tough one.

Cleveland 24, Pittsburgh 21 — This could be a killer. Steelers made 353 yards on the ground with John Henry Johnson and Clarence Peaks in winning first meeting 23-7. Conservative Brown pass rush gives Ed Brown plenty of time. But Jim Brown is overdue for a big one, especially against a club that stopped him cold earlier. Everybody runs against Steelers—except Browns.

Washington 21, Philadelphia 20 — Another upset. Toughest pick of the week. Redskins won first game 35-20 on five touchdown passes by Sonny Jurgensen who may have key to Eagle defense. Bobby Mitchell caught 12 against Glenn Glass first time so Nate Ramsey gets the job this week. Can Ollie Matson and Earl Gros run on Skins? That will decide it.

AFL

Boston 24, New York 21 (Saturday night) — Patriots beat Jets earlier 26-10. Mike Holovak's crew best in league on defense against rushing and Jets must have big yardage by Matt Snell to win. Gino Cappelletti and Jim Colclough catching Babe Parilli's passes give Boston edge. Jets vulnerable to bomb since loss of Marshall Starks.

Buffalo 28, Houston 17 — The Bills' happy string can't go on forever. But the rookie-loaded Oiler line-up doesn't have the stuff to stop the combination of Jack Kemp and Daryle Lamonica.

Oakland 24, San Diego 21 — Another upset. Al Davis has been having a tough year (1-5-1) but he has Sid Gillman's number. Clem Daniels and Billy Cannon are rolling, Cotton Davidson is rolling out and hitting Art Powell. Chargers having injury trouble in linebacking and deep defense but Lance Alworth, Keith Lincoln and Paul Lowe are healthy.

Kansas City 21, Denver 7 — Denver broke its long losing streak at Chiefs' expense Oct. 11, 33-27. Doesn't figure to happen again. Broncs having problems in defensive backfield. Len Dawson supposed to be ready to go but Eddie Wilson has been fine back-up man.

Rams Given Nod To Upset Detroit

Buckeyes Visit Iowa

Bowling Green, Miami Duel In Ohio's Top Bout

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's footballers are out in Iowa this weekend, trying to protect their national No. 1 ranking, Big Ten lead and Rose Bowl hopes against the Hawkeyes.

But while Woody Hayes and his stalwarts are visiting the corn country, the Buckeye realm's other collegiate squads have quite a show on tap for the home folk.

Two big acts are scheduled at Oxford and Springfield, with plenty riding on the results.

At Oxford, Bowling Green puts its six-game winning streak and Mid-American title hopes on the line against Miami which has a 4-1-1 record and numbers Big Ten Northwestern amongs its victims.

A year ago the Bee-Gees went into the fray with that same 6-0 mark but were beaten 21-12 and Ohio University slipped into the championship as a result. If Miami turns the trick again, the Bobcats once more will take over the loop lead with a 2-0-1 mark to 3-1 for Saturday's foes.

Doyt Perry of Bowling Green, the nation's top-record coach with 74-9-5, has beaten the Redskins only twice in nine tries, against five losses and two ties.

The Springfield clash features Ohio Wesleyan's invasion of Wittenberg, with the latter going for its seventh straight victory, its sixth Ohio Conference championship in seven years and another boost to its rating as the country's best small college team.

Football's most ghoulish, gruesome trophy, "Ye Olde Indian Skull," goes to the winner. The skull was uncovered in 1929 at Delaware.

Despite Weslyan's 1-4 record, Wittenberg is not an odds - on favorite in the classic. Too many upsets have dotted the long series reaching back to 1894 for anyone to take anything for granted.

Back in 1928, when Wittenberg coach Bill Edwards was a Tiger star lineman, the Springfielders took a 4-3 record to Wesleyan against a team which had beat Syracuse and Michigan in a nine-game winning streak—but Wittenberg won 7-6, on Edwards' extra point.

Ohio University entertains Dayton's Flyers in another eye-catcher, while the four remaining Mid-American teams battle it out for the lower berths as Toledo (1-3) plays at Kent State (0-3-1), and Western Michigan (1-3) goes against Marshall (1-1).

The Ohio Conference, in addition to the Wesleyan-Wittenberg headliner, offers Hiram (1-3) at Wooster (1-3), Heidelberg (1-3) at Otterbein (4-1), Mt. Union (2-3) at Kenyon (0-3), Baldwin-Wallace (2-1) at Akron (2-3), and Marietta (1-3) at Capital (4-1).

Northside 6-0 Victor

Northside handed the Vikings a 6-0 setback Thursday night at Chester in the Tri-State Little Football League. Three games are scheduled Sunday in the league.

Central Tops East Junior Eleven, 26-0

Steubenville Central's Jim Layman scored all four touchdowns as East Junior High hit by key injuries during the game, dropped a 26-0 verdict Thursday at Steubenville.

An even first half, ended with Steubenville scoring on the last play of the second quarter to take a 6-0 lead at halftime. The young Crusaders tallied 20 points in the second half.

Marlen Hagge's 69 Leads Pro-Am Play

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP) — Marlene Hagge shot a 69 Thursday to lead the women professional golfers in the pro-am section of the Las Cruces Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Middies Pointing To Irish As They Would For Army

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Navy's football season, normally made or broken in the annual windup against Army, goes on the line a month early this year.

The date is Saturday, the target second-ranked Notre Dame — and if that doesn't throw a bit of a Halloween scare into the unbeaten Irish, there's always Roger Staubach.

The Middies, three-time losers, have been pointing toward this one — 38th meeting between the teams — with a passion usually reserved for their service academy rival. If any added incentive is needed, the return of All-America quarterback Staubach, recovered from a heel injury, to full-time duty should provide it.

While Navy and Staubach tangle with Notre Dame's vaunted defense, Ohio State tries to protect its No. 1 national ranking against another brilliant passer, Iowa's Gary Snook, in the Big Ten headliner.

Elsewhere, Alabama, Arkansas, Nebraska and Oregon risk perfect records against conference opponents and unbeaten Georgia Tech, major independent power, meets Duke in a key intersectional clash.

Ohio State, seeking a sixth straight victory and the inside track to the Rose Bowl, could be in for a rough hour at Iowa City. The Buckeyes have been less than overpowering in previous visits and they'll be contending with the nation's third-ranking passer in Snook and No. 1 receiver in Karl Noonan.

Third-ranked Alabama, 6-0, meets Southeastern Conference rival Mississippi State. Ninth-ranked Louisiana State, 4-0-1, plays Mississippi and Florida, No. 10 and 4-1, goes against Auburn in other top SEC games.

Arkansas, 6-0, seeks to cement its No. 4 ranks and Southwest Conference lead against Texas A&M. Sixth-ranked Texas, beaten only by the Razorbacks in six starts, has a SWC date with Southern Methodist.

High-scoring Nebraska must get past rugged Big Eight foe Missouri for victory No. 7. The Cornhuskers are No. 5 in the country. Suprising Oregon, also 6-0 and rated seventh, plays Stanford in a Pacific Athletic Conference game.

Georgia Tech, riding a 6-0 streak since quitting the SEC, meets its stiffest test thus far in the unbeaten, once-tied Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Yellow Jackets are eighth in The Associated Press ratings.

130 Pros Tee Off In Almaden Tourney

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A field of 130 professionals was set to slosh through the opening round today of the $25,000 Almaden Open Golf Tournament after rain forced a one-day postponement.

The finals of the 72-hole tourney, originally set for Sunday, were rescheduled for Monday.

Sports Bench

make no mistake tonight it looks like East Liverpool by three touchdowns over Weirton.

We like Oak Glen to bounce back to the victory trail with a decision over Fairmont West, while Midland rates our nod to win its fourth straight over its old jinx, New Brighton.

On the Tri-County scene, our picks are East Palestine to nip Poland and Leetonia to edge Lisbon. Louisville is Louisville and Columbiana or any of the Leopards' opponents don't rate much of a chance.

Northwestern should chalk up a victory over South Side, which has been taking its football lumps, and Boardman is our call over Salem.

Saturday, the Beaver Local-Southern Local game shapes up as even, with the Beavers suffering some hard luck injuries to key personnel. We'll stick with the Beavers in this one by a narrow margin.

Stanton Local is our choice to nip Brilliant, while United should handle West Branch. It's Western Reserve over Crestview.

He's Pro Gridder On Weekends...

If you would walk into an eighth-grade geography class at East Junior High School and see Don Donatelli teaching, you might mistake him for a professional football player.

You wouldn't be wrong if you did. Donatelli, a husky 250-pounder, is a junior high teacher and eighth-grade football coach during the week, but turns his attentions to professional football on the weekends.

The Ironmen (not be confused with the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League) like other teams in the Atlantic Conference are loaded with some outstanding talent from the college ranks.

Donatelli Instructs 8th Grader John Johnson.

Wade On 'Taxi Squad'...

DONATELLI explained that the three members of the Ironmen are on the Pittsburgh Steeler "taxi squad." This means, he explains, that these players are actually owned by the Steelers and are on their roster, but not on the active player list.

In case of injury the "taxi squad" members could be called up to the parent club.

Don points out one member of the Ironmen that Steeler followers might keep their eye on in the future.

Tommy Wade, who plays an outstanding quarterback for the Ironmen, could very well be a successor to Ed Brown, the present Steeler quarterback who has been taking his share of jeers from Pittsburgh fans for his sub-par performances of late.

Don, who snaps the ball to Wade, says "Tommy is a fine quarterback and I believe he will make it with the Steelers next year. He is getting smarter and learning to check off plays on the line of scrimmage and he can throw that long pass."

Wade saw quite a bit of action with Texas, the nation's No. 1 team, last year. He was an understudy to Duke Carlisle, but was considered the passing quarterback when the Longhorns needed to go to the air.

ANOTHER gridder attached to the Steelers is Mel Profit, an All-American end from UCLA. The Pittsburgh NFL entry also has its eye on Dave Fleming, a 20-year-old halfback, who didn't have college experience but nearly made the Steelers this year.

Donatelli says he plays football because "I enjoy the game and the money helps out. Also, there is no great amount of pressure as that which comes when you play in the NFL or AFL. I feel the Atlantic Conference presents a good brand of football, with the league made up of some of the top college players."

PITTSBURGH is currently second in the Southern Division standing with an 8-2 record. Jersey City leads the way with an 8-1 mark, while Newark is 8-1-1. Other teams in Pittsburgh's division include Richmond, Harrisburg, Atlanta and Hazelton.

Seven other teams form the Northern Division.

Don said the range pay is from $50 to $120 per game. The Ironmen have had an increase at the gate this season, drawing between 8,000 to 10,000 for their home contests.

Donatelli is originally from Pittsburgh, but played college football as a tackle at Florida State, where he made the all-state college team.

IN 1962, he was drafted by the Houston Oilers of the AFL and sent to Indianapolis of the United Football League, where he was an all-league center.

Later recalled, he played seven games at Houston in 1962. The following season he was with the Oilers until the final cut, then returned to teaching.

Late this summer he was signed by the Edmonton team of the Canadian League, but was later released. In Canadian football, teams are allowed only 15 American players and only 13 can dress for each game.

Dick Bowen, an outstanding back at Pitt several seasons ago, is head coach of the Ironmen.

Thornton's 4 TD's Pace 34-16 Victory

Tiger Star Ejected; Miller Runs 74

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Before being ejected from the game with 11 minutes remaining, thundering Chris Thornton piled up four touchdowns while pint-size halfback Tommy Miller scored another on a 74-yard dash in pacing Wellsville to a 34-16 victory over winless Jefferson Union.

A crowd of some 1,500 gathered at the JU field Thursday night as Coach Ken Woods' Tigers brought home their third victory in eight games while the Yellowjackets drooped their eighth in a row.

THE VICTORY also moves Wellsville into second place in the Buckeye Border Conference with a 2-1 record. Toronto shows a 3-0 record to lead the pack and needs only a victory over Beaver Local to cop the title.

Thornton put on another touchdown show and for the second time this season scored four TD's in one game. He had scored four times against Southern Local earlier in the season.

LAST NIGHT'S total gives Thornton 72 points for eight games and places him in a tie for first place in district scoring honors with United's Gene Metzgar. However, Metzgar won't play until Saturday when United meets West Branch.

Thornton was around long enough to cross the goal four times and gain a net of 143 yards in 16 carries. He and Jefferson's Earl Westfall, a tackle, were banished from the game by the officials with 11 minutes left to play after a few blows were exchanged.

WELLSVILLE also lost tackle Milt Wolfe who was ejected two minutes later when he complained to one of the officials.

Thornton scooted 58 yards for his longest scoring jaunt of the night and added other TD's on runs of 12, 7 and 2.

The Wellsville star will have to share honors with Miller, the spunky halfback who turned in his finest hour on the gridiron for the Tigers.

Miller won't forget his touchdown. Not only was it the longest of the night—74 yards—but it marked the first the senior back had ever scored in his high school career. Miller's TD came with 6:55 remaining in the game and pushed Wellsville into a 34-8 lead at the time.

Wellsville dominated the first half while Coach Norm Allison's JU eleven got rolling in the third and fourth periods.

THORNTON'S first TD came with 7:12 left in the first quarter and he crossed the goal again with 1:30 to go in the opening period.

The 58-yard burst came with 8:15 to go in the half and proved the most exciting run of the game as Thornton, apparently trapped, reversed his field twice and with the help of some key blocks outran the JU defenders.

The Tigers struck again in the third quarter with an intercepted pass leading to the touchdown. Quarterback Rich Hall snagged the aerial thrown by JU's Larry Kelly and returned it to the JU 47.

MILLER streaked over the right side for 38 yards to the nine and in two carries Thornton took it in.

JU scored early in the fourth period after Kelly had intercepted a pass thrown by Chris Thornton and brought it to the Wellsville 23.

The second touchdown came against Wellsville's second unit when Coach Ken Woods substituted freely in the last seven minutes.

Wellsville played without the services of regular quarterback Harry Thornton who did not dress for the game due to a disciplinary action by Coach Woods.

Hall, a sophomore, replaced Thornton and ran the Tigers smoothly for the three periods he was at the helm.

WELLSVILLE crushed JU in the first half, holding the Jackets to a net of eight yards rushing but the JU attack got rolling in the second half.

The Tigers turned in one of their top offensive shows with 16 first downs and 360 yards rushing plus another 68 yards in the air for a total of 428 yards gained.

JU wound up with a net of 63 yards on the ground but was hitting its passes in the second half and showed 131 yards in the air on nine out of 17 completions.

A combination of Robinson to George Claytor, a glue-fingered freshman end, featured the Jackets' aerial game in the fourth quarter when they connected for five straight pitches.

Riders Will Have Revenge On Mind

Potters Rate Edge To Post 6th Victory

The East Liverpool Potters enter their eighth game of the season as a heavy favorite but one thing Weirton will be seeking tonight is revenge. Kickoff at Weir High Stadium is set for 8 p. m.

The Riders came to East Liverpool last season sporting a 7-0 record only to travel home with their first loss of the campaign when the Potters pulled what was considered an upset coming home with a 20-18 victory.

WEIRTON, at that time also was ranked No. 1 in West Virginia until running into the Potters.

Coach Bob McNea sends his alert club after victory No. 6 tonight while Weirton has been struggling this season winning two while losing five matches.

The Potters will be depending on the passing of quarterback Bob Maltarich along with the running prowess of backs Denny Burke, Mike Goodballet and Pat Chema.

MALTARICH had one of his better passing nights last week in the victory over Martins Ferry while Burke continued to roll up the touchdowns scoring three more to give him 54 points for the season, tops among the Potters.

Maltarich used as his targets last week, Chema, Goodballet and end Bob Burkhart. Chema, who has learned his assignments well as a replacement for the injured Nick Marchbanks has been the Potters regular halfback in the past three contests.

ON PAPER the Potters rate a three-touchdown advantage tonight since comparing common opposition. Steubenville Big Red defeated Weirton, 7-0 while East Liverpool handed Big Red a 24-12 setback.

Big threat for Weirton is John Bryant, a 145-pound speedster, who plays left halfback. Bryant was in Coach Carl Foder's doghouse last week and was benched in a 20-0 loss to Wheeling.

Foder had benched Bryant for disciplinary reasons following his conduct in the Triadelphia game.

After tonight the Potters travel to Salem next week then close the season at home with Alliance on Nov. 13.

Berra To Think About Met Offer

By LEW HEAD

MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Golfer Yogi Berra will likely have something to say after a vacation about the latest development in his baseball career.

The ex-manager of the New York Yankees was reached at his home by telephone Thursday night on the eve of his departure for a 10-day golfing holiday at Pinehurst, N.C.

"What about this New York Mets business, Yogi?" he was asked.

A brief pause followed, punctuated by what sounded like the rattle of golf clubs from the Berra end of the line.

"We understand," the questioner continued, "that Mets President George Weiss wants you in his organization, that he considers you 'A man with a great deal of baseball knowledge and popularity.'"

"Yeah, we talked," said Berra. He referred to a meeting Wednesday with Weiss in New York City.

"And what did you say?".

"I said I'm going to think about it."

"Think about what? What did he offer you?"

"Well, I don't have anything to say now."

Berry was equally uncommunicative after he was fired as manager of the Yanks on Oct. 16. The Yanks had won the American League pennant, then lost the World Series to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games. Berra was offered a two-year contract as a special field consultant to General Manager Ralph Houk, but no contract was signed.

In New York Thursday, Weiss said there has been "no concrete discussion of any type of job he might be interested in." But Weiss said he wanted Berra and understood that he was a free agent.

Ex-Cardinal Larry Jackson led the major leagues in victories this year, winning 25 games for the Chicago Cubs.

Potter Band Will Not Go To Weirton

East Liverpool High School's snappy marching band will not travel to Weirton tonight for the Potter-Weir High game.

Vincent Maola, Potter band director, said in a letter received from Weirton school officials that all visiting bands could not participate at halftime.

The halftime is reserved for the Weir High band and visiting bands who wish to perform must do so 20 minutes before game time.

This brought the decision from Maola not to take the ELHS band to Weirton tonight.

The Weirton band usually stages a lengthy halftime show and the appearance of a visiting band would draw out the halftime far past the allotted time.

Kelso Could Take Over As Top $ Winner

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 7-year-old gelding from Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Bohemia Stable needn't even win the two miles of the $100,000-added Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct for the fifth straight year. A second will be sufficient to send Kelly, as the four-time Horse of the Year is popularly known, to the top of the list.

Kelso has earned $1,732,772 and is only $17,097 away from Round Table's $1,749,869. With four starters, including the well regarded 3-year-olds Quadrangle and Roman Brother, the Gold Cup will gross $106,600 with $69,290 ticketed for the winner and $21,320 for second.

The race, with Milo Valenzuela again handling Kelso's reins, will be the popular champion's final test before he joins Gun Bow as the U.S. representatives in the $150,000 Washington D.C. International at Laurel, Md., Nov. 11. Incidentally, Kelso has finished second in the last three Internationals.

In addition to Quadrangle and Roman Brother, Guadalcanal, who never has won a stake, is expected to take on Kelly in the Cup. Under weight-for-age conditions, Kelso and Guadalcanal carry 124 pounds, Quadrangle and Roman Brother 119. A 3-year-old hasn't won the endurance test since Kelso started his string in 1960.

Willie Shoemaker replaces Fernando Alvarez on Roman Brother and Manuel Ycaza handles Quadrangle. No jockey has been named for Guadalcanal, who has finished second twice in the Gold Cup.

Westgaters Drop First To Quakers

Westgate jumped out to an 8-0 lead in the first four minutes but gave up two second half touchdowns to lose a 20-8 verdict at Salem Thursday afternoon. It was Westgate's first loss.

Sam Scott rambled 30 yards in the first period then tacked on the conversion to put the Wildcats on top.

Salem stormed back and scored in the second period but Westgate remained in front at halftime, 8-6.

The young Quakers tallied a touchdown in the third and fourth frames to grab the victory.

Bullets Edge Lakers In NBA Game, 98-95

The Baltimore Bullets posted a 98-95 victory over the Lakers Thursday night in the only game scheduled.

The Bullets came from behind late in the third quarter, when they trailed 65-63, to edge out the Lakers for the first victory in three games this season with Los Angeles.

The Baltimore win gives the Bullets a 3-5 season record, while the Lakers still lead the Western Division with 4-2, one game ahead of St. Louis at 2-2.

Group Of Sit-In Drug Users Send Plea To Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sit-in group of Krebiozen drug users who "do not believe our government will abandon us and let us die" sent a personal plea today to President Johnson.

The 17 keeping a vigil in the outer office of Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of health, education and welfare, want the President to lift the federal ban on interstate shipment of the controversial drug which the government has ruled is worthless against cancer.

Before dawn broke over the capital, members of the Citizens Committee for Cancer Survivors on Krebiozen drew up a telegram to Johnson.

It said: "We appeal to you to lift (the) ban for those patients now using Krebiozen by executive authority exercisable in disaster affecting American lives.

"Your intervention would be received by our people and the world as a magnificent act of humanitarianism."

Teachers Attending Cleveland Convention

CLEVELAND (AP) — Thousands of school children in a 13-county area of northeast Ohio get a holiday today while some 30,000 teachers attend the annual one-day convention of the North Eastern Ohio Teachers Association (NEOTA) in Cleveland.

Candidates for president are H. Robert Pollock, Wooster speech teacher who currently is vice president of NEOTA, and Norman D. Alexander, Youngstown social studies teacher.

Tariff Cuts Seen Tile Job Threat

CLEVELAND — The large number of wage earners making a living in the ceramic tile industry may be reduced sharply if current tariff negotiations provide concessions to foreign producers which are even more harmful than those made in the past, says Roy E. Jordan Jr., president of the Mosaic Tile Co., an affiliate of the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the U.S.

Tariff concessions already have allowed foreign makers to take 25 per cent of the 1960-63 United States market for wall tile alone, Jordan adds, and if trends continue they will have 60 per cent of the glazed wall tile market by 1970.

An estimated 3,600 Ohioans have jobs in the ceramic tile industry, a study made for the CTMUS finds. Their payroll is about $18 million a year. Ohio accounts for about 28 per cent of entire domestic production.

Persons In Custody Quickly Identified

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Police Department has installed a "Facsimile Transmission" system between district stations and central headquarters to identify persons in custody.

Supt. O. W. Wilson said the system will reduce prisoner processing time by about six hours.

Previously when a man was taken into custody his fingerprints were taken and then sent to police headquarters by police mail for a check. Sometimes the man remained in the lockup for as long as six hours.

Supt. Wilson said the new system is the first known application of utilizing electrical transmission of fingerprints in the United States.

Power Firm Officials To End Long Service

FAIRMONT, W. Va. — Robert S. Soule, vice president of the Monongahela Power Co., will retire from active service Nov. 1 after 37 years with the utility firm.

His responsibilities as head of the personnel and general services departments will be assumed by Robert H. Pell.

Also retiring Nov. 1 is Troy A. Lake, who has been manager of system operations since 1945.

Soule joined the electric company organization in 1927 as educational director in the Parkersburg division and has been in the company's general offices in Fairmont since December 1928. He became personnel director in 1931 and was elected vice president in 1955. He is a native of Hamilton, Ohio, and a graduate of Ohio University. Before coming with Monongahela he taught in Parkersburg High School and for a while was personnel driector of Mountain State Business College, also in Parkersburg.

Pell, a native of Morgantown, has been with the utility since 1930 and for several years was manager of power generation. Last March he moved to his present post as director of personnel and general services.

Lake, a native of Parsons, has been employed by Monongahela since 1926.

Browns Set Bob Gain Day For Nov. 29

CLEVELAND (AP) — Even though Bob Gain, defensive tackle for the Cleveland Browns the past 12 years, is out for the season with a broken leg, he will have one of the proudest days on the gridiron here Nov. 29.

Browns president Art Modell announced Thursday that day has been designed "Bob Gain Day." The Browns play the Philadelphia Eagles here the same day.

The former University of Kentucky standout broke his leg in the Dallas game here Oct. 14. Modell emphasized that declaring a day in his honor in no way meant the club felt Gain's career was over.

And according to Dr. Vic Ippolio, the Browns' physician, Gain, 35, may be able to play next season.

"Broken leg is not like a knee injury which sometimes causes chronic trouble," Dr. Ippolito explained. "Once a bone mends, it's usually as good as new. Sometimes better because of the calcium formation."

Wing Goalie Records 3rd Shutout, 2-0

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Red Wings' Manager-Coach Sid Abel has no goal tending problems —not with Roger Crozier stopping everything the opposition fires his way.

But Abel would like to see some points being scored by his younger players.

Bruce MacGregor scored two second period goals and Crozier kicked aside 32 shots to record his third shutout in four games in Detroit's 2-0 victory over Boston Thursday night.

The game was the only one on the National Hockey League schedule and the triumph moved the Red Wings into a tie for first place with Montreal to Toronto, each with nine points.

It also marked the seventh loss in eight games for Boston, which has yet to win.

MacGregor's goals were his first points this year. Three other Red Wings forwards — Pit Martin, Paul Henderson and Larry Jeffrey — have yet to score or gain an assist. Jeffrey is 24, the other two are 21.

Heads Port Group

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Louis C. Purdey, general manager of the Toledo - Lucas County (Ohio) Port Authority, has been elected president of the American Association of Port Authorities. He was elected at the close of the group's 53rd annual convention Thursday.

Browns Picked To Avenge Earlier Loss To Steelers

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland seeks revenge for an earlier loss to Pittsburgh, Baltimore goes after its seventh straight victory and Detroit and Los Angeles battle for the runner-up role in the West in key National Football League games Sunday.

Buffalo, only unbeaten team in the majors, shoots for its eighth straight against Houston and Boston duels New York for runner-up honors in the East in top American Football League games.

A 9-2 record last week gives us courage to go for a few upsets this time. The season score is 47-24-5 — 28-18-3 in the NFL and 19-6-2 in the AFL.

Here goes for the second half: (All games Sunday afternoon unless otherwise indicated):

NFL

Los Angeles 21, Detroit 17 — An upset right off the bat. The Rams and Lions play "get the passer" with their tough defensive lines. They fought to 17-17 tie Sept. 19 but Los Angeles outgained Detroit. Ram rookies pack more scoring punch, with Milt Plum handicapped by injured elbow.

Dallas 17, Chicago 14 — Cowboy defense to handle Bill Wade's passes in another surprise. Dallas coming strong in last two weeks with Don Meredith healthy. Bears battered physically but still playing.

St. Louis 24, New York 17 — Despite loss of Sonny Randle, Cards have mixture of running and passing to top Giants and blitzing defense to harass Y. A. Tittle. Both quarterbacks have interception trouble. Cards will give Giant rookie Ernie Wheelwright prime test. Running of Joe Childress, Willie Crenshaw and John David Crow make Cards tough.

Baltimore 28, San Francisco 10 — One of these days Colts are going to have a letdown. Could be this one but 49ers don't have rush line to hurry Johnny Unitas and John Brodie will get a rough reception. Colts' well-balanced offense too much.

Green Bay 24, Minnesota 21 — Vikings won their first meeting 24-23 on a missed extra point by Paul Hornung. Loss of Paul Flatley hurts Minnesota's air arm. Vikings can be had with passes. Both clubs can move the ball on the ground. A real tough one.

Cleveland 24, Pittsburgh 21 — This could be a killer. Steelers made 353 yards on the ground with John Henry Johnson and Clarence Peaks in winning first meeting 23-7. Conservative Brown pass rush gives Ed Brown plenty of time. But Jim Brown is overdue for a big one, especially against a club that stopped him cold earlier. Everybody runs against Steelers—except Browns.

Washington 21, Philadelphia 20 — Another upset. Toughest pick of the week. Redskins won first game 35-20 on five touchdown passes by Sonny Jurgensen who may have key to Eagle defense. Bobby Mitchell caught 12 against Glenn Glass first time so Nate Ramsey gets the job this week. Can Ollie Matson and Earl Gros run on Skins? That will decide it.

AFL

Boston 24, New York 21 (Saturday night) — Patriots beat Jets earlier 26-10. Mike Holovak's crew best in league on defense against rushing and Jets must have big yardage by Matt Snell to win. Gino Cappelletti and Jim Colclough catching Babe Parilli's passes give Boston edge. Jets vulnerable to bomb since loss of Marshall Starks.

Buffalo 28, Houston 17 — The Bills' happy string can't go on forever. But the rookie-loaded Oiler line-up doesn't have the stuff to stop the combination of Jack Kemp and Daryle Lamonica.

Oakland 24, San Diego 21 — Another upset. Al Davis has been having a tough year (1-5-1) but he has Sid Gillman's number. Clem Daniels and Billy Cannon are rolling, Cotton Davidson is rolling out and hitting Art Powell. Chargers having injury trouble in linebacking and deep defense but Lance Alworth, Keith Lincoln and Paul Lowe are healthy.

Kansas City 21, Denver 7 — Denver broke its long losing streak at Chiefs' expense Oct. 11, 33-27. Doesn't figure to happen again. Broncs having problems in defensive backfield. Len Dawson supposed to be ready to go but Eddie Wilson has been fine back-up man.

Rams Given Nod To Upset Detroit

Buckeyes Visit Iowa

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's footballers are out in Iowa this weekend, trying to protect their national No. 1 ranking, Big Ten lead and Rose Bowl hopes against the Hawkeyes.

But while Woody Hayes and his stalwarts are visiting the corn country, the Buckeye realm's other collegiate squads have quite a show on tap for the home folk.

Two big acts are scheduled at Oxford and Springfield, with plenty riding on the results.

At Oxford, Bowling Green puts its six-game winning streak and Mid-American title hopes on the line against Miami which has a 4-1-1 record and numbers Big Ten Northwestern amongs its victims.

A year ago the Bee-Gees went into the fray with that same 6-0 mark but were beaten 21-12 and Ohio University slipped into the championship as a result. If Miami turns the trick again, the Bobcats once more will take over the loop lead with a 2-0-1 mark to 3-1 for Saturday's foes.

Doyt Perry of Bowling Green, the nation's top-record coach with 74-9-5, has beaten the Redskins only twice in nine tries, against five losses and two ties.

The Springfield clash features Ohio Wesleyan's invasion of Wittenberg, with the latter going for its seventh straight victory, its sixth Ohio Conference championship in seven years and another boost to its rating as the country's best small college team.

Football's most ghoulish, gruesome trophy, "Ye Olde Indian Skull," goes to the winner. The skull was uncovered in 1929 at Delaware.

Despite Weslyan's 1-4 record, Wittenberg is not an odds - on favorite in the classic. Too many upsets have dotted the long series reaching back to 1894 for anyone to take anything for granted.

Back in 1928, when Wittenberg coach Bill Edwards was a Tiger star lineman, the Springfielders took a 4-3 record to Wesleyan against a team which had beat Syracuse and Michigan in a nine-game winning streak—but Wittenberg won 7-6, on Edwards' extra point.

Ohio University entertains Dayton's Flyers in another eye-catcher, while the four remaining Mid-American teams battle it out for the lower berths as Toledo (1-3) plays at Kent State (0-3-1), and Western Michigan (1-3) goes against Marshall (1-1).

The Ohio Conference, in addition to the Wesleyan-Wittenberg headliner, offers Hiram (1-3) at Wooster (1-3), Heidelberg (1-3) at Otterbein (4-1), Mt. Union (2-3) at Kenyon (0-3), Baldwin-Wallace (2-1) at Akron (2-3), and Marietta (1-3) at Capital (4-1).

Northside 6-0 Victor

Northside handed the Vikings a 6-0 setback Thursday night at Chester in the Tri-State Little Football League. Three games are scheduled Sunday in the league.

Central Tops East Junior Eleven, 26-0

Steubenville Central's Jim Layman scored all four touchdowns as East Junior High hit by key injuries during the game, dropped a 26-0 verdict Thursday at Steubenville.

An even first half, ended with Steubenville scoring on the last play of the second quarter to take a 6-0 lead at halftime. The young Crusaders tallied 20 points in the second half.

Marlen Hagge's 69 Leads Pro-Am Play

LAS CRUCES, N.M. (AP) — Marlene Hagge shot a 69 Thursday to lead the women professional golfers in the pro-am section of the Las Cruces Women's Open Golf Tournament.

Kathy Whitworth followed with a 70 and Mickey Wright, the leading money winner on the women's tour, had a 71.

Thirty women professionals tee off today in the 54-hole, $8,500 tournament at the Las Cruces Country Club.

Middies Pointing To Irish As They Would For Army

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Navy's football season, normally made or broken in the annual windup against Army, goes on the line a month early this year.

The date is Saturday, the target second-ranked Notre Dame — and if that doesn't throw a bit of a Halloween scare into the unbeaten Irish, there's always Roger Staubach.

The Middies, three-time losers, have been pointing toward this one — 38th meeting between the teams — with a passion usually reserved for their service academy rival. If any added incentive is needed, the return of All-America quarterback Staubach, recovered from a heel injury, to full-time duty should provide it.

While Navy and Staubach tangle with Notre Dame's vaunted defense, Ohio State tries to protect its No. 1 national ranking against another brilliant passer, Iowa's Gary Snook, in the Big Ten headliner.

Elsewhere, Alabama, Arkansas, Nebraska and Oregon risk perfect records against conference opponents and unbeaten Georgia Tech, major independent power, meets Duke in a key intersectional clash.

Ohio State, seeking a sixth straight victory and the inside track to the Rose Bowl, could be in for a rough hour at Iowa City. The Buckeyes have been less than overpowering in previous visits and they'll be contending with the nation's third-ranking passer in Snook and No. 1 receiver in Karl Noonan.

Third-ranked Alabama, 6-0, meets Southeastern Conference rival Mississippi State. Ninth-ranked Louisiana State, 4-0-1, plays Mississippi and Florida, No. 10 and 4-1, goes against Auburn in other top SEC games.

Arkansas, 6-0, seeks to cement its No. 4 ranks and Southwest Conference lead against Texas A&M. Sixth-ranked Texas, beaten only by the Razorbacks in six starts, has a SWC date with Southern Methodist.

High-scoring Nebraska must get past rugged Big Eight foe Missouri for victory No. 7. The Cornhuskers are No. 5 in the country. Suprising Oregon, also 6-0 and rated seventh, plays Stanford in a Pacific Athletic Conference game.

Georgia Tech, riding a 6-0 streak since quitting the SEC, meets its stiffest test thus far in the unbeaten, once-tied Blue Devils from the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Yellow Jackets are eighth in The Associated Press ratings.

130 Pros Tee Off In Almaden Tourney

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A field of 130 professionals was set to slosh through the opening round today of the $25,000 Almaden Open Golf Tournament after rain forced a one-day postponement.

The finals of the 72-hole tourney, originally set for Sunday, were rescheduled for Monday.

Sports Bench

make no mistake tonight it looks like East Liverpool by three touchdowns over Weirton.

We like Oak Glen to bounce back to the victory trail with a decision over Fairmont West, while Midland rates our nod to win its fourth straight over its old jinx, New Brighton.

On the Tri-County scene, our picks are East Palestine to nip Poland and Leetonia to edge Lisbon. Louisville is Louisville and Columbiana or any of the Leopards' opponents don't rate much of a chance.

Northwestern should chalk up a victory over South Side, which has been taking its football lumps, and Boardman is our call over Salem.

Saturday, the Beaver Local-Southern Local game shapes up as even, with the Beavers suffering some hard luck injuries to key personnel. We'll stick with the Beavers in this one by a narrow margin.

Stanton Local is our choice to nip Brilliant, while United should handle West Branch. It's Western Reserve over Crestview.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm neither a Republican nor a Democrat. I'm an independent who voted for Eisenhower in '56 and Kennedy in '60. At the moment I'm disenchanted with both candidates for the presidency.

I've decided the best way is to sit home on Election Day and read a good book. My wife is a strong party member but I'm not saying which party she is strong for. She is presently working hard for a candidate on whom she is not completely sold. Her rationale is this: "He's a second-rater, but the candidate running against him is a fifty-rater."

My wife insists it is stupid to sit home on Election Day but she can't tell me why. I don't think you can either, but I'm asking. Isn't this the best way to express dissatisfaction? —BALLOT BOX BLUES.

Dear Box: Sitting it out on Election Day expresses nothing—except a denial of your responsibility as a citizen.

Someone is going to be elected, whether you vote or not. Maybe you don't have the senior hots for either of the candidates, but unless you've been living in a cave these last six weeks surely you must have read and heard enough to make an intelligent choice.

How anyone can be undecided is beyond me. Exercise your franchise, Buddy Boy!

Girl's Best Friend

Dear Ann: The letter from the 48-year-old man who gave the widow a large diamond engagement ring brought back some unpleasant memories.

Having been in the same situation myself, I can tell you that people can be pretty mean. So please, Ann, don't be too critical of the engaged lady who kept her ring in the drawer.

When I first appeared at work wearing my 2-carat diamond, the office supervisor said, "Was that his first wife's ring?" I answered, "I really don't know. I didn't have the nerve to ask him."

Another cat announced, "A perfect stone that size would cost a fortune. Your ring probably has some flaws."

When the office nut declared a real diamond could cut glass and challenged me to prove my ring was real by cutting her purse mirror, I decided to leave the ring at home and wear it weekends. I sympathize with the woman who wrote and I hope you will, too.—BEEN THROUGH IT.

Dear It: I call these high-class worriers. And now on to the everyday-type problems—like the one that follows.

Terrible Video

Dear Ann: The current crop of TV shows is enough to make a person sick. I didn't think anything could be as bad as a steady diet of gangster stuff, killing, cowboys, good guys and bad guys but I do believe that what we have to look at this season is worse.

I will use Thursday as my example, since that was yesterday—and I kept the set on all day in preparation for this letter. There were four shows which used as their format, "school girls expecting babies."

I realize your column appears all over the United States and TV programs vary according to city but here is what we are getting in Grand Rapids, Mich.:

At noon, Love of Life — a school girl is expecting a baby.

At 3 p.m. General Hospital, a school girl is expecting a baby.

At 4 p.m. Secret Storm, a school girl expecting a baby.

After supper we get Peyton Place—and another school girl expecting a baby.

Comment please.—MRS. E.M.

Dear Mrs. M: Complain—to the sponsor.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

8 Minor Party Aspirants To Seek Presidential Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph B. Lightburn doesn't want to be counted out of the presidential race.

"If it goes into the House, they wouldn't have to put Johnson or Goldwater in. They could easily put me in," says Lightburn, the presidential candidate of the Constitution party.

E. Harold Munn, however, takes what he considers a realistic view.

"Of course, there's no possibility of it," he says, regarding his chances next Tuesday. Munn is running on the Prohibition party ticket.

Lightburn and Munn are among at least eight minor party presidential candidates, running in one or more states or seeking write-in ballots next Tuesday.

Each has his cause; few have much hope. In 1960, the minor party nominees polled less than one of every 200 votes.

For Lightburn, a Jane Lew, W. Va., merchant and a hurried substitute when Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace declined to accept the Constitution party designation, the cause is "a return to constitutionalism."

For Munn, the cause is to "apply Christian principles to government," attacking "creeping socialism, encroaching communism, growing secularism, pornography and alcoholism."

For the States Rights party, it is—as vice-presidential candidate J. B. Stoner of Birmingham put it — to "repeal all civil rights laws."

And for Henry Krajewski, the Secauscus, N. J. pig farmer turned tavern keeper, it is "to run against two millionaires as a poor man's representative."

Two of the minor parties are Socialist — the Marxist Socialist Labor party whose candidate, Eric Hass of New York, is making his fourth race for president; and the Trotskyite Socialist Workers party led by Mississippi-born Clifton Deberry, now of New York.

Besides Krajewski, at least two candidates are running solely on a write-in basis: Louis E. Jaeckel of Lancaster, S.C., the American party candidate, and Bishop Homer Tomlinson of the Church of God, founder of the Theocratic party.

Some of the candidates are campaigning for votes. Munn, a Hillsdale, Mich., college professor, has made speeches from coast to coast and Lightburn has made a 25-city tour of Texas.

Contract Nears End At Clay Mine

A contract between employes of the Pleasant Valley Clay Mine on Route 45 near Wellsville and the H. K. Porter Co., Inc., Refractories Division expires Saturday midnight.

Negotiations were held this week between the company and the United Brick & Clay Workers Union (AFL-CIO) but the talks ended with no agreement reached. No new negotiations have been slated.

The talks concern wages and fringe benefits.

Thirty-nine men are employed at the mine. The company negotiators include Lloyd Jenkins of Pittsburgh, labor relations director, and R. C. Conover of Pittsburgh, general works manager.

The union team, headed by Edward Bauer of Route 39, international representative, includes Fred Payne, Marvin Allen and Jay Hale.

To Face Grand Jury

FAIRFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Roy H. Hammell, 52, Lima, charged with second degree manslaughter, was held for grand jury action Thursday. The charge grew out of a multiple-car collision Oct. 3 on Interstate 75 in which two persons were killed and several injured. Police said Hammel's truck slammed into a car, killing the driver, Kenneth Hall, 29, Franklin.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Deal Firmly With Dowager's Hump

The "Dowager's hump" below the nape of the neck is a telltale sign of age. Years of bending bring it on—tipping the head down and rounding upper back. It's quite a jolt to view your silhouette in profile and note that thank-ye-Ma'am hump perched on the seventh cervical vertebra.

Ida Jean Kain

Can this hump be smoothed out? Strengthening the muscles between the shoulder blades and along your upper back can bring a marked improvement. Correcting head posture can sometimes work a miracle.

-:-

TRY AN exercise: Sit in a straight chair with your back straight. Clasp hands behind head, at base of head. Keep your elbows in a fairly straight line. P-u-l-l forward with hands, p-u-s-h head back hard against hands. Don't move head. Hold this muscle contraction for six seconds. Repeat a time or two.

Here is an exercise you can take before getting out of bed in the morning: Shove the pillow aside. Lie on back, have arms out at sides, shoulder level, palms down. The exercise is to arch your upper back so that your weight is resting on the back of your head, hands and hips. Hold this muscle contraction for a slow count of six, breathing normally. Relax. Gradually increase so as to repeat three times, always holding the contraction.

Lie on stomach, clasp hands together behind your back. Raise head and upper part of body slightly off bed, raising clasped arms slightly. Hold this muscle contraction for six seconds.

What about sleeping on a pillow? Beauty experts often admonish against it—though I suspect they slumber gently on their own downy pillows! Reason it through. A soft pillow that allows your head to relax and be comfortable helps to woo sleep. Wonderful! However, sleeping on a hard, unyielding pillow that props up your head high, could conceivably lead to a "dowager's hump" and all sorts of chin woes.

HOW'S YOUR posture? With poor posture, one fault leads directly to another. Reverse the process. . . one correction leads to another. Tone the muscles between your shoulder blades, square your shoulders. Bend forward all-of-a-piece, bending from the hip joints. Get the habit of pulling up with that line at the back of your neck. Hold the bump of self-esteem on the top of your head high. Practice elegant head carriage.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Alma Bartels, 71, Cincinnati, died Thursday of injuries suffered Oct. 18 in a two-car collision here. She was the county's 90th traffic fatality of the year.

Baby, Woman, 60, Killed In Collision

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP) — A collision between a pickup truck and an automobile at a intersection of two county roads two miles northwest of here Thursday took the lives of a baby and a 60-year-old woman.

Dead are 14-month-old Toni Uzelac of Bloomdale and Mrs. Edith Heneline of Bowling Green. The child's mother, Mrs. Penelope Uzelac, 31, was driving the pickup truck. She was brought to City Hospital here and later transferred to Mercy Hospital in Toledo. Mrs. Heneline was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Perry, 62. He was not hurt.

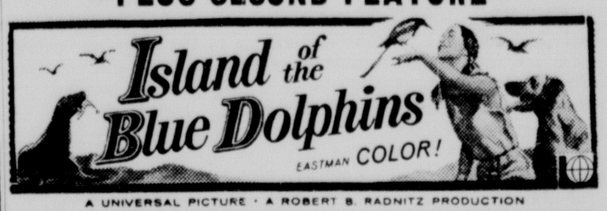

The "blackout" period experienced by alcoholics is not a period of unconsciousness. It is similar to amnesia or loss of memory.

Kelso Could Take Over As Top $ Winner

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

The 7-year-old gelding from Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Bohemia Stable needn't even win the two miles of the $100,000-added Jockey Club Gold Cup at Aqueduct for the fifth straight year. A second will be sufficient to send Kelly, as the four-time Horse of the Year is popularly known, to the top of the list.

Kelso has earned $1,732,772 and is only $17,097 away from Round Table's $1,749,869. With four starters, including the well regarded 3-year-olds Quadrangle and Roman Brother, the Gold Cup will gross $106,600 with $69,290 ticketed for the winner and $21,320 for second.

The race, with Milo Valenzuela again handling Kelso's reins, will be the popular champion's final test before he joins Gun Bow as the U.S. representatives in the $150,000 Washington D.C. International at Laurel, Md., Nov. 11. Incidentally, Kelso has finished second in the last three Internationals.

In addition to Quadrangle and Roman Brother, Guadalcanal, who never has won a stake, is expected to take on Kelly in the Cup. Under weight-for-age conditions, Kelso and Guadalcanal carry 124 pounds, Quadrangle and Roman Brother 119. A 3-year-old hasn't won the endurance test since Kelso started his string in 1960.

Willie Shoemaker replaces Fernando Alvarez on Roman Brother and Manuel Ycaza handles Quadrangle. No jockey has been named for Guadalcanal, who has finished second twice in the Gold Cup.

Westgaters Drop First To Quakers

Westgate jumped out to an 8-0 lead in the first four minutes but gave up two second half touchdowns to lose a 20-8 verdict at Salem Thursday afternoon. It was Westgate's first loss.

Sam Scott rambled 30 yards in the first period then tacked on the conversion to put the Wildcats on top.

Salem stormed back and scored in the second period but Westgate remained in front at halftime, 8-6.

The young Quakers tallied a touchdown in the third and fourth frames to grab the victory.

The Baltimore Bullets posted a 98-95 victory over the Lakers Thursday night in the only game scheduled.

The Bullets came from behind late in the third quarter, when they trailed 65-63, to edge out the Lakers for the first victory in three games this season with Los Angeles.

The Baltimore win gives the Bullets a 3-5 season record, while the Lakers still lead the Western Division with 4-2, one game ahead of St. Louis at 2-2.

Group Of Sit-In Drug Users Send Plea To Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sit-in group of Krebiozen drug users who "do not believe our government will abandon us and let us die" sent a personal plea today to President Johnson.

The 17 keeping a vigil in the outer office of Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of health, education and welfare, want the President to lift the federal ban on interstate shipment of the controversial drug which the government has ruled is worthless against cancer.

Before dawn broke over the capital, members of the Citizens Committee for Cancer Survivors on Krebiozen drew up a telegram to Johnson.

It said: "We appeal to you to lift (the) ban for those patients now using Krebiozen by executive authority exercisable in disaster affecting American lives.

"Your intervention would be received by our people and the world as a magnificent act of humanitarianism."

Teachers Attending Cleveland Convention

CLEVELAND (AP) — Thousands of school children in a 13-county area of northeast Ohio get a holiday today while some 30,000 teachers attend the annual one-day convention of the North Eastern Ohio Teachers Association (NEOTA) in Cleveland.

Candidates for president are H. Robert Pollock, Wooster speech teacher who currently is vice president of NEOTA, and Norman D. Alexander, Youngstown social studies teacher.

Driver, 16, Cited

LISBON — James Campanelli, 16, of Pleasant Heights, Lisbon, was cited to Juvenile Court by police following a collision of his panel truck with the car of Donald E. Crosser, 19, of 520 W. Washington St. Thursday at 4:30 p.m. Police said there was $500 damage to the car and $375 to the truck in the mishap at E. Lincoln Way and Jefferson St.

Tariff Cuts Seen Tile Job Threat

CLEVELAND — The large number of wage earners making a living in the ceramic tile industry may be reduced sharply if current tariff negotiations provide concessions to foreign producers which are even more harmful than those made in the past, says Roy E. Jordan Jr., president of the Mosaic Tile Co., an affiliate of the Ceramic Tile Manufacturers of the U.S.

Tariff concessions already have allowed foreign makers to take 25 per cent of the 1960-63 United States market for wall tile alone, Jordan adds, and if trends continue they will have 60 per cent of the glazed wall tile market by 1970.

An estimated 3,600 Ohioans have jobs in the ceramic tile industry, a study made for the CTMUS finds. Their payroll is about $18 million a year. Ohio accounts for about 28 per cent of entire domestic production.

Persons In Custody Quickly Identified

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Police Department has installed a "Facsimile Transmission" system between district stations and central headquarters to identify persons in custody.

Supt. O. W. Wilson said the system will reduce prisoner processing time by about six hours.

Previously when a man was taken into custody his fingerprints were taken and then sent to police headquarters by police mail for a check. Sometimes the man remained in the lockup for as long as six hours.

Supt. Wilson said the new system is the first known application of utilizing electrical transmission of fingerprints in the United States.

Power Firm Officials To End Long Service

FAIRMONT, W. Va. — Robert S. Soule, vice president of the Monongahela Power Co., will retire from active service Nov. 1 after 37 years with the utility firm.

His responsibilities as head of the personnel and general services departments will be assumed by Robert H. Pell.

Also retiring Nov. 1 is Troy A. Lake, who has been manager of system operations since 1945.

Soule joined the electric company organization in 1927 as educational director in the Parkersburg division and has been in the company's general offices in Fairmont since December 1928. He became personnel director in 1931 and was elected vice president in 1955. He is a native of Hamilton, Ohio, and a graduate of Ohio University. Before coming with Monongahela he taught in Parkersburg High School and for a while was personnel driector of Mountain State Business College, also in Parkersburg.

Pell, a native of Morgantown, has been with the utility since 1930 and for several years was manager of power generation. Last March he moved to his present post as director of personnel and general services.

Lake, a native of Parsons, has been employed by Monongahela since 1926.

Browns Set Bob Gain Day For Nov. 29

CLEVELAND (AP) — Even though Bob Gain, defensive tackle for the Cleveland Browns the past 12 years, is out for the season with a broken leg, he will have one of the proudest days on the gridiron here Nov. 29.

Browns president Art Modell announced Thursday that day has been designed "Bob Gain Day." The Browns play the Philadelphia Eagles here the same day.

The former University of Kentucky standout broke his leg in the Dallas game here Oct. 14. Modell emphasized that declaring a day in his honor in no way meant the club felt Gain's career was over.

And according to Dr. Vic Ippolio, the Browns' physician, Gain, 35, may be able to play next season.

"Broken leg is not like a knee injury which sometimes causes chronic trouble," Dr. Ippolito explained. "Once a bone mends, it's usually as good as new. Sometimes better because of the calcium formation."

Wing Goalie Records 3rd Shutout, 2-0

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Red Wings' Manager-Coach Sid Abel has no goal tending problems —not with Roger Crozier stopping everything the opposition fires his way.

But Abel would like to see some points being scored by his younger players.

Bruce MacGregor scored two second period goals and Crozier kicked aside 32 shots to record his third shutout in four games in Detroit's 2-0 victory over Boston Thursday night.

The game was the only one on the National Hockey League schedule and the triumph moved the Red Wings into a tie for first place with Montreal to Toronto, each with nine points.

It also marked the seventh loss in eight games for Boston, which has yet to win.

MacGregor's goals were his first points this year. Three other Red Wings forwards — Pit Martin, Paul Henderson and Larry Jeffrey — have yet to score or gain an assist. Jeffrey is 24, the other two are 21.

The Violence Issue

The next move in the long, long debate over TV violence is up to the broadcasters. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., scourge of the TV networks, has chosen the closing days of his campaign for re-election to issue the long-awaited report of his juvenile delinquency subcommittee. It didn't really surprise the TV people. As expected, it warned them that restrictive legislation might be proposed if crime and violence on TV is not reduced.

Richard Doan

THE BROADCASTERS were not quick to react. The networks had no immediate comment. The National Association of Broadcasters, whose TV code of programming practices was described by the subcommittee as toothless, likewise had no quick rebuttal.

"Effective self-policing," such as the industry attempts under the NAB code, is "the desirable approach" to controlling crime and violence on TV, the Dodd group said, but the code "lacks teeth," has been broken "hundreds of times" and is "generally ignored."

The subcommittee said it found TV crime and violence a direct cause, though not the only one, of juvenile delinquency.

DODD SAID the findings are significant because "each day more than 25 million children 12 and under look at television, spending "on the average, more time watching television than they do in either school or church."

The senators found that the three major networks are primarily responsible for "the prevailing policy . . . for it is clear that the networks have the key voice in determining programming content throughout the nation."

One network, CBS, was singled out for praise for showing a "a perceptible decline" in the extent to which it "features acts of violence."

Broadcasters were cautioned that "the patience of Congress, though considerable, is not endless" with respect to reforms such as the subcommittee urged.

THE AMERICAN Broadcasting Co. has accused some unidentified radio stations of pirating the audio portion of a performance by the Beatles on the ABC-TV network's program, "Shindig," last Oct. 7.

ABC and Selmur Productions, a subsidiary which produces "Shindig," said they were considering legal action against the stations, which apprently recorded the British rock 'n' rollers' numbers off the air and played them back on their own programs.

The network declined to say many stations lifted the Beatles act, but warned that ABC is "determined to stamp out this and any future piracy."

Stations could get hauled on the carpet by the FCC for such acts, too.

Frank Bourgholtzer, the network's correspondent who was expelled from the Soviet early last year, has been readmitted on a tourist visa along with two TV cameramen. The three men arrived in Moscow Monday night.

An NBC spokesman in New York, disclosing Bourgholtzer's return to the Russian capital, said the network did not know how long he would be allowed to stay but hoped the Kremlin move presaged permission to reopen the Moscow bureau.

Soviet officials kicked NBC out after the network ran two TV documentaries, "The Death of Stalin" and "The Rise of Khrushchev." Bourgholtzer lately has been working out of Western European capitals.

National Sets New Records

PITTSBURGH — New all-time records in total net income, net income per share, sales, ingot production and shipments were attained by National Steel Corp. in the first nine months of 1964, it was reported by Thomas E. Millsop, chairman. Weirton Steel Co. is a subsidiary.

New profit advanced 31 per cent over the comparable period of 1963 on an increase of 7 per cent in shipments and 9 per cent in sales.

Millsop said "we anticipate operating and financial results for the entire year 1964 substantially exceeding those of 1963 which so far are the highest in the history of National Steel."

Net income for the nine months ended Sept. 30, after all charges, was $59,965,811, equal to $3.83 per share, compared with $45,942,129, equal to $2.97 per share, in the first nine months of 1963.

A new high record for a third quarter was established in the period ended Sept. 30, with net income of $20,879,672, equal to $1.33 per share, compared with net income of $12,486,802, equal to 80 cents per share, in the third quarter of 1963.

County Road Crews Resume Bridge Work

Work was to resume today on pouring the first panels being replaced by Columbiana County Highway Department crews in the renovation of the Yellow Creek bridge on Wells Ave., Wellsville. Rain delayed the work Thursday.

The contractor, the Tenetryn System, Inc., of Willoughby began its phase of the work a week ago, on the sidewalk, curbing and rails. County commissioners let the $6,775 contract Oct. 13.

Charles Snyder, county engineer, said the bridge built in 1929 will have a complete renovation, including waterproofing of all cracks. He said it will be "as good as new" when completed.

Ohio Court Dismisses Appeal Of City Man

An appeal to the State Supreme Court by an East Liverpool man was dismissed Wednesday for reason that no substantial Constitutional question exists.

Austin Wayne Hoschar, 37, of 475 Mulberry St. was found guilty by a jury for uttering a fraudulent check on Oct. 8, 1963, and was sentenced to 1-20 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary on Dec. 6, 1963, by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. Execution of sentence was suspended pending an appeal.

The Common Pleas Court verdict was upheld by the 7th District Court of Appeals and it then went to the state court. Bond of $1,500 was continued and Hoschar has been free pending the Supreme Court's decision.

Bringing Up Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Children Can Enjoy Political Campaign

Any political campaign may prove interesting to children of school age, especially teenagers. They may read much in the newspapers and hear much on the air about the contending candidates. They may hear discussion of the contestants and issues at home. They may hear and talk a great deal of these issues among their friends. It is possible for these children to gain rich educational experiences from these activities.

Dr. Garry Myers

However, it is also possible for them to gain harmful experiences.

They could get best values if their parents tried hard to discuss the candidates and issues in a calm, objective manner. They could get good viewpoints if they read newspapers or heard newscasts with comments on both sides of the political fence.

HOWEVER, the human thing to do is to read and listen only to what we already are committed to and enthusiastic about and to close our eyes and ears to all others.

While in most homes the parents are inclined to agree on candidates and issues, in some other homes they strongly disagree. In the latter instance, it could be profitable for the children to hear these parents debate, if they discussed issues without heat, with reason and not anger. It would be of value if one or more of the children freely joined in a debate, especially when the parents agree and he disagrees with them.

Is this too much to hope for?

The worst imaginable effect on children is for them to hear their parents together constantly uttering words of hate about the candidate or side they both dislike, or to hear these parents actually battling each other in a warfare of hate. Aside from the verbal hail of hate it is bad sportsmanship.

It is possible for each of a pair of parents to have his or her strong preference and to evince great enthusiasm for them and still be calm and courteous and sportsmanlike toward each other—a situation which could be precious for their children to observe.

THEN one or both parents, admitting that they slightly, or rather strongly, disagree with one side or candidate, may manifest a belief in the two-party system and choose to vote for this party or candidate. In doing so, they owe it to their listening children to make clear this belief and calmly defend it.

Unfortunately, most discussions during a political campaign, especially a presidential campaign, which children hear, are concerts of hate or word battles. Consequently these children tend to echo the same emotional barrage among other children and grow ready to be like emotional partisans when they grow up.

Some parents, disagreeing violently on the candidates and issues, may agree to stay home on Election Day, since their votes would negate each other. But when they do so, they virtually say to their children and country that they don't feel a responsibility to exercise good citizenship. The same ill effect may occur when one parent who dislikes both sides or candidates chooses not to vote at election time.

Don't we owe it to our children to prove to them that we are responsible citizens?

To Be Used Only In Crisis

U.S.-Moscow 'Hot Line' Idle In Message Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington-Moscow "hot line" has stood idle while President Johnson exchanged messages with the new leaders of the Soviet Union.

This may come as a surprise to many people who, judging by inquiries about the hot line operation, apparently have the impression that it is a regular channel of communications between the White House and the Kremlin.

U.S. officials said today, however, that in fact the line has never been used for substantial exchanges of views between the American and Soviet governments. The reason is that when it was opened Aug. 31, 1963, both governments had already reached agreement that it would be employed only in times of crisis.

The theory behind creation of the special communications channel is that in a moment of extreme danger the ability of the President of the United States and the leaders of the Soviet Union to send messages to each other directly and in secret might help to avoid actions which would plunge the world into nuclear war.

The agreement to establish a line was reached following the Cuban missile crisis of October 1962. During the exchanges between the late President John F. Kennedy and former Premier Khrushchev some messages were given out publicly as soon as they were dispatched to one capital or the other because news wires could transmit them so much more quickly than they could be handled through ordinary diplomatic channels.

The hot line, which is tested every day, is actually two telegraph circuits which can readily handle messages in both directions. There is also a duplex radio circuit which would be used as a fallback channel in case the land line between the Pentagon and Moscow should break down at a critical moment.

Theoretically if the hot line had to be used in the near future, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin would be the man at the other end since he is the head of the Soviet government.

Healing Split Seen Failing

World Communist Talks Expected In Near Future

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
A.P. Special Correspondent

A world Communist meeting—with Red China attending—is a probability in the near future. But any attempt to heal the split in the global revolutionary movement seems headed for failure.

The new Soviet regime in all likelihood will be unwilling and unable to pay Peking's high price for peace.

Nikita Khrushchev's scalp was only the first installment the Chinese Communists demand for muffling communism's internal warfare.

Khrushchev's successors — party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin — seem anxious to mute the noisy criticism from Red China and its allies. But if they are going to get anywhere, they must eventually show a tougher policy toward the United States and even risk new tensions.

It is doubtful the new regime wants to alarm the Soviet people with a prospect of a turn backward toward Stalinism. It does not want to alarm the European Communist satellites, which have had a faint taste of independence. It does not want to alarm West European Communists, whose only prospects for gains lie in lulling the opposition.

Khrushchev's successors claim to support his policies of peaceful coexistence and higher living standards at home. At the same time they claim to stand for restoring world Communist unity.

Brezhnev and Kosygin cannot have all these things. The best they can hope for is a lull in the wordy battle with Peking. A lull is in effect now. Since Khrushchev's fall the Soviet press and the Red Chinese have been silent about differences with Moscow. But the aloof Chinese are watching and waiting developments.

The Chinese Communists seem interested now in a meeting with Moscow. They had rejected Khrushchev's call for a preparatory meeting Dec. 15 intended to lead to a world conference of 90 parties in mid-1965, but things have changed.

A conference, now likely, would be welcomed by Peking, anxious to probe Soviet intentions and seek tokens from Moscow that it has mended its ways.

Tin presently sells for more than $3,000 a ton and industrial demand for the metal is increasing.

Vote Supplies To Be Issued

Putting the finishing touches on preparations for the general election Tuesday, the County Election Board is scheduled to distribute supplies for its 165 polling places, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk.

The board packed precinct supplies Thursday night at its office at the Courthouse in Lisbon. The supplies will be distributed for northern county precincts Saturday from 9 to 11 a. m. at the Courthouse.

Those for the East Liverpool area will be handed out Monday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the board's office on W. 6th St. Wellsville district precinct supplies will be distributed Monday at 6:45 p. m. at Wellsville City Hall.

Provided proper applications were filed, the board was permitted to issue until noon today the ballots which allow new Ohio residents to vote for President and vice president only, O'Hanlon explained.

The new voters must have resided in Ohio at least 40 days and they must file affidavits from their former state of residence to prove they would have been qualified voters had they continued to reside there until election day.

O'Hanlon emphasized that the board is not permitted to mail the "new voter" ballots. They must be voted in person in the board's office, he said.

Children's Book Week Planned At City Library

Children's Book Week will be observed at the Carnegie Public Library Monday through Nov. 7. The event is earlier than usual to avoid a conflict with National Education Week, Mrs. Beatrice Davidson, librarian, said.

A special week is set aside yearly to call attention to the new children's publications and the facilities of the library in general. In keeping with the theme, "Swing Into Books," there will be a display in the children's department.

Children and parents are invited to visit and inspect the new books and to reserve any desired. They will be circulated at the conclusion of "Book Week."

Library cards are available for children 6 and up, or books may be borrowed for a younger child on the parent's card.

Teachers desiring to bring groups to the library during the week may call in advance to make arrangements, the librarian said.

Library hours are week days, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and Saturday 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Midland Officers Nab 3 For $1,136 Theft

Midland police arrested three Cleveland men Wednesday at 2 p. m. on charges they stole $1,136 from the glove compartment of a Beaver Falls man's auto in Rochester an hour earlier.

Authorities identified the suspects as David Gray, 36, Nathaniel Lett, 30, and Robert Coleman, 42. Officers said the three apparently took the money from the car of a Beaver Falls man who offered them a ride. When they left his car to join a companion, he noticed the loss, obtained the license number of their friend's car and notified Rochester police.

Alerted by Rochester police, Midland officers took the trio into custody. The three were returned to Rochester and Pennsylvania State Police and Rochester officers are continuing an investigation.

4-H News

Plans were made to attend the Hancock County 4-H officers training school Monday at New Cumberland Junior High School when the Pioneer 4-H Club met Wednesday night in the Pughtown Christian Church.

Tara Sue Brant, Linda Jones and Vicki Wern led devotions.

A committee, Randy Weyrich, Mary Margaret Endler, Ruth Ann Hill, Miss Brant, Miss Wern and Linda Jones, were appointed to install officers and initiate members of the Junior Pioneer Club.

Diana Stouffer led recreation. Lunch was served by Shirley Halley and Bill Halley and Miss Stouffer.

Guild To Serve Dinner At Industry Sunday

A public "harvest dinner" will be served by the St. Christine Guild Sunday from 3 to 7 p. m. in the church hall in Industry.

Mrs. Charles Karolewski and Mrs. Michael Rosepiler will be in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Joseph Benek and Mrs. Paul Botte will be diningroom chairmen.

Tickets are available at the door. The club's Executive Board will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the hall. The regular meeting will be held Nov. 9. Mrs. John Mehalik, president, will preside.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm neither a Republican nor a Democrat. I'm an independent who voted for Eisenhower in '56 and Kennedy in '60. At the moment I'm disenchanted with both candidates for the presidency.

I've decided the best way is to sit home on Election Day and read a good book. My wife is a strong party member but I'm not saying which party she is strong for. She is presently working hard for a candidate on whom she is not completely sold. Her rationale is this: "He's a second-rater, but the candidate running against him is a fifty-rater."

My wife insists it is stupid to sit home on Election Day but she can't tell me why. I don't think you can either, but I'm asking. Isn't this the best way to express dissatisfaction? —BALLOT BOX BLUES.

Dear Box: Sitting it out on Election Day expresses nothing—except a denial of your responsibility as a citizen.

Someone is going to be elected, whether you vote or not. Maybe you don't have the senior hots for either of the candidates, but unless you've been living in a cave these last six weeks surely you must have read and heard enough to make an intelligent choice.

How anyone can be undecided is beyond me. Exercise your franchise, Buddy Boy!

Girl's Best Friend

Dear Ann: The letter from the 48-year-old man who gave the widow a large diamond engagement ring brought back some unpleasant memories.

Having been in the same situation myself, I can tell you that people can be pretty mean. So please, Ann, don't be too critical of the engaged lady who kept her ring in the drawer.

When I first appeared at work wearing my 2-carat diamond, the office supervisor said, "Was that his first wife's ring?" I answered, "I really don't know. I didn't have the nerve to ask him."

Another cat announced, "A perfect stone that size would cost a fortune. Your ring probably has some flaws."

When the office nut declared a real diamond could cut glass and challenged me to prove my ring was real by cutting her purse mirror, I decided to leave the ring at home and wear it weekends. I sympathize with the woman who wrote and I hope you will, too.—BEEN THROUGH IT.

Dear It: I call these high-class worriers. And now on to the everyday-type problems—like the one that follows.

Terrible Video

Dear Ann: The current crop of TV shows is enough to make a person sick. I didn't think anything could be as bad as a steady diet of gangster stuff, killing, cowboys, good guys and bad guys but I do believe that what we have to look at this season is worse.

I will use Thursday as my example, since that was yesterday—and I kept the set on all day in preparation for this letter. There were four shows which used as their format, "school girls expecting babies."

I realize your column appears all over the United States and TV programs vary according to city but here is what we are getting in Grand Rapids, Mich.:

At noon, Love of Life — a school girl is expecting a baby.

At 3 p.m. General Hospital, a school girl is expecting a baby.

At 4 p.m. Secret Storm, a school girl expecting a baby.

After supper we get Peyton Place—and another school girl expecting a baby.

Comment please.—MRS. E.M.

Dear Mrs. M: Complain—to the sponsor.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

8 Minor Party Aspirants To Seek Presidential Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Joseph B. Lightburn doesn't want to be counted out of the presidential race.

"If it goes into the House, they wouldn't have to put Johnson or Goldwater in. They could easily put me in," says Lightburn, the presidential candidate of the Constitution party.

E. Harold Munn, however, takes what he considers a realistic view.

"Of course, there's no possibility of it," he says, regarding his chances next Tuesday. Munn is running on the Prohibition party ticket.

Lightburn and Munn are among at least eight minor party presidential candidates, running in one or more states or seeking write-in ballots next Tuesday.

Each has his cause; few have much hope. In 1960, the minor party nominees polled less than one of every 200 votes.

For Lightburn, a Jane Lew, W. Va., merchant and a hurried substitute when Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace declined to accept the Constitution party designation, the cause is "a return to constitutionalism."

For Munn, the cause is to "apply Christian principles to government," attacking "creeping socialism, encroaching communism, growing secularism, pornography and alcoholism."

For the States Rights party, it is—as vice-presidential candidate J. B. Stoner of Birmingham put it — to "repeal all civil rights laws."

And for Henry Krajewski, the Secauscus, N. J. pig farmer turned tavern keeper, it is "to run against two millionaires as a poor man's representative."

Two of the minor parties are Socialist — the Marxist Socialist Labor party whose candidate, Eric Hass of New York, is making his fourth race for president; and the Trotskyite Socialist Workers party led by Mississippi-born Clifton Deberry, now of New York.

Besides Krajewski, at least two candidates are running solely on a write-in basis: Louis E. Jaeckel of Lancaster, S.C., the American party candidate, and Bishop Homer Tomlinson of the Church of God, founder of the Theocratic party.

Some of the candidates are campaigning for votes. Munn, a Hillsdale, Mich., college professor, has made speeches from coast to coast and Lightburn has made a 25-city tour of Texas.

Contract Nears End At Clay Mine

A contract between employes of the Pleasant Valley Clay Mine on Route 45 near Wellsville and the H. K. Porter Co., Inc., Refractories Division expires Saturday midnight.

Negotiations were held this week between the company and the United Brick & Clay Workers Union (AFL-CIO) but the talks ended with no agreement reached. No new negotiations have been slated.

The talks concern wages and fringe benefits.

Thirty-nine men are employed at the mine. The company negotiators include Lloyd Jenkins of Pittsburgh, labor relations director, and R. C. Conover of Pittsburgh, general works manager.

The union team, headed by Edward Bauer of Route 39, international representative, includes Fred Payne, Marvin Allen and Jay Hale.

To Face Grand Jury

FAIRFIELD, Ohio (AP)—Roy H. Hammell, 52, Lima, charged with second degree manslaughter, was held for grand jury action Thursday. The charge grew out of a multiple-car collision Oct. 3 on Interstate 75 in which two persons were killed and several injured. Police said Hammel's truck slammed into a car, killing the driver, Kenneth Hall, 29, Franklin.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Deal Firmly With Dowager's Hump

The "Dowager's hump" below the nape of the neck is a telltale sign of age. Years of bending bring it on—tipping the head down and rounding upper back. It's quite a jolt to view your silhouette in profile and note that thank-ye-Ma'am hump perched on the seventh cervical vertebra.

Ida Jean Kain

Can this hump be smoothed out? Strengthening the muscles between the shoulder blades and along your upper back can bring a marked improvement. Correcting head posture can sometimes work a miracle.

—:—

TRY AN exercise: Sit in a straight chair with your back straight. Clasp hands behind head, at base of head. Keep your elbows in a fairly straight line. P-u-l-l forward with hands, p-u-s-h head back hard against hands. Don't move head. Hold this muscle contraction for six seconds. Repeat a time or two.

Here is an exercise you can take before getting out of bed in the morning: Shove the pillow aside. Lie on back, have arms out at sides, shoulder level, palms down. The exercise is to arch your upper back so that your weight is resting on the back of your head, hands and hips. Hold this muscle contraction for a slow count of six, breathing normally. Relax. Gradually increase so as to repeat three times, always holding the contraction.

Lie on stomach, clasp hands together behind your back. Raise head and upper part of body slightly off bed, raising clasped arms slightly. Hold this muscle contraction for six seconds.

What about sleeping on a pillow? Beauty experts often admonish against it—though I suspect they slumber gently on their own downy pillows! Reason it through. A soft pillow that allows your head to relax and be comfortable helps to woo sleep. Wonderful! However, sleeping on a hard, unyielding pillow that props up your head high, could conceivably lead to a "dowager's hump" and all sorts of chin woes.

HOW'S YOUR posture? With poor posture, one fault leads directly to another. Reverse the process. . . one correction leads to another. Tone the muscles between your shoulder blades, square your shoulders. Bend forward all-of-a-piece, bending from the hip joints. Get the habit of pulling up with that line at the back of your neck. Hold the bump of self-esteem on the top of your head high. Practice elegant head carriage.

Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for leaflets, For A Beautiful Throatline, and Isometric Exercises. Address request to Ida Jean Kain, care of The Review. Post card requests cannot be answered.

Wreck Injuries Fatal

CINCINNATI (AP) — Mrs. Alma Bartels, 71, Cincinnati, died Thursday of injuries suffered Oct. 18 in a two-car collision here. She was the county's 90th traffic fatality of the year.

Baby, Woman, 60, Killed In Collision

FOSTORIA, Ohio (AP) — A collision between a pickup truck and an automobile at a intersection of two county roads two miles northwest of here Thursday took the lives of a baby and a 60-year-old woman.

Dead are 14-month-old Toni Uzelac of Bloomdale and Mrs. Edith Heneline of Bowling Green. The child's mother, Mrs. Penelope Uzelac, 31, was driving the pickup truck. She was brought to City Hospital here and later transferred to Mercy Hospital in Toledo. Mrs. Heneline was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Perry, 62. He was not hurt.

The "blackout" period experienced by alcoholics is not a period of unconsciousness. It is similar to amnesia or loss of memory.

Out Of The Air

By RICHARD K. DOAN

The Violence Issue

The next move in the long, long debate over TV violence is up to the broadcasters. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., scourge of the TV networks, has chosen the closing days of his campaign for re-election to issue the long-awaited report of his juvenile delinquency subcommittee. It didn't really surprise the TV people. As expected, it warned them that restrictive legislation might be proposed if crime and violence on TV is not reduced.

THE BROADCASTERS were not quick to react. The networks had no immediate comment. The National Association of Broadcasters, whose TV code of programming practices was described by the subcommittee as toothless, likewise had no quick rebuttal.

"Effective self-policing," such as the industry attempts under the NAB code, is "the desirable approach" to controlling crime and violence on TV, the Dodd group said, but the code "lacks teeth," has been broken "hundreds of times" and is "generally ignored."

The subcommittee said it found TV crime and violence a direct cause, though not the only one, of juvenile delinquency.

DODD SAID the findings are significant because "each day more than 25 million children 12 and under look at television, spending "on the average, more time watching television than they do in either school or church."

The senators found that the three major networks are primarily responsible for "the prevailing policy . . . for it is clear that the networks have the key voice in determining programming content throughout the nation."

One network, CBS, was singled out for praise for showing a "a perceptible decline" in the extent to which it "features acts of violence."

Broadcasters were cautioned that "the patience of Congress, though considerable, is not endless" with respect to reforms such as the subcommittee urged.

THE AMERICAN Broadcasting Co. has accused some unidentified radio stations of pirating the audio portion of a performance by the Beatles on the ABC-TV network's program, "Shindig," last Oct. 7.

ABC and Selmur Productions, a subsidiary which produces "Shindig," said they were considering legal action against the stations, which apprently recorded the British rock 'n' rollers' numbers off the air and played them back on their own programs.

The network declined to say many stations lifted the Beatles act, but warned that ABC is "determined to stamp out this and any future piracy."

Stations could get hauled on the carpet by the FCC for such acts, too.

Frank Bourgholtzer, the network's correspondent who was expelled from the Soviet early last year, has been readmitted on a tourist visa along with two TV cameramen. The three men arrived in Moscow Monday night.

An NBC spokesman in New York, disclosing Bourgholtzer's return to the Russian capital, said the network did not know how long he would be allowed to stay but hoped the Kremlin move presaged permission to reopen the Moscow bureau.

Soviet officials kicked NBC out after the network ran two TV documentaries, "The Death of Stalin" and "The Rise of Khrushchev." Bourgholtzer lately has been working out of Western European capitals.

National Sets New Records

PITTSBURGH — New all-time records in total net income, net income per share, sales, ingot production and shipments were attained by National Steel Corp. in the first nine months of 1964, it was reported by Thomas E. Millsop, chairman. Weirton Steel Co. is a subsidiary.

New profit advanced 31 per cent over the comparable period of 1963 on an increase of 7 per cent in shipments and 9 per cent in sales.

Millsop said "we anticipate operating and financial results for the entire year 1964 substantially exceeding those of 1963 which so far are the highest in the history of National Steel."

Net income for the nine months ended Sept. 30, after all charges, was $59,965,811, equal to $3.83 per share, compared with $45,942,129, equal to $2.97 per share, in the first nine months of 1963.

A new high record for a third quarter was established in the period ended Sept. 30, with net income of $20,879,672, equal to $1.33 per share, compared with net income of $12,486,802, equal to 80 cents per share, in the third quarter of 1963.

Sales in the first nine months of 1964 were $718,400,722 compared with $660,660,050 in 1963 and sales in the third quarter of 1964 were $243,964,542 compared with $200,236,535 in the 1963 period.

County Road Crews Resume Bridge Work

Work was to resume today on pouring the first panels being replaced by Columbiana County Highway Department crews in the renovation of the Yellow Creek bridge on Wells Ave., Wellsville. Rain delayed the work Thursday.

The contractor, the Tenetryn System, Inc., of Willoughby began its phase of the work a week ago, on the sidewalk, curbing and rails. County commissioners let the $6,775 contract Oct. 13.

Charles Snyder, county engineer, said the bridge built in 1929 will have a complete renovation, including waterproofing of all cracks. He said it will be "as good as new" when completed.

Ohio Court Dismisses Appeal Of City Man

An appeal to the State Supreme Court by an East Liverpool man was dismissed Wednesday for reason that no substantial Constitutional question exists.

Austin Wayne Hoschar, 37, of 475 Mulberry St. was found guilty by a jury for uttering a fraudulent check on Oct. 8, 1963, and was sentenced to 1-20 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary on Dec. 6, 1963, by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. Execution of sentence was suspended pending an appeal.

The Common Pleas Court verdict was upheld by the 7th District Court of Appeals and it then went to the state court. Bond of $1,500 was continued and Hoschar has been free pending the Supreme Court's decision.

Bringing Up Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Children Can Enjoy Political Campaign

Any political campaign may prove interesting to children of school age, especially teenagers. They may read much in the newspapers and hear much on the air about the contending candidates. They may hear discussion of the contestants and issues at home. They may hear and talk a great deal of these issues among their friends. It is possible for these children to gain rich educational experiences from these activities.

Dr. Garry Myers

However, it is also possible for them to gain harmful experiences.

They could get best values if their parents tried hard to discuss the candidates and issues in a calm, objective manner. They could get good viewpoints if they read newspapers or heard newscasts with comments on both sides of the political fence.

HOWEVER, the human thing to do is to read and listen only to what we already are committed to and enthusiastic about and to close our eyes and ears to all others.

While in most homes the parents are inclined to agree on candidates and issues, in some other homes they strongly disagree. In the latter instance, it could be profitable for the children to hear these parents debate, if they discussed issues without heat, with reason and not anger. It would be of value if one or more of the children freely joined in a debate, especially when the parents agree and he disagrees with them.

Is this too much to hope for?

The worst imaginable effect on children is for them to hear their parents together constantly uttering words of hate about the candidate or side they both dislike, or to hear these parents actually battling each other in a warfare of hate. Aside from the verbal hail of hate it is bad sportsmanship.

It is possible for each of a pair of parents to have his or her strong preference and to evince great enthusiasm for them and still be calm and courteous and sportsmanlike toward each other—a situation which could be precious for their children to observe.

THEN one or both parents, admitting that they slightly, or rather strongly, disagree with one side or candidate, may manifest a belief in the two-party system and choose to vote for this party or candidate. In doing so, they owe it to their listening children to make clear this belief and calmly defend it.

Unfortunately, most discussions during a political campaign, especially a presidential campaign, which children hear, are concerts of hate or word battles. Consequently these children tend to echo the same emotional barrage among other children and grow ready to be like emotional partisans when they grow up.

Some parents, disagreeing violently on the candidates and issues, may agree to stay home on Election Day, since their votes would negate each other. But when they do so, they virtually say to their children and country that they don't feel a responsibility to exercise good citizenship. The same ill effect may occur when one parent who dislikes both sides or candidates chooses not to vote at election time.

Don't we owe it to our children to prove to them that we are responsible citizens?

To Be Used Only In Crisis

U.S.-Moscow 'Hot Line' Idle In Message Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Washington-Moscow "hot line" has stood idle while President Johnson exchanged messages with the new leaders of the Soviet Union.

This may come as a surprise to many people who, judging by inquiries about the hot line operation, apparently have the impression that it is a regular channel of communications between the White House and the Kremlin.

U.S. officials said today, however, that in fact the line has never been used for substantial exchanges of views between the American and Soviet governments. The reason is that when it was opened Aug. 31, 1963, both governments had already reached agreement that it would be employed only in times of crisis.

The theory behind creation of the special communications channel is that in a moment of extreme danger the ability of the President of the United States and the leaders of the Soviet Union to send messages to each other directly and in secret might help to avoid actions which would plunge the world into nuclear war.

The agreement to establish a line was reached following the Cuban missile crisis of October 1962. During the exchanges between the late President John F. Kennedy and former Premier Khrushchev some messages were given out publicly as soon as they were dispatched to one capital or the other because news wires could transmit them so much more quickly than they could be handled through ordinary diplomatic channels.

The hot line, which is tested every day, is actually two telegraph circuits which can readily handle messages in both directions. There is also a duplex radio circuit which would be used as a fallback channel in case the land line between the Pentagon and Moscow should break down at a critical moment.

Theoretically if the hot line had to be used in the near future, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin would be the man at the other end since he is the head of the Soviet government.

Healing Split Seen Failing

World Communist Talks Expected In Near Future

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
A.P. Special Correspondent

A world Communist meeting—with Red China attending—is a probability in the near future. But any attempt to heal the split in the global revolutionary movement seems headed for failure.

The new Soviet regime in all likelihood will be unwilling and unable to pay Peking's high price for peace.

Nikita Khrushchev's scalp was only the first installment the Chinese Communists demand for muffling communism's internal warfare.

Khrushchev's successors — party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin — seem anxious to mute the noisy criticism from Red China and its allies. But if they are going to get anywhere, they must eventually show a tougher policy toward the United States and even risk new tensions.

It is doubtful the new regime wants to alarm the Soviet people with a prospect of a turn backward toward Stalinism. It does not want to alarm the European Communist satellites, which have had a faint taste of independence. It does not want to alarm West European Communists, whose only prospects for gains lie in lulling the opposition.

Khrushchev's successors claim to support his policies of peaceful coexistence and higher living standards at home. At the same time they claim to stand for restoring world Communist unity.

Brezhnev and Kosygin cannot have all these things. The best they can hope for is a lull in the wordy battle with Peking. A lull is in effect now. Since Khrushchev's fall the Soviet press and the Red Chinese have been silent about differences with Moscow. But the aloof Chinese are watching and waiting developments.

The Chinese Communists seem interested now in a meeting with Moscow. They had rejected Khrushchev's call for a preparatory meeting Dec. 15 intended to lead to a world conference of 90 parties in mid-1965, but things have changed.

A conference, now likely, would be welcomed by Peking, anxious to probe Soviet intentions and seek tokens from Moscow that it has mended its ways.

Tin presently sells for more than $3,000 a ton and industrial demand for the metal is increasing.

Vote Supplies To Be Issued

Putting the finishing touches on preparations for the general election Tuesday, the County Election Board is scheduled to distribute supplies for its 165 polling places, according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk.

The board packed precinct supplies Thursday night at its office at the Courthouse in Lisbon. The supplies will be distributed for northern county precincts Saturday from 9 to 11 a. m. at the Courthouse.

Those for the East Liverpool area will be handed out Monday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the board's office on W. 6th St. Wellsville district precinct supplies will be distributed Monday at 6:45 p. m. at Wellsville City Hall.

Provided proper applications were filed, the board was permitted to issue until noon today the ballots which allow new Ohio residents to vote for President and vice president only, O'Hanlon explained.

The new voters must have resided in Ohio at least 40 days and they must file affidavits from their former state of residence to prove they would have been qualified voters had they continued to reside there until election day.

O'Hanlon emphasized that the board is not permitted to mail the "new voter" ballots. They must be voted in person in the board's office, he said.

Children's Book Week Planned At City Library

Children's Book Week will be observed at the Carnegie Public Library Monday through Nov. 7. The event is earlier than usual to avoid a conflict with National Education Week, Mrs. Beatrice Davidson, librarian, said.

A special week is set aside yearly to call attention to the new children's publications and the facilities of the library in general. In keeping with the theme, "Swing Into Books," there will be a display in the children's department.

Children and parents are invited to visit and inspect the new books and to reserve any desired. They will be circulated at the conclusion of "Book Week."

Library cards are available for children 6 and up, or books may be borrowed for a younger child on the parent's card.

Teachers desiring to bring groups to the library during the week may call in advance to make arrangements, the librarian said.

Library hours are week days, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. and Saturday 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Midland Officers Nab 3 For $1,136 Theft

Midland police arrested three Cleveland men Wednesday at 2 p. m. on charges they stole $1,136 from the glove compartment of a Beaver Falls man's auto in Rochester an hour earlier.

Authorities identified the suspects as David Gray, 36, Nathaniel Lett, 30, and Robert Coleman, 42. Officers said the three apparently took the money from the car of a Beaver Falls man who offered them a ride. When they left his car to join a companion, he noticed the loss, obtained the license number of their friend's car and notified Rochester police.

Alerted by Rochester police, Midland officers took the trio into custody. The three were returned to Rochester and Pennsylvania State Police and Rochester officers are continuing an investigation.

4-H News

Plans were made to attend the Hancock County 4-H officers training school Monday at New Cumberland Junior High School when the Pioneer 4-H Club met Wednesday night in the Pughtown Christian Church.

Tara Sue Brant, Linda Jones and Vicki Wern led devotions.

A committee, Randy Weyrich, Mary Margaret Endler, Ruth Ann Hill, Miss Brant, Miss Wern and Linda Jones, were appointed to install officers and initiate members of the Junior Pioneer Club.

Diana Stouffer led recreation. Lunch was served by Shirley Halley and Bill Halley and Miss Stouffer.

Guild To Serve Dinner At Industry Sunday

A public "harvest dinner" will be served by the St. Christine Guild Sunday from 3 to 7 p. m. in the church hall in Industry.

Mrs. Charles Karolewski and Mrs. Michael Rosepiler will be in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Joseph Benek and Mrs. Paul Botte will be diningroom chairmen.

Tickets are available at the door. The club's Executive Board will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the hall. The regular meeting will be held Nov. 9. Mrs. John Mehalik, president, will preside.

OFF THE RECORD

"There's no use agreeing with me now—I've changed my mind."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I remove nail polish, tar, lacquer, varnish, and other such deposits from a linoleum surface?

Q.—How can I give my suede shoes and purses a good cleaning?

Q. — How can I remove old stains that have penetrated my wooden floors?

A. — These can be removed with a solution of oxalic acid. Use this liquid with great care, since it is a deadly poison—and be sure to wear rubber gloves! To treat a whole floor, dissolve a half - pound of oxalic acid crystals in about three quarts of hot water. While still hot, apply to the floor with a brush, letting it remain overnight. Next day, wash the floor with clear water several times. After dry, it can be sandpapered and then finished as you desire.

Q. — How can I remove rust from an iron frying pan?

A. — With scouring powder and steel wool. To prevent future rust, rub the inside and outside of the skillet with lard.

Q. — What can I do when I have spilled a little bleach on dark cotton rugs?

A. — Touch up the white spots with food cloring to prevent them from being noticed.

Q. — How can I clean a common - brick fireplace that is discolored by smoke?

A. — Ordinary household ammonia is usually very effective. A mild washing - powder solution will remove accumulated dirt and dust. Wash off with clear water. If the brickwork is old and porous, it will of course absorb considerable water and will take quite a bit of time for drying.

Junior Editors Quiz on Science

QUESTION: What are ultra-violet rays and what are they good for?

ANSWER: Scientists tell us that sunlight has waves of energy of different kinds, with different "wave-length" or distance in these waves from crest to crest. Some of the waves of different wave lengths are shown at upper right. Those on a light background are the "visible spectrum." These are the ones we see, with the colors, which add up together to white. Other rays, on black backgrounds, are invisible, but we feel their effects, such as from the heat waves. The ultra violet rays, lying just beyond the violet range of visible light, are unseen, but we can feel them very definitely. They give us sunburn if we are exposed to them too long, or unless we have a protective coat of tan. Fortunately there is a gas in the air, ozone, which absorbs much of this ultra violet radiation, so under ordinary conditions we get just enough for a healthful effect. These rays help to form the important D vitamin in milk and eggs and they are also very useful in lighting. In fluorescent lamps, ultra-violet light is produced artificially as electric current passes through mercury vapor; the rays become visible from a special coating on the inside of the lamp tube. Ultra-violet rays are also used to identify certain minerals.

FOR YOU TO DO: Both light and sound travel in waves. Toss a stone into a pond to see how the little ripple waves travel outward in a somewhat similar way.

Illiterate Has Right To Ballot But Can't Receive Assistance

Answering in advance some of the questions most commonly asked by precinct staffs and voters, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the County Election Board, said today state law allows an illiterate to vote, but stipulates he cannot receive assistance in marking his ballot.

O'Hanlon said his office already has received several questions on the status of illiterate voters.

Law provides the illiterate has a perfect right to obtain a ballot and that he may sign the poll book with an "X" or his mark, the clerk said.

But the illiterate may not have assistance in marking the ballot, even though he requests it, O'Hanlon said. If the ballot is returned blank, it will be dropped into the box just as any other ballot, he added.

Machinery has been set up to report the results in multiples of 10 precincts to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown's office in Columbus, O'Hanlon added. He said the board will make its usual "flash count" on the Johnson-Goldwater Presidential race in the East Liverpool area precincts.

Precinct workers will be asked to tabulate the Presidential vote first when the polls close, then telephone the figures to the Election Board's office. The board will keep a running total, expecting to finish the "flash count" in less than an hour after voting ends.

The precinct officials then will make the usual tabulation of results, following instructions already distributed by the board.

O'Hanlon pointed out the Election Board has rejected a move of the Network Election Service to station reporters in each polling place. Precinct personnel have been instructed that no one may enter the voting place after the polls close unless he has credentials from the Election Board.

If an unauthorized person attempts to enter, the precinct workers have instructions to call police or deputy sheriffs to eject him, O'Hanlon said.

Precinct personnel also have orders not to report figures to any agency except the Election Board of their district collector, O'Hanlon added.

The clerk said some "curbstone lawyers" have circulated incorrect reports that Middleton Township residents must vote on all five questions on a local option ballot or their votes will not be counted.

He said the reports are incorrect. Actually, the voter may mark any of the questions or all five of them or return his ballot as a blank, O'Hanlon said. Blank ballots must go into the box just as any other in order that all will be accounted for, he added.

"This has been the most trying election in memory," O'Hanlon commented. "More problems have arisen than ever before and the work load had quadrupled in the last 10 years —mainly because of new state laws."

Five Buildings Will Be Erected At Lorain College

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Construction plans call for five educational buildings for the Lorain County Community College to be completed by the start of the 1966 school year. Completion of the $13-million building project is scheduled for 1970.

Designs for the college buildings and the campus were unveiled Thursday night by Dr. Max J. Lerner, college president, Andrew Warhola, board of trustees chairman, and the architectural firm of Perkins & Will, Chicago.

Gov. James A. Rhodes spoke and praised the college board as having made great strides toward getting the institution opened and fulfilling educational needs in Lorain County.

The first of three phases will include the humanities building, the science and mathematics building, the technical complex, physical education facilities and the college center. The campus will be on a 250-acre site.

Miller Attacks Johnson Again, Lauds Goldwater

CEDAR CITY, Utah (AP) — Rep. William E. Miller says that the Communist, Socialist and Liberal parties support President Johnson in the election campaign and that this shows "there must be something awfully good about Barry Goldwater if these are the people who oppose him."

The Republican vice presidential nominee made this comment at a rally Thursday night at Santa Barbara, Calif., and then turned eastward today on the final leg of his campaign.

His schedule took him to Cedar City and then on to Albuquerque, N.M., and Enid and Bartlesville, Okla.

He will conclude his campaign Saturday night in Philadelphia.

Thursday night's rally at Earl Warren Park in Santa Barbara produced one of the most enthusiastic receptions of the Miller campaign.

A crowd of more than 2,000 sent Miller into the home stretch with applause, cheers and whistling.

A roar of approval rose when Miller declared, "This is a fight between those who believe in the private enterprise system and those who believe in Socialism."

Junior Editors Quiz on Science

QUESTION: What are ultra-violet rays and what are they good for?

ANSWER: Scientists tell us that sunlight has waves of energy of different kinds, with different "wave-length" or distance in these waves from crest to crest. Some of the waves of different wave lengths are shown at upper right. Those on a light background are the "visible spectrum." These are the ones we see, with the colors, which add up together to white. Other rays, on black backgrounds, are invisible, but we feel their effects, such as from the heat waves. The ultra violet rays, lying just beyond the violet range of visible light, are unseen, but we can feel them very definitely. They give us sunburn if we are exposed to them too long, or unless we have a protective coat of tan. Fortunately there is a gas in the air, ozone, which absorbs much of this ultra violet radiation, so under ordinary conditions we get just enough for a healthful effect. These rays help to form the important D vitamin in milk and eggs and they are also very useful in lighting. In fluorescent lamps, ultra-violet light is produced artificially as electric current passes through mercury vapor; the rays become visible from a special coating on the inside of the lamp tube. Ultra-violet rays are also used to identify certain minerals.

FOR YOU TO DO: Both light and sound travel in waves. Toss a stone into a pond to see how the little ripple waves travel outward in a somewhat similar way.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I remove nail polish, tar, lacquer, varnish, and other such deposits from a linoleum surface?

Q.—How can I give my suede shoes and purses a good cleaning?

Q. — How can I remove old stains that have penetrated my wooden floors?

A. — These can be removed with a solution of oxalic acid. Use this liquid with great care, since it is a deadly poison—and be sure to wear rubber gloves! To treat a whole floor, dissolve a half - pound of oxalic acid crystals in about three quarts of hot water. While still hot, apply to the floor with a brush, letting it remain overnight. Next day, wash the floor with clear water several times. After dry, it can be sandpapered and then finished as you desire.

Q. — How can I remove rust from an iron frying pan?

A. — With scouring powder and steel wool. To prevent future rust, rub the inside and outside of the skillet with lard.

Q. — What can I do when I have spilled a little bleach on dark cotton rugs?

A. — Touch up the white spots with food cloring to prevent them from being noticed.

Q. — How can I clean a common - brick fireplace that is discolored by smoke?

A. — Ordinary household ammonia is usually very effective. A mild washing - powder solution will remove accumulated dirt and dust. Wash off with clear water. If the brickwork is old and porous, it will of course absorb considerable water and will take quite a bit of time for drying.
